BUTTER OFFERINGS ON DECREASE California is Taking

Eggs Steady PRODUCE EXCHANGE PORTLAND, Aug. 12—(AP)— Outside offerings in the butter trade have decreased materially during the past few days. Al-though the decrease is marked, as Local churning also has shown a decrease. The interpretation placed upon the decrease is that California is drawing more heavily upon country creameries of the Pacific northwest, although prices here are on a par with those elsewhere on the coast.

compared to a week ago, it is considered more or less seasonable.

Supplies, Belief;

Butterfat continues to show strength. Egg trade continues strong with virtually no change in prices locally. In some sections of the middle west and east, however, the market was spotted. Demand in the chicken trade holds steady with all broilers showing a relatively strong tone. Hogs are inclined to show fractional duliness; otherwise there is virtually no change in the country killed meats market.

Movement of tomatoes is gaining with an unusual supply being received from Walla Walla. Yellow Bantam corn is being offered in sufficient volume to establish the price around $1@ 1.16 sack, while other yellow stock generally is listed around 75 @ 90c sack. The onion market is congested and extremely weak. Sales to wholesalers in carload lots range 50 @ 60c cental on cars here.

RAIN HALTS FIELD WORK SUBLIMITY, Aug. 12. - Many hreshing machines around this neighborhood have quit threshing for a while, during the rain. Some have started again and are threshing for those who have their grain stacked.
