'LADY AND GENT' NOW AT ELSINORE

George Bancroft is Teamed With Wynne Gibson and Other Notables

Two "wise eggs" who were too wise to be brief, is the story of "Lady and Gent." George Bancroft's latest starring picture today at the Elsinore.

Petite Wynne Gibson, latest Hollywood "find," who is soaring to stardom in her own right, plays opposite the virile Mr. Bancroft, and Charles Starrett, James Gleason, John Wayne and Joyce Compton have other leading roles.

Bancroft and Miss Gibson are cast as a couple of self-styled "big timers" who dwell on the shady side of Broadway, battling merrily with each other and with any one else who crosses their path.

The uneven tenor of their lives becomes even more uneven when Bancroft's best friend suddenly dies, leaving a 12-year-old son alone in the world. Just what their responsibilities to the lad are, they sit down to consider.

And they reach a conclusion that produces results as whimsical as they are radical.

"Lady and Gent" was written especially for Bancroft by Grover Jones and William Slavens McNutt. Stephen Roberts directed.

Morgan Wallace, James Crane, William Halligan, Billy Butts, Frank McElvan, Sr., Charles Grapewin and Frederick Wallace appear in minor roles.

George Bancroft and Wynne Gibson in "Lady and Gent," which is the Sunday and Monday feature at Warner Bros. Elsinore.

A glimpse from the comedy drama "Week Ends Only" in which Joan Bennett and Ben Lyon take the leading roles at the Grand beginning today.

'WEEK ENDS ONLY' SHOWING AT GRAND

From a luxurious home to a tenement, and then in rapid succession to an elaborate speakeasy, a Greenwich Village apartment, an artist's studio, an Adirondack lodge and an ocean liner—these are the contrasting backgrounds against which Joan Bennett and Ben Lyon move in "Week Ends Only." The picture is Miss Bennett's newest vehicle coming to the Grand today.

With a swift-moving romance that involves plenty of complications and a climax that remains in doubt until the final scene, this picture promises exceptional entertainment to local film patrons. John Halliday heads the supporting cast, which includes Walter Byron, Halliwell Hobbes, Allan Dinehart, John Arledge and Bertton Churchill. Alan Crosland directed.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE GETS BERRY PATCH

Unemployed Will be Sent To Pick; Wood Supply On Stump Obtained

Salem Industrial league was presented with a patch of cultivated Evergreen blackberries by I. Elbert who lives on the Dallas road a short distance beyond West Salem yesterday.

The owner said there was twenty tons of berries on the vines and the league was welcome to the entire crop.

A force of pickers from among those who have applied for employment by the league will be individually seen and listed today by league representatives and picking will begin at noon tomorrow concurrent with the beginning of operations by the Hillman-Cleary cannery in West Salem which will can the berries for the league.

One thousand or more cords of wood on the stump have been obtained by the league on the lands of C. A. Wilson of Macleay who will accept the league's scrip in payment. Final arrangements were completed yesterday and cutting will begin in the near future.

Representatives of the league will visit farmers northeast of Salem early this week in response to an invitation brought in person by one of them, Mr. Pickens, to the meeting of the league, directors Friday night.

The league is the latest addition to Salem's relief activities and is directing its efforts to furnishing employment whereby those in need may earn and buy for themselves the necessities of life rather than being the recipients of charity. Its plans for the use of a substitute for money are proving of wide interest.

PEACH HARVEST ON IN WACONDA REGION

WACONDA, Aug. 13 — J. P. Aspinwall and Bert Jones attended a recent peach growers meeting at McMinnville held to establish a market and price for their product. By laws will be adopted and plans completed at McMinnville Monday night for the Oregon Peach Growers' association which grew from the organization of three small groups of farmers at Stayton, Wheatland and Cornelius.

All growers are urged to join. Besides the benefit concerning disposal of fresh fruit at reasonable profit, supplies can be purchased for less.

Aspinwall and Jones are members of a committee appointed to investigate the feasibility of renting a warehouse or storage room in Portland where farmers can deliver their peaches to be distributed to buyers in Portland and vicinity.

Besides harvesting a small crop from the two and one-half acres on his fruit farm at Waconda this year, J. P. Aspinwall has purchased the peach crop on the Hop Lee farm six miles north of Salem on the River road. This is one of the finest orchards in the country and the trees are well-loaded with exceptionally nice peaches this year.

Bert Aspinwall of Waconda is busy with peach harvest now. The Slappy and early Crawford picking will last about 10 days yet, then the Elbertas, J. H. Hale and Muir will be ready for harvest.

climaxed with a battle royal in which the most sturdy youths of the day will vie with one another, the winner being the lad who can throw all the others from a barge into the bay. The entire event is free.

BOND ISSUE RUMOR DENIED BY SOVIET

MOSCOW, Aug. 12—(AP)—An authoritative denial was issued today of reports published in New York that Soviet Russia contemplates floating a bond issue in the United States.

The Soviet government has not attempted to market any domestic loan in America or other foreign countries, it was said, nor does it intend to try to do so long as there is no official relationship between the two countries.

It was supposed the reports in New York arose from the fact a recent domestic loan issued to finance the last year of the five-year plan contained a provision that the bonds might be purchased in foreign currency and would draw interest in the same currency at the regular rate of ten per cent.

