

HUCKLEBERRY GROUP AT SCIO REWARDED

SCIO, Aug. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Arch Ray returned Friday night from Snow Peak where they had gone to get huckleberries. They brought out 30 gallons after having five gallon stoles from them while there. Other people going from Scio to get berries were Mr. and Mrs. John Lettler, Mrs. P. H. McDonald, Mrs. M. B. Cyrus, Mrs. W. A. Brock, Vannie Shelton, Herbert Hoagland, Mr. Peery, Ora Zink, Lowell Myers, Ed Bilyeu, Coral Lucas, Raymond Bilyeu and many others.

Mrs. Fred Ohlmeier and daughter Jerry returned Sunday from Portland where they had been on a business and pleasure trip for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Black and two children of Oakland, California, arrived here recently and are making their home on the former John Simmons property.

A surprise birthday party for Mrs. Ard Westenhousen was given at Wilson park on Thomas creek Wednesday evening. Games and a wether roast were enjoyed by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Merle Tyler and family of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Small and Jr. of Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Moses and daughters, Marjorie and Maxine, John Halvorsen, Anene Small, Lowell Myers, and the host Ard Westenhousen, and the guest of honor.

Attend Surprise Party
Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Schunk and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Caldwell attended a surprise birthday party given for Mrs. Schunk's brother, George Beery of Albany Saturday night.

People in Scio and the surrounding community were surprised to hear of the wedding of almost a month ago of Miss Arden Shelton daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Shelton of Scio, and Curt Ferguson of Salem. They were married July 31 at Corvallis. It is understood they will make their home in West Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sweeney and Fred Jones have taken over the confectionery they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phillips.

Mildred Gardner of Gilkey station has recently been elected to teach in the third and fourth grades in the Scio schools for the coming year.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Prill and Dr. Prill's sister, Mrs. Kerschner, who has been at the Prill residence for the past two years, and Mrs. Kerschner's daughter, Miss Lila Kerschner, who arrived Wednesday from Washington, D. C., for a few weeks visit, spent Sunday at the Prills summer home on Bilyeu creek.

900-Mile Trip Into East Oregon Taken By Zena Residents

ZENA, Aug. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford and children, Miss Hilda and Frank, Jr., returned Sunday from a 900 mile trip to eastern Oregon. While there they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Backman (Hattie Bixby) who reside 50 miles southeast of Prineville.

On their return trip they traveled along the short of Klamath lake which is 30 miles long and is considered one of the most beautiful lakes in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Barker and son Sam, S. H. Barker, Miss Edna Walling and Miss Ruth Shepard enjoyed a picnic at Stayton Sunday. They also saw an interesting life saving exhibit near Stayton.

2 WOMEN ENTERTAIN
RICKEY, Aug. 30.—Mrs. C. McNeil and Mrs. J. Courtner will entertain the members of the Rickey Sunshine club and their husbands Saturday night at the McNeil home.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Aug. 30.—Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Friesen Friday night were Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Smith and daughters, Lorene and Maxine formerly of Fergus Falls, Minn., who were residents a few years ago of Salem. Mr. Smith was the pastor of the Nazarene church. The family are now stationed at Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Manning and daughter, Norma, who were here for a few days visit with Mrs. Manning's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Sutton, left last week for their home. Mrs. Manning, who was formerly Marie Brown, attended school in Salem a number of years ago. Norma, who was badly bitten by a huge police dog about the limbs, arms and back a short time ago and had a narrow escape from death, but for the timely intervention of two men, who killed the dog and rushed the little seven-year-old girl to the office of a physician, or she would not have survived. She is now convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Richardson arrived here from Amity on Friday and moved into the L. L. Sloper house on Gerth avenue. Mrs. Richardson, who is the new Southern Pacific section boss for this section of the railroad succeeds Mr. Peterson of Eola, who has been transferred to Cascade Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lake entertained Sunday, Mr. Lake's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young of Lebanon, Mr. Carl Belle and Miss Dorothy Bjorkie both of Salem.

