GIGANTIC MONTH-END SALE

In the regular course of business some items slow up and to move them out quickly we make a list of them and cut the prices to a point that will move them off the shelves in a hurry. People having no regular account can phone their order and we will send them C. O. D. These are all quality items from our regular stock and nothing is bought especially for the sale. Order early as there will be no replacement of these items during the sale.

Society News

Mrs. George Rhoton with her young daughter, Betty Merle, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Webster Ross, and son Webster, Jr., and Miss Marian Ross in a motor trip to Yakima. The party left Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Prescott entertained in delightful manner members of the Sons of Union Veterans and its auxiliary Tuesday night at their home. The affair was a pot-luck picnic supper on the attractively arranged lawn. This was followed by an informal evening of croquet and horseshoe contest. There were 34 guests to enjoy the pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Mackenzie had as their guest this past week-end Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mackenzie of Seattle. The guests left Sunday evening for Ocean Lake taking with them their daughter, Doris, who has been a guest of Grandparents Mackenzie for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie will join the Seattle party at Ocean Lake this week-end. The party will again return to Salem before Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mackenzie return to their home in Seattle.

Miss Lorraine Fletcher has been spending the summer in Honolulu visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Stone. While there, she attended a convention of the National Teachers association, as a delegate from Oregon. Miss Fletcher will spend the remainder of the summer at the E. B. Fletcher home on North Winter street in Salem. She will teach at The Dalles again during the coming year.

Members of the executive board of the Church Council of Women of Salem and vicinity are being called together this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. This board includes the presidents of the women's groups of the churches and one appointive member from each group.

Garden Tea is Pretty Compliment

Mrs. J. O. Matthis and daughter Miss Loretta and Miss Edna Matthis entertained with a charming garden tea Thursday in the gardens of the Dr. J. O. Matthis home complimenting Mrs. Claude Matthis, nee Rachel Howard, whose marriage was an event of the spring.

Miss Esther Wood presided at the tea table and Miss Dorothy Damon of Portland and Miss Edna Matthis served. Guests in compliment to Mrs. Matthis including the recent bride were Mrs. C. D. Matthis, Miss Loretta Davidson, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Mrs. H. O. White, Mrs. R. R. Hurst, Mrs. J. Tyce of Portland, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. A. S. Hussey, Mrs. Don Stewart of Bend, Mrs. Max Alford, Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. F. W. Seloe, Mrs. Leonard Heister, Mrs. Charles Kaufman of Menlo Park, Calif., Mrs. W. G. Morehouse, Mrs. Clifton Clemens, Mrs. H. S. Boshard, Mrs. R. Lee Wood, Mrs. W. H. Trindle, Mrs. George Wood and Miss Laura Barkus of Amity, Miss Rosetta Smith, Miss Gertrude Oehler, Miss Helen Trindle, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Esther Wood and Miss Dorothy Damon of Portland.

An enjoyable motor trip was planned for the pleasure of guests of Mrs. Frank Power Wednesday. The party including the house guests of Mrs. Power, Mrs. Emory J. Baker and sons Lytle and Lloyd of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mrs. Waldo Mills and Waldo, Jr. and Mary Ellen Mills, and Mrs. Power left Salem early Wednesday morning for Nelscott where they were dinner guests of E. T. Barnes and Paragonian families who are spending the month of August at this beach. Following dinner the Power party motored to Salem by way of Newport where they stopped for some time.

The annual reunion of the Munkers class was held Sunday at Hager's grove, the spot where the pioneer ancestors ended their long trek from Missouri in 1846. About 50 persons were present including

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ewing and Mr. and Mrs. Riley Shelton who were born in Oregon over 60 years ago.

Mrs. William Walton and her sister, Mrs. E. M. Smith of Corvallis, are spending two weeks in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maison.

Little Response To Bond Notices

Slight response to the more than 500 notices of installments and interest coming due on Bancroft improvement bonds has been noted at the city treasurer's office. In past years, payments before the installments fall due, September 1, far outnumbered those of this year, Treasurer C. O. Rice said yesterday. Only a few of the new payments have been made.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cooper have returned to their home in Salem after having spent the past six weeks in their cottage, "Laffalo" at Newport.