Report on Route To Sea Will be Issued Tuesday

The report of engineers on the proposed "short routes" from Portland to the sea, is being prepared by R. H. Baldoek, state highway engineer, and will be released Tuesday, it was announced Saturday at the state highway department.

A tentative draft of the report was submitted to members of the state highway commission at a meeting here yesterday. Baldoek said the report would be quite lengthy.

DRIVER EXAMS NOT EXPENSE TO STATE

Mess' Replies to Criticism From Newspapers; new System Praised

Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, in a statement issued Saturday, denounces alleged distortion of the facts in connection with the conduct of the state operators' examination department. He indicates that certain newspapers have published statements regarding the conduct of the bureau which were filled with falsehoods and misinformation.

"The operation of this law does not add one dollar to the tax burden of the state," Hoss said in his statement. "Furthermore, there is no provision of the law requiring 500,000 motorists to be examined, and the secretary of state has never said that he would require compulsory examinations of the existing 400,000 operators."

Many Operators Licenses Suspended Figures included in the report showed that during the past year the department suspended 122 operators' licenses and revoked 304 others. The suspensions were made for varying terms by the department on recommendations of the courts and enforcement officers on charges of dangerous driving practices.

"Of the total revocations," the report continued, "235 were based on convictions of driving while intoxicated. Of the other nine, four were the result of hit and run driving, two for operating while under sentence of suspended license, and one each for driving while under the influence of narcotics, failure to disclose identity at the scene of an accident, and manslaughter."

Of the 122 suspensions for the year, 37 were caused by reckless driving, five were charged to speeding, and the remainder distributed over violations such as incompetent driving, inability to safely control an automobile, driving without license, failure to give name and address after accident, epilepsy, failure to stop and give aid after an accident."

Receipts of the department for the year were $1,000,000. Original operators' licenses $19,097; renewals $398,150, chauffeurs licenses $16,449.50, duplicate licenses $3340, learner permits $1036, student permits $97, and duplicate chauffeurs licenses $74.

Water Company Replies to Kick From Hillsboro

The Oregon-Washington Water Service company Saturday filed with the public utilities commission in answer to the complaint of Hillsboro residents, protesting against the rates, practices and service of the water corporation.

The company alleged in its answer that the rates are reasonable and just and that the service is adequate. Charges of discrimination were denied by the water corporation.

HITLER TO CONFER WITH CHANCELLOR

BERLIN, Aug. 13 — (AP) — Adolf Hitler, whose importance in the German political-drama is constantly increasing, left his vacation retreat in the Bavarian Alps today to talk with Chancellor Von Papen tomorrow.

After that meeting he probably will see President Von Hindenburg, and on the outcome of that conference depends Hitler's immediate future.

This evening, "somewhere near Berlin" Hitler met several of his chief lieutenants who had been arranging for tomorrow's meetings. The Nazi headquarters were confident their leader would emerge the victor in these negotiations.

Hitler, speaking through his associates, and Alfred Hugenberger, leader of the nationalist party, informed former Chancellor Brüning's contrists this afternoon they would not send representatives to a meeting on Monday at which reorganization of the Prussian cabinet will be considered.

Francis Feller Estate $15,000

According to letters of administration filed in probate court, the estate of Francis Feller of Woodburn, killed July 30 in a railway accident at Woodburn, amounts to $15,000. James P. Feller is named executor following wishes expressed in his will.

The estate is divided by the will between his widow, Ida Feller and 16 children, all of whom are living. Albert Feller, a grandson, also received a bequest.

FORTNER HERD HAS NOTABLE ADDITION

Year-old Jersey Bull With Unusual Antecedents To Arrive Soon

A year old Jersey bull, Brampton Royal's Sunbeam, imported from the Isle of Jersey and offspring of a sire whose dam was imported and sold in this country for $25,000, will arrive here the latter part of next week to be added to the herd of Dr. Edgar S. Fortner, local dentist and Jersey fancier.

"This year-old fellow is about as perfect as even purebred cows come," Fortner enthused yesterday in pointing out the fine points of the bull, a presentation to the local man from B. H. Bull and son of Ontario, Canada, big importers and owners of a herd of 500 fine Jerseys. The Canadian brought Sunbeam over from the Isle of Jersey this spring. The Salem newcomer's own sire on the Isle of Jersey is considered to be the most valuable sire ever produced, and his offspring have a phenomenal producing record.

Fortner, who this year has taken over active management of his farm, Kola Teepee, located south in the Battle Creek district, hopes to increase his herd of 30 to 40 milch cows and offspring.

Sunbeam will be added to a group of sires which have already helped give Fortner's herd the enviable position of one of the finest on the coast.

Fortner has another sire whose first son and first daughter both took reserve championships at the state fair last year and whose first daughter was champion of the spring show. This sire is Broadlands Lady's Volunteer, an imported bull.

Fortner's Coronation Oxford Design, son of imported Coronation's Oxford King who sold for $10,000, is a sire in phenomenal type and production. Another sire he owns won every class, save one, at the national dairy show including grand champion, and this animal is recognized in this country as a phenomenal sire of the age.

Fortner will show his bulls at the fairs this fall.