Clarks in New Home
Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Clarke of Gerth avenue, who have recently completed the erection of an attractive new home on 20th and Lee streets in Salem moved with their young son, Glenn into it on Monday.

Mrs. Al Henningsen, superin-

Pump's Failure, Hubbard, To Delay School; Sand in Line Clogs Water Supply

Hazes Interests in Rush to Get Onions Harvested, in Barns

LAKE LABISH, Aug. 30.—Hayes Labish farm have a fleet of trucks hauling onions from the fields to the recently completed warehouse in Brooks. Nearly every truck in the vicinity of whatever shape or size has been hired. Each truck carries a helper in addition to the driver. The onions being hauled are those which were pulled about ten days ago. Onions must dry in the fields from ten days to two weeks before being hauled to the storage houses.

Practically all of the lake onions will be pulled this week, as the crop is ripening very fast. The onion tops lie down, usually to the south, when they are ripe.

HAZEL GREEN SENDS QUOTA TO CONCLAVE

HAZEL GREEN, Aug. 30.—The annual session of the Oregon conference of the United Brethren in Christ will be held at Tremont church in Portland August 30 to September 4. Tremont church is located at Seventy-first street and Fifty-ninth avenue Southeast.

Delegates will be nominated to the general conference to meet at Akron, Ohio in May, 1933. The election of the delegates takes place in local churches in November.

The Women's Missionary association, the Otterbein Guild and Christian Endeavor will hold annual conventions in connection with the conference. The groups meeting for worship and inspirational addresses by the Bishop and Mrs. J. Hal Smith, then separating for group conferences.

Several from Green attending the conference are: pastor, Rev. S. E. Long, delegates to the Christian Endeavor, Iola Luckey, Glen Looney, Cecil Luckey; to Otterbein Guild, Nora Rutherford and Imogene Wood; adult department, Mrs. Orville Luckey, Mrs. Margery Looney is delegate from the church. The Hazel Green group will be entertained by Rev. Miss Lella Luckey, pastor here for six years. Rev. S. E. Long, with an impressive ceremony installed the Christian Endeavor officers Sunday night.

Depression Noticed At Coast Resorts by Hayesville Travelers

HAYESVILLE, Aug. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stettin and children, accompanied by Mrs. Stettin's brother, Mrs. Rovilla McAfee, have just returned from an outing to the coast.

The depression is very noticeable at the beach resorts. There is practically no travel on the highways, or tourists at the different resorts, as compared to normal times, although the roads are in splendid condition, and modern cabins can be had very reasonably.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wulfmeyer, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Rehm and small daughter, and their grandson, Malcolm Wulfmeyer, spent the past week at Oceanside and Newport.

Mrs. Emma Fread and family are moving into the house formerly occupied by the late Mrs. Hilden.

tendent of the Sunday school of the West Salem church is planning for a good business meeting at her home Friday evening, at which plans for the fall rally will be made and quite a thorough reorganization of the personnel of officers may be made and additional teachers added to the staff. All members of the Sunday school board are expected to attend.

Mrs. M. L. Grandstaff, who left her home here a year and four months ago to make her home in Portland assisting a relative, has returned here to live again on Ruge street, having moved back on Sunday evening. Her brother, W. S. Crook who is 87 years old, will live here with Mrs. Grandstaff, who is glad to be back home to her own place again, had just left her house furnished here and idle, so the return was simplified.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson, Miss Mamie Anderson, their daughter, and Mrs. E. Frances all of Nelson, British Columbia, who have been visiting with Mrs. Priscilla Bosanko, and looking after property interests here for some little time, left last week for their home in Canada again.

Arbickil's Are Hosts
Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Arbickil and sons, Harold, Leonard and Clarence of Yamhill, near Dayton, have moved into one of the residences on Ruge street, and are hosts to a group of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Payne and Miss Myrtle and Edward Pace all from St. Paul, Minnesota, who surprised them with a visit, and who will remain for a week. Another son, Lloyd Arbickil, and Miss Violet Ludington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ludington of Locust street, Salem, were married at the home of the bride's parents last Tuesday. They will leave shortly for a trip and afterwards will make their home at the Ludington home. Mrs. Arbickil's father, Jess Ludington recently had the misfortune to lose one of his limbs in an accident.

