Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
The newest thing in sleeves and the last word in the use of crepe-back satin—or satin back crepe, as you will. Don't you love the dull bodice yoke smartly topped with a shiny frock? It's very new! And the scalloped seaming spells Paris! We suggest black brown or one of the delicious new wine reds. Dainty lace makes a smart vestee.

Pattern 2393 may be ordered only in sizes 16 to 20 and 24 to 44. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch fabric and 1-6 yard 5 inch lace.

Send 15c in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.
Our beautiful 32-page fashion catalog offers you an opportunity to choose delightful morning, afternoon and evening models suitable for wear right now and all through the summer. Featuring styles personified by models, this catalog is an accurate guide to summer chic. Lovely lingerie and pajama patterns and adorable little models are included in this fascinating book. Send for your copy today. Price of catalog 15c. Catalog and pattern together 25c. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Illiee Club Entertains Guests

The women of Illiee country club entertained a group of Silverton country club women at the clubhouse Friday for a day of golf and luncheon.

A tournament was in play and this was won by the Salem club. Low score for Silverton went to Mrs. McGinnis and low score for Salem was held by Mrs. William Stacy.

Silverton visitors included Mrs. George Steelhammer, Mrs. McGinnis, Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mrs. Jack Curry, Mrs. Earl Adams, Mrs. Alfred Adams, Mrs. Clifford R. S. Spring, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Preston, Mrs. Claire Jarvis, Mrs. Larry Austin, Mrs. Hande, and Miss Betty Kleinsorge.

The luncheon table was particularly attractive in a color scheme of autumn colors with orange predominating. Astors, zinnias, gladioli were used in the bouquets which centered the one large table, and other smaller ones. Orange candles in attractive holders added to the beauty of the tables.

Mrs. E. Skelly, Mrs. Tom Wolkamott, and Mrs. Earl Burch were in charge of the luncheon arrangement.

Next Friday will be a regular play for the club with a potluck luncheon at noon.

Mrs. J. T. Delaney is Club Hostess

Mrs. J. T. Delaney entertained in her back garden at her home in compliment to members of her club for a pretty luncheon and afternoon of bridge Thursday afternoon.

A color scheme of red gladioli and golden rods was an effective color effect with the green of the garden shrubs.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Guy V. Smith, an additional guest, and for members, Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, Mrs. Stanley Burgess, Mrs. Leif Bergsvik, Mrs. T. L. Kuhns, Mrs. V. F. McNamara, Mrs. Lars Bergsvik, and Mrs. J. T. Delaney.

Turner.—The women of the Missionary and aid societies of the Christian church met Thursday for their annual picnic. It was held on the bank of Mill creek, joining the church. After the lunch hour, Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap, president of the Missionary society, took charge of a short business session.

The resignation of Mrs. Frances Whitehead, as secretary, was accepted, and Mrs. Maude Bones was elected to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Walton Harris led the lesson topic, which was on south Africa. Mrs. Susan Girardin read the Scripture lesson and members responded with numbers on the lesson subject. Girardin will entertain the next meeting in October.

Brush Creek—Mrs. M. J. Madson entertained Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Esther Weaver of San Francisco and Mrs. Jack Randall of Portland, two of whom have been house guests of their mother, Mrs. O. S. Hauge. The two will go to Portland Saturday and spend the week-end at Mrs. Randall's home. Mrs. Weaver will leave Monday night for San Francisco where she is employed. Mrs. O. S. Hauge and Mrs. Victor Madson are additional guests. Thursday evening Miss Lillie Madson was the inspiration of a surprise supper party at the home of her mother. Present at the supper were Miss Madson, Mrs. Madsen, Mrs. Edwin Hattberg, Miss Nettie Hattberg, Miss Agnes Hattberg of La Grande, Miss Alice Jensen, and Mrs. Victor Madsen.

A miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Leona Gardner was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Johns with Mrs. Johns and Mrs. H. P. Toews as hostesses. The evening was spent playing games after which Miss Gardner was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Those present were the honored guest Miss Leona Gardner and her mother, Mrs. L. E. Gardner, Mrs. L. Hockett, Mrs. Philip Peterson, Mrs. R. T. Mayer, Mrs. Albert Miller, Mrs. Nancy Burk, Mrs. Doory Bates, Mrs. Sophie Wheeler, Mrs. Dewey Stenke, Mrs. Rodney Steinke, Miss Verna Harvland, Miss Maxine Toews and the hostesses.

Lloyd B. Waltz was a guest of his brother and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Ray Waltz, for two days of this week. He went from here to visit in Forest Grove, and from there he will go to Tillamook, where he will be joined by Mrs. Waltz. Mr. Waltz will teach in the Tillamook schools this year.

Miss Jeanette Eoff recently returned from a six-weeks visit with relatives in California. While there, she motored to the Yosemite park. Later to Los Angeles, attending the Olympic games, and then to the Catalina islands. Her trip home was made through San Francisco.

Miss Rosalind Van Winkle accompanied by her father, Judge I. H. Van Winkle, and her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Patterson of Portland, will spend the next two weeks vacationing at Oregon beaches.

Mrs. Thomas Holman and daughter Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman have returned from a sojourn at Newport.

Outdoor Party Pretty Event Friday

Miss Esther Lisle entertained at the Everett Lisle country place with an unique "dramatic" party Friday night. A dinner cooked over an open fire began the jolly evening.

Following the dinner hour counting was produced and each guest was asked to present a stunt, either individually or direct a play of as many characters as he chose. The results proved hilarious.

Included in the group were Miss Irene Breithaupt, Miss Helen Breithaupt, Miss Velleda Ohmart, Miss Loretta Varley, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Gladys Taylor, Miss Dorothy Hutchason, Miss Marvella Edwards, Miss Eileen Moore and Miss Esther Lisle.

Salem Endeavor Group Visits at Turner Sessions

A group of young people from the senior Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian church motored to Turner Wednesday evening where they attended the evening session of the Oregon State Christian Endeavor Conference which is being held at the Turner Memorial Tabernacle this week.

Stunts were enjoyed after the dinner hour, and included nomination for the presidency of the United States by groups representing the democratic convention, the bonus veterans, and ambitious women. A talk was given by Rev. Luther Stein of Fresno, Calif., during the evening session. Following this the conference adjourned to prayer groups and later to the evening bonfire.

Those in the Salem group who attended included Lucy Klein, Cornelia Hulst, Cathryn Eaton, Helen Johnson, Margaret Johnson, Helen Putnam, Nellie Carter, Doris Unruh, Martha Sprague, Helen Stuel, Kenneth Klein, Evans, Luther Doughton, Bob White, Louis Stult, Bob Hulst, Mrs. Roy Klein and Mrs. L. LOOK SHARP ON "DUL" DAYS!
Our Advertising Manager sends a little shopping-trip to Gentle Readers
But—here's the tip—on days when the paper seems "thinnest," you sometimes discover the biggest bargains. It stands to reason that some advertisers prefer to run their announcements on days when the advertising columns are less crowded. And thus by looking sharp on the seemingly dull days you encounter surprises!
In fact, we don't think there's ever a time when one can draw an honest yawn and say "nothing in the paper today." When it comes to ADVERTISING-NEWS, there's nothing in the paper that one can afford to miss!
