SCIENCE PROGRESS VON ESCHEN TOPIC

Recent advances in knowledge in the fields of physics were reviewed by Prof. Florian von Eschen, of Modesto, Cal., in an address before the Salem Rotary club Wednesday noon. Prof. von Eschen was formerly professor of chemistry in Willamette university but now has a similar position in Modesto Junior college. He referred to the Milliken theory that the universe is still expanding into space at the rate of a million miles a year. He described a machine weighing two tons which has been built to weigh the atom. The latter has been found to weigh one-millionth of an ounce. It takes from 10 to 15 thousand volts to break up matter, but now scientists are able to reduce other elements like nitrogen, aluminum, phosphorus, to hydrogen.

Von Eschen predicted the coming of the time when man will use the internal energies of matter to provide him with power.

Letters read from Rotarians who attended the district assembly last week were enthusiastic in praise of the reception accorded them.

Silverton Mill Shuts Down but To Resume Soon

SILVERTON, Aug. 17. — The Silver Falls Timber company mill at Silverton closed down today again after a short run. As there is a shortage of logs at the mill because the camp has been closed down during the summer, the mill only operates when orders come in. The orders on hand were completed today but the mill will open for another run as soon as the new orders are in.

Officials said tonight that the logging camp would open as soon as damper weather was assured. The camp closed down early in the summer because many of the men and officials were needed to testify in the logging case at Portland and now officials report it will not open until the fire has-

Temple Repairs Will Start Soon

Damages to Fraternal temple from the fire Monday night will be repaired at once, according to directors of the temple association. The work is expected to get started Monday and be completed within 30 days.

Inspectors yesterday estimated the loss at around $4000, fully covered by insurance.

Chicken Roost To Reopen With Changed Policy

Reestablishment of the Chicken Roost roadside restaurant under the new name of the Pine Tree was begun here last weekend by F. Faulkner of Peryland and J. C. Fuller of Chicago who acquired the property from Mrs. Marie Hotz. A change of policy has been inaugurated by the new owners.

Superior food will be served and parties from Salem and vicinity will be urged to use the roadside inn, subject to definite rules enforced by the new management. Mr. Faulkner and his wife are experienced in the hotel and restaurant business.

COLLEGE HEADS TO COME IN OCTOBER

Presidents and faculty members from 15 independent colleges and universities in the northwest are expected here October 7 and 8 for the northwestern conference of the Association of American Colleges of which Willamette university is a member. President Carl G. Doney is making local arrangements for the meeting.

Outstanding among the speakers at the conference will be Dr. Irving Maurer who is president of the association and head of Beloit university, Beloit, Wisconsin. Dr. Robert L. Kelly of New York City, secretary of the association, will make several addresses on the two day program.

Dr. Bart Brown Barker, vice president of the University of Oregon, is to speak on "The Uniform Trust for Public Use." A dinner meeting with President Irving Maurer as the main speaker will close the conference, Saturday night, October 8.

Public Ownership IS HILLSBORO PLAN

Plans for the organization of a municipal ownership league at Hillsboro was assigned as the reason for withdrawal of complaints of that city against the Oregon-Washington Water Service corporation and the Portland General Electric company.

The complaints were withdrawn Wednesday. It originally was charged that the rates, practices and service of the companies were unreasonable and inadequate.

J. C. Robb, chairman of the Hillsboro Citizens' league, in a letter to the utilities commissioner, outlined the plans of the organization, and indicated that an effort would be made to borrow money from the reconstruction finance corporation for development operations.

Poling to Speak September 11 at Dry Rally Here

Plans for an all-city rally to be held Sunday night, September 11 at the army when Dr. Dan Poling of New York City will be the principal speaker, have been made locally by a group of persons interested in preventing the repeal of the Anderson bond-dry law at the polls November 2. An initiative measure proposing such repeal will be on the fall ballot.

Dr. Poling has consented to give two weeks of his time without pay to campaign the state against the measure. Dr. Frank E. Brown as a director of the Oregon committee of one hundred working against repeal, is active in making plans for the meeting here.