SUNNYSIDE IS BUSY; GROWERS ARE MAD

SUNNYSIDE, Aug. 30.—Threshing finished with good yield of grain. Some of the stubble fields have been disked and sown to oats. A good piece of road improvement along the Pemberton ranch the past week is another of the activities of this community.

Prunes picking will soon be on for those who have a crop. Some growers talk of leaving the prunes on the trees, the present price not justifying the expense of harvesting them. Several men of the neighborhood are employed on the Jefferson bridge, some have gone home with the late canning of fruit and vegetables Sunnyside expects to keep the sunnyside this winter if possible.

The school board will hold its budget meeting August 29. School will open September 19 with Mrs. Jessie Rains as principal and Miss Martha Batterman of Salem with the primary. Several new names will be on the roll for the first time. New families moving in. Dorothy Taylor has returned to her home in England where she has taken a post graduate course at the state university.

Miss Taylor will be in the Salem school work for the coming year as principal of McKinley school. Violet Bunse, a niece of W. Johnson, who has been visiting here the past summer, will return to her home at Flaxville, Montana, on Thursday.

FARMERS UNION HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

TALBOT, Aug. 30.—The Sidney Talbot Farmers' Union held its regular meeting in the Talbot school house Friday night with nearly all officers and members present.

George Potts, president, was in charge of the meeting. The Union pins were presented to the officers and stickers were given the members for their cars. Reports were given by the standing committees.

W. L. Wash is quite ill at his home with an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Bridgwater is taking care of the case.

Gilbert Belknap was called to Monroe Friday by the serious illness of his father, E. H. Belknap. Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman and baby daughter Loletta, all of Cathlamet, Washington, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman.

RADIO APPRECIATED GIFT ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Aug. 30

Revivalists Put on Picnic for Kiddies In Waconda District

WACONDA, Aug. 30.—Judith Severson of Monmouth and Maybell Erickson of Stockton, Calif., who have been conducting interdenominational services here the past three weeks entertained 17 children at the schoolhouse recently at an all-day picnic.

In the forenoon pompons were made of brightly-colored crumpe paper which were waved gaily about when the groups made their parade on the highway, singing and making announcement of their evening meeting which featured a song service with the children's voices.

The Misses Erickson and Severson held their last religious service at the schoolhouse Sunday night.

Since beginning their meetings here the young women have been guests each evening of Miss Gladys C. Brown, president of Hayesville district Sunday school convention.

Miss Erickson plans to return to her home in Stockton, Cal., this week.

Sister's Death Calls Mrs. Forster to Idaho

LIBERTY, Aug. 30.—Mrs. Robert Forster was suddenly called to Idaho by the death of her sister. Her small son Donald accompanied her.

Mrs. Phebe Williams of Monmouth is visiting her daughter Mrs. P. G. Judd and family. Mrs. A. B. Browning and daughter Margaret are spending a week at Pacific City. The E. A. Free family left Monday for a several days' visit in Alesat with Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Free and at Yachats. The Kraegers visited Mrs. Kraeger's parents in Molalla Sunday and report the father, Mr. Maris, greatly improved in health.

Miss Etta Westenhousen has returned home from Illinois where she attended summer school at the University of Illinois, taking further work in a library course. Miss Westenhousen has been assistant to Dr. Franklin at Willamette university. She has been selected as assistant librarian at Willamette U. for the coming year.

Rickey Teachers Off To Assume New Jobs

RICKEY, Aug. 30.—Lettie Wallace who has spent the summer with her mother, Mrs. T. Wallace has gone to Coquille where she will teach the coming year. For the past four years she has been an instructor in the Brooks school.

Mrs. Glen Magee who taught the Oak Grove school last year has accepted a position near Scotts Mills. Her school will open September 12.

