had had been under water over 10 minutes.

J. Dale Taylor, deputy coroner, took charge of the body.

Funeral Planned For Next Monday

The father, who had been working in the nearby Minto hopyard, was driven to the verge of hysteria by the loss of his son.

Their rescue work at an end, the Miller brothers proceeded to swim across the river to where they had left their clothes.

"I never swam so carefully in all my life," declared Mike Miller, shaken over the tragedy.

The drowned boy's mother is dead. In addition to the father, he is survived by two half-brothers, Earl and Darwin Davidson.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon from the chapel of W. T. Rigdon and Son. Interment will be in City View cemetery.

CONSPIRACY CLAIM IN FISCHER ACTION

It was mutually agreed that the prices to be used in re-selling the product were to be agreed upon by both parties.

The complaint goes on to say that the Cereal Products company pretended to carry out the contract and sold the products at prices below the cost of manufacture and without consulting Mr. Fischer.

Mr. Fischer alleges that the prices at which the products were sold and marketed were such as to cause the flouring mills a loss of $3000 a month in manufacturing these products.

The complaint goes on to state that it was agreed between the flouring mills and the cereal company that the Cereal Products company would from time to time make certain advances to the milling company. And that when the cereal company would make the advances or pretend to do so, the funds would be placed to the credit of the milling company with the First National bank at Silverton, that Fischer Flouring Mills was indebted to the bank and instead of permitting the funds to be used by the milling company in its operations and make it possible to continue to operate, E. A. Haight would take and apply the moneys so paid in to the indebtedness of the Fischer Flouring Mills. It was further stated that this practice was pursued by Mr. Haight to such an extent that the Milling company had no funds to operate upon and was compelled to shut down.

Work is Started On Silver Falls Secondary Road

Without waiting for the official report to the county court was further stated that the estimate of the cost had been approved by the state highway commission, work was started Thursday morning on the South Silver Falls market road. On secondary road work the estimate made by the county engineer must be approved by the signatures of all three commissioners.

It was deemed advisable by Market Engineer Cutler however, to start the work since the estimate had been turned in to this week's commission meeting in Portland, and no word had been received that the estimate had been turned down.

Hubbard Barbecue is Entered; No Trace of Thieves is Picked up

HUBBARD, Aug. 26.—The Hubbard barbecue was broken into Thursday morning about 1 o'clock a. m. Mr. Fiddes, the proprietor, was away on a trip to the coast. Kenneth Bents, joint owner with Mr. Fiddes, closed the barbecue at 1 a. m. When Edith Rofinot, who assists at the barbecue in the daytime, came at five in the morning she found the back door locked as left but one front door was unlocked although closed.

The till was empty and all the cigarettes were taken.

Mr. Bents called the sheriff at 6:30 a. m. but had received no action by 10 a. m.

Hewitt to Give Talk on Orient

The first of a series of educational lectures to be given Sunday evenings for four weeks is scheduled for this Sunday, August 28, at 7:30 p. m., when Mrs. Ida Yoder Miller, metaphysical teacher, will speak in Union hall, 475 Court street. Roy Hewitt, former dean of the Willamette university law school, will lecture on "The Great Wall of China." He has traveled extensively in the orient and is known as an able speaker. Mrs. Marie C. Girlich and her pupils will present a special musical number, accompanied by Mrs. F. O. Breckenridge.

PEACH TREES INFESTED STAYTON, Aug. 26.—Several Stayton people who have one or two peach trees in their yard for some use, say that swarms are this year eating the peaches. When a peach is cut open, it is found that these pests are to be found around the pit.

WORLD MOURNS PASSING OF "GREAT GLORIFIER"

FLO ZIEGFELD, PATRICIA AND BILLIE BURKE

Rarely is the death of a stage personality mourned as is that of Florence Ziegfeld, famous musical comedy impresario, whose association with the American theatre provides one of the most colorful chapters in its history. A Chicagoan by birth, Ziegfeld, as he was affectionately known to millions all over the world, first came into the limelight at the close of the last century as manager of Sandow, the celebrated strong man. His first stage production was a presentation of the revived farce "The Parlor Match," in which he presented Anna Held, whom he later married, to the American public. After that his climb to the top was rapid, unretarded by failures. A believer in the gospel that the public is always willing to see beautiful women, he combed the entire world for the personnel that made up his productions. Many girls whom he glorified had brief stage careers, forsaking the footlights to marry millionaires who haunted Ziegfeld's "Follies" in search of beauty. But many others took advantage of the start given them by the great glorifier and continued a stage career until they reached the peak of the profession. Among the latter group are such celebrated names as Marion Davies, Marilyn Miller, Louise Brooks and Billie Dove, all of whom won fame and fortune on the stage and screen. Ziegfeld married a second time in 1914, climaxing his romance with Billie Burke, a stage star in her own right. She now survives him. They have one daughter, Patricia, who is fifteen.

ings, Ben Claggett, Ray Elliot, forest supervisor at Detroit; J. W. Moore, and others from Albany and Portland forestry offices.

