Chicago Price Slumps As Result: Export

Demand Weaker CHICAGO, Aug. 16 - (AP) -Somersaulting backward, wheat prices suddenly parted company with the New York stock market substantial gains, Concentrated selling which developed in wheat was associated with evidence that export demand for United States wheat had flatened out, whereas the largest overseas business in some time had been put through today from Canada. Much of the selling that accompanied the fall of wheat appeared to be of a stop-loss character.