Huckleberry Pickers Get Good Yields

LYONS, Aug. 30.—Several huckleberry pickers came out from Monument Peak today with their containers filled with lovely berries. Each picker in the different groups averaging five gallons or more for a two day trip. It requires from three to four hours to climb the mountains, after leaving the wagon road to reach the camping grounds.

Over 150 pickers were in the camp over the weekend and others going as those came out. A large supply is reported this season due to late snow and frosts. The berries are not at their best yet but are large and plentiful.

A number of pickers are selling the berries as work has been scarce and folks need the money. Some are selling at 75c and $1.00 per gallon delivered. Huckleberries are reasonable at $1.00 per gallon as a gallon will can 4 quarts. Not like some berries they do not shrink when cooked.

STRAW FIRE SCARES FARMERS IN VALLEY

SPRING VALLEY, Aug. 30.—Considerable excitement was caused Sunday by a fire from a burning straw pile running through the heavy stubble on the Phillip Damm farm here. The men set the stack afire and were prepared to keep it in bounds but it leaped to the stubble and burned over a large patch of ground before it could be stopped.

Mrs. Floyd Van Riper and daughter Joy of Bend are spending two-weeks with Mrs. Van Riper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Damm.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christensen and children Ellen and Roger of Portland were recent guests of Mr. Christensen's sister Mrs. F. B. Windsor and family.

Glenn Kirkwood, principal of the Union high school at Molalla was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. L. F. Matthews.

Joe Willwert is working at the Wallace Orchards during the pear season. Mrs. Pete Willwert is staying in Salem during the canning season.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinney and son Dewain and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McKinney went to Lebanon Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKinney.

FARMERS UNION HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

TALBOT, Aug. 30.—The Sidney Talbot Farmers' Union held its regular meeting in the Talbot school house Friday night with nearly all officers and members present.

George Potts, president, was in charge of the meeting. The Union pins were presented to the officers and stickers were given the members for their cars. Reports were given by the standing committees.

W. L. Wash is quite ill at his home with an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Bridgwater is taking care of the case.

Gilbert Belknap was called to Monroe Friday by the serious illness of his father, E. H. Belknap. Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman and baby daughter Loletta, all of Cathlamet, Washington, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman.

RADIO APPRECIATED GIFT ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Aug. 30

Revivalists Put on Picnic for Kiddies In Waconda District

WACONDA, Aug. 30.—Judith Severson of Monmouth and Maybell Erickson of Stockton, Calif., who have been conducting interdenominational services here the past three weeks entertained 17 children at the schoolhouse recently at an all-day picnic.

In the forenoon pompons were made of brightly-colored crumpe paper which were waved gaily about when the groups made their parade on the highway, singing and making announcement of their evening meeting which featured a song service with the children's voices.

The Misses Erickson and Severson held their last religious service at the schoolhouse Sunday night.

Since beginning their meetings here the young women have been guests each evening of Miss Gladys C. Brown, president of Hayesville district Sunday school convention.

Miss Erickson plans to return to her home in Stockton, Cal., this week.

Sister's Death Calls Mrs. Forster to Idaho

LIBERTY, Aug. 30.—Mrs. Robert Forster was suddenly called to Idaho by the death of her sister. Her small son Donald accompanied her.

Mrs. Phebe Williams of Monmouth is visiting her daughter Mrs. P. G. Judd and family. Mrs. A. B. Browning and daughter Margaret are spending a week at Pacific City. The E. A. Free family left Monday for a several days' visit in Alesat with Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Free and at Yachats. The Kraegers visited Mrs. Kraeger's parents in Molalla Sunday and report the father, Mr. Maris, greatly improved in health.

Miss Etta Westenhousen has returned home from Illinois where she attended summer school at the University of Illinois, taking further work in a library course. Miss Westenhousen has been assistant to Dr. Franklin at Willamette university. She has been selected as assistant librarian at Willamette U. for the coming year.