The bikers, starting about Wednesday morning from Woodpecker camp, 12 miles above Detroit and present terminus of the Santiam highway, packed in to Marion lake, 13 miles. There they stayed overnight in the rangers' cabin. Thursday they covered the Eight-Lakes basin, the Hoge Pass region, and climbed Red Butte, from where they obtained a fine view of many surrounding peaks. On the return they circled Marion lake.

McKay and Crawford were the only members of the party to return here yesterday morning.

Second Invasion Of Coal Regions Strikers' Plan

GILLESPIE, Ill., Aug. 26.—(AP)—Secret plans were made today by the strike committee of miners for a second invasion of southern Illinois coal fields by swift moving units operating from bases surrounding the operating mines.

The committee, director of the nine mile motorcade of about 15,000 persons which was repulsed by bullets and clubs at the Franklin county line Wednesday night, said it would not give up details regarding the contemplated new offensive. The strikers are protesting against a new $5 basic wage scale.

Pomerene Says Loans Made to Smaller Banks

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Atlee Pomerene, democratic chairman of the reconstruction corporation, today shouted a reply to criticisms that the corporation had added large banks and corporations and had not helped small business and individuals.

In his first address since returning to public life, Pomerene told President Hoover's national business and industrial conference that the corporation's loans already had assisted 37 per cent of the nation's bank depositors.

Southwestern Oregon Lures Stayton Folks On Vacation Junket

STAYTON, Aug. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Baker and daughter Marcelle left Thursday morning on their vacation trip. They went by way of Waldport and on down the coast to Crescent City, Cal. They plan to return via the Oregon caves, Crater, Diamond and Elk lakes, then on to Fish and Clear lakes on the south Santiam highway.

Johnny Jones to Be Buried Today; Elks Pallbearers

Funeral services for Johnny Jones, well-known colored man and caterer to many local social and lodge functions in the past, will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the chapel of W. T. Rigdon and Son, with the Salvation Army in charge. Interment will be made in the City View cemetery.

His two surviving relatives, a daughter living in Portland, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Smith, who is connected with the local Salvation Army, are here to attend the services. A group of the Elks lodge members will act as pallbearers, with a number of prominent Salem residents as honorary pallbearers.

YOUTH UNDER KNIFE MONMOUTH, Aug. 26.—Richard Snyder, 17, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Snyder, was rushed to a Salem hospital Wednesday night where an operation for acute appendicitis was performed. He was reported resting well Thursday. Young Snyder is a junior at Monmouth high school, and was a star basketball man last season.

ROOSEVELT READY TO SWAT DRY LAW

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Governor Roosevelt's "prohibition broadside," as his campaign managers call it, is expected by New Jersey leaders to draw 200,000 democrats to the seashore tomorrow.

Four army units and 600 policemen have been assigned to handle the crowd that will gather near the "little white house" at Seagirt, N. J., to hear the democratic standard bearer.

Governor Roosevelt will start for the seashore tomorrow morning from his New York town house. After traveling across New Jersey by automobile accompanied by Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, he will have lunch at the "little white house" with Governor and Mrs. A. Harry Moore, and at 2 p. m. E. S. T. will mount a platform to address the crowd.

BOYCOTT CAMPAIGN IS CAUSING ALARM

SHANGHAI, China, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Increasing progress of the anti-Japanese boycott movement is causing deep concern in both Chinese and foreign business circles who fear the present activities may bring a return to conditions similar to those which preceded the fighting here last January.

Merchants whose business already is at low ebb believe a renewal of hostilities hereabouts would subject the commercial structure to strains it would be unable to withstand. But despite their attitude the anti-Japanese "Blood and Iron societies" continue threats of violence against merchants who handle Japanese goods.

Mayor Wu Teh-Chen has received a protest from the Japanese consul and it was understood the Japanese also intend to inform the national government at

RAY-BROWN PLANS LARGE PEAR PACK

WOODBURN, Aug. 26.—Reports from the local Ray-Brown cannery indicate a larger pear pack this year than ever before. Forty-five carloads of pears had been delivered at the plant Wednesday night, with canning starting Thursday morning.

