Tennis Court Ball Charming Sport Affair

One of the delights of summer is the possibilities for out-door dances where sport costumes give color and swank to the affair, and a certain gaily lacking in more formal surroundings.

One such delightful affair was that for which Miss Marguerite Smith was hostess Thursday night with the charming setting of the tennis court at the home of Miss Sally Bush as the place for entertaining.

Colored lights cast a romantic glow over the garden scene which was a part of the tennis court. Two large flood lights added to the beauty and brought into lovely shadow the vines and trees near and about the court. Amplifiers brought the dance music from radios. Refreshments were served from a gay little tea nook near the court.

Patronesses and patrons for the dance included Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Smith, Mrs. Frances Smith, Mrs. Helen Hamilton, and Miss Edith Schryver.

Guests bidden to the gay party included Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Theo Beck, Miss Marguerite Beck, Miss Jean Marshall, Miss Isabel Gregg, Miss Margaret Euser, Miss Martha Sprague, Miss Edna Savage, Miss Bessie St. Claire, Miss Daisy Werkerham, Miss Mildred Moser, Miss Daisy Varley, Miss Jean McKay of Portland, Miss Florence Cio Utter, Miss Edith Morehouse, Miss Betty Baker, Miss Laneta Bellinger, Miss Julia Johnson.