Rickey Teachers Off To Assume New Jobs

RICKEY, Aug. 30.—Lettie Wallace who has spent the summer with her mother, Mrs. T. Wallace has gone to Coquille where she will teach the coming year. For the past four years she has been an instructor in the Brooks school.

Mrs. Glen Magee who taught the Oak Grove school last year has accepted a position near Scotts Mills. Her school will open September 12.

Huckleberry Pickers Get Good Yields

LYONS, Aug. 30.—Several huckleberry pickers came out from Monument Peak today with their containers filled with lovely berries. Each picker in the different groups averaging five gallons or more for a two day trip. It requires from three to four hours to climb the mountains, after leaving the wagon road to reach the camping grounds.

Over 150 pickers were in the camp over the weekend and others going as those came out. A large supply is reported this season due to late snow and frosts. The berries are not at their best yet but are large and plentiful.

A number of pickers are selling the berries as work has been scarce and folks need the money. Some are selling at 75c and $1.00 per gallon delivered. Huckleberries are reasonable at $1.00 per gallon as a gallon will can 4 quarts. Not like some berries they do not shrink when cooked.

STRAW FIRE SCARES FARMERS IN VALLEY

SPRING VALLEY, Aug. 30.—Considerable excitement was caused Sunday by a fire from a burning straw pile running through the heavy stubble on the Phillip Damm farm here. The men set the stack afire and were prepared to keep it in bounds but it leaped to the stubble and burned over a large patch of ground before it could be stopped.

Mrs. Floyd Van Riper and daughter Joy of Bend are spending two-weeks with Mrs. Van Riper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Damm.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christensen and children Ellen and Roger of Portland were recent guests of Mr. Christensen's sister Mrs. F. B. Windsor and family.

Glenn Kirkwood, principal of the Union high school at Molalla was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. L. F. Matthews.

Joe Willwert is working at the Wallace Orchards during the pear season. Mrs. Pete Willwert is staying in Salem during the canning season.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinney and son Dewain and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McKinney went to Lebanon Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKinney.

FARMERS UNION HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

TALBOT, Aug. 30.—The Sidney Talbot Farmers' Union held its regular meeting in the Talbot school house Friday night with nearly all officers and members present.

George Potts, president, was in charge of the meeting. The Union pins were presented to the officers and stickers were given the members for their cars. Reports were given by the standing committees.

W. L. Wash is quite ill at his home with an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Bridgwater is taking care of the case.

Gilbert Belknap was called to Monroe Friday by the serious illness of his father, E. H. Belknap. Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman and baby daughter Loletta, all of Cathlamet, Washington, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman.

RADIO APPRECIATED GIFT ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Aug. 30

Revivalists Put on Picnic for Kiddies In Waconda District

WACONDA, Aug. 30.—Judith Severson of Monmouth and Maybell Erickson of Stockton, Calif., who have been conducting interdenominational services here the past three weeks entertained 17 children at the schoolhouse recently at an all-day picnic.

In the forenoon pompons were made of brightly-colored crumpe paper which were waved gaily about when the groups made their parade on the highway, singing and making announcement of their evening meeting which featured a song service with the children's voices.

The Misses Erickson and Severson held their last religious service at the schoolhouse Sunday night.

Since beginning their meetings here the young women have been guests each evening of Miss Gladys C. Brown, president of Hayesville district Sunday school convention.

Miss Erickson plans to return to her home in Stockton, Cal., this week.

Sister's Death Calls Mrs. Forster to Idaho

LIBERTY, Aug. 30.—Mrs. Robert Forster was suddenly called to Idaho by the death of her sister. Her small son Donald accompanied her.

Mrs. Phebe Williams of Monmouth is visiting her daughter Mrs. P. G. Judd and family. Mrs. A. B. Browning and daughter Margaret are spending a week at Pacific City. The E. A. Free family left Monday for a several days' visit in Alesat with Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Free and at Yachats. The Kraegers visited Mrs. Kraeger's parents in Molalla Sunday and report the father, Mr. Maris, greatly improved in health.