With two eight-hour shifts of about 250 women each, and 20 new peelers in operation, the work will be in full swing by Monday. The capacity is about 400 cases of canned pears an hour.

Monday the cannery will also start on blackberries. Indications are that about 200 tons will be handled.

HOME LOAN LAW IS VIEWED AS BENEFIT

The home-loan bill will act as a coordinating measure to improve the standard of savings and loan business throughout the United States. It gives stability to the institutions which have steadily financed home building throughout the United States. Such is the opinion of A. A. Lee, secretary-treasurer of the Mutual Savings and Loan association who expressed himself as well pleased both with the recently passed home loan bill and the five men President Hoover recently named to the board.

Lee said he expected his association would avail themselves of the facilities of the home-loan banks when they were established and when the necessary preliminary work was done. Lee said moneys received from these banks would be used to prevent foreclosure of mortgages on property owned by worthy members of the association as well as to provide funds for new home building when the person desiring to build could show he had sufficient down payment money to start construction and to safeguard the loan. Lee said a limited amount of money which might be secured on rediscounts might be used to pay on sums due depositors in order to provide some relief to them.

MANCHURIAN MAIL IS MOOT QUESTION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Eager to gauge the possible effect of Japan's projected recognition of the new Manchurian state of Manchoukuo, set up under its sponsorship, the United States and other powers with interests there, are watching for terms of the agreement.

The post office department meanwhile has before it the question of what to do with Manchoukuo mail. Postmaster General Brown expects to get Secretary Stimson's advice on the matter.

China has refused to recognize Manchoukuo postage stamps and will not forward mail to Manchurian points. The Nanking government has asked nations belonging to the international postal union to take similar action. Other nations apparently are awaiting league of nations consideration of the Lytton commission's report on the Manchurian situation before taking any action.

PRESIDENT IN EQUESTRIAN ROLE

As a fisherman, President Hoover is a familiar figure, but not many have ever seen the Chief Executive in the equestrian role in which he is shown here. The President is shown as he enjoyed a ride on his favorite mount, "Billy," through the bridge paths of his picturesque mountain camp, near Rapidan, Va., where he and Mrs. Hoover spend their week-ends during the Summer months.

WARM CAMPAIGN IN TEXAS ENDED; WILL VOTE TODAY

DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Another campaign charged with vituperation and personal animosity closed in Texas tonight between ex-Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and Governor Ross S. Sterling, with Speaker John N. Garner refusing to take sides in tomorrow's democratic gubernatorial run-off primary.

FRENCH-AMERICAN TREATY DIFFICULT

PARIS, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Hope that the French and American representatives who are negotiating a commercial treaty soon would reach common ground was faintly held out in French ministerial and commercial circles tonight.

It was emphasized that as yet there have been no indications of appreciable progress.

Difficulties, according to the French, lie in the difference in customs policies. The United States is asking a most-favored nation clause and is able to offer only improved administrative regulations in return.

It was pointed out that certain commercial federations have protested against granting most-favored-nation treatment to America, saying this would gravely prejudice a number of French products, notably textiles and mechanical contrivances. Furthermore, it was asserted France must consider forthcoming negotiations with other countries and so could not well set a precedent.

HASTINGS HITS AT DEMOCRAT CLAIMS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Senator Daniel O. Hastings of Delaware, assistant eastern republican campaign manager, said tonight that "while the democratic party may not be for sale, the people generally believe that Governor Roosevelt did sell out when he permitted the selection of Garner for a running mate at the instigation of Mr. McAdoo."

"I observe that Governor Roosevelt is making an appeal for campaign funds" the senator said in a statement.

"I gather from his remarks that he hopes to get some response from the 'forgotten man.' He complains about having no such person as Mr. Grundy to collect campaign funds.

"He gives the impression that the wealthy people have never supported the democratic party. "My recollection is that the principal consideration of the democratic party just now is to repay the one man who has supported it for several years past to the extent of several hundred thousand dollars."

Daily Practice To be Program Of Drum Corps

Capitol Post drum corps will swing into heavy practice next week with the members called out for six sessions, beginning tomorrow morning and each night from Tuesday on. A week from tonight they will go to Portland to drill on Multnomah field, national convention parade grounds.

After last night's practice on Olinger field, Manager Tom Hill reported the corps had its preliminary drill well ordered and was making good progress in the final one. The buglers and drummers say their novelty music is the best they have ever had.