Miss Etta Westenhousen has returned home from Illinois where she attended summer school at the University of Illinois, taking further work in a library course. Miss Westenhousen has been assistant to Dr. Franklin at Willamette university. She has been selected as assistant librarian at Willamette U. for the coming year.

Rickey Teachers Off To Assume New Jobs

RICKEY, Aug. 30.—Lettie Wallace who has spent the summer with her mother, Mrs. T. Wallace has gone to Coquille where she will teach the coming year. For the past four years she has been an instructor in the Brooks school.

Mrs. Glen Magee who taught the Oak Grove school last year has accepted a position near Scotts Mills. Her school will open September 12.

HOP PICKERS BUSY ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Aug. 30

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Aug. 30.—H. R. McDowell, veteran hop drier, and Raymond Horner of Mill City left Monday for Independence where they will be employed during the hop season at the McLaughlin yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson are moving from the Lansing farm on Garden road where they have lived for several years with Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Nettie Lansing, to their own farm here. The place here is being vacated by their son, Ralph Wilson, and family who have rented the farm here, belonging to Miss Jeanie Best and Miss Betty Best of West Salem and will take up their residence there.

SPRING VALLEY, Aug. 30.—Considerable excitement was caused Sunday by a fire from a burning straw pile running through the heavy stubble on the Phillip Damm farm here. The men set the stack afire and were prepared to keep it in bounds but it leaped to the stubble and burned over a large patch of ground before it could be stopped.

Mrs. Floyd Van Riper and daughter Joy of Bend are spending two-weeks with Mrs. Van Riper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Damm.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christensen and children Ellen and Roger of Portland were recent guests of Mr. Christensen's sister Mrs. F. B. Windsor and family.

Glenn Kirkwood, principal of the Union high school at Molalla was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. L. F. Matthews.

Joe Willwert is working at the Wallace Orchards during the pear season. Mrs. Pete Willwert is staying in Salem during the canning season.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinney and son Dewain and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McKinney went to Lebanon Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKinney.

STRAW FIRE SCARES FARMERS IN VALLEY

SPRING VALLEY, Aug. 30.—Considerable excitement was caused Sunday by a fire from a burning straw pile running through the heavy stubble on the Phillip Damm farm here. The men set the stack afire and were prepared to keep it in bounds but it leaped to the stubble and burned over a large patch of ground before it could be stopped.

Mrs. Floyd Van Riper and daughter Joy of Bend are spending two-weeks with Mrs. Van Riper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Damm.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christensen and children Ellen and Roger of Portland were recent guests of Mr. Christensen's sister Mrs. F. B. Windsor and family.

Glenn Kirkwood, principal of the Union high school at Molalla was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. L. F. Matthews.

Joe Willwert is working at the Wallace Orchards during the pear season. Mrs. Pete Willwert is staying in Salem during the canning season.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinney and son Dewain and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McKinney went to Lebanon Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKinney.

Spring Grains Being Harvest Now, Valley

SPRING VALLEY, Aug. 30.—The last of the spring grains are being bound now and will probably be threshed by the end of the week if the weather is favorable. The T. J. Merrick machine is starting on the spring run today.

Vivian Stratton and his baling crew are busy baling stacked hay and straw. Nearly every one has had some baling done this season.

LOOK!

TODAY'S FINEST GASOLINE IS SOLD WHERE YOU SEE THE RED-COATED REFEREE AND THE CHECKERED FLAG

Motorists everywhere say that Red Lion, the new "Speedway Perfected" Gasoline is the finest gasoline they ever used.

Users of premium price gasolines are switching to it because it gives the most amazing performance. Red Lion functions perfectly in high compression motors. It doesn't knock, even in hot weather. It gives balanced, multi-power efficiency at no extra cost.

And ladies will appreciate the absence of disagreeable exhaust fumes when driving with Red Lion Gasoline.

Look for the big Race Referee in the red coat, and the Checkered Flag, at Independent Service Stations. It is the emblem of Red Lion—today's finest gasoline. Try it!

It is Red but costs nothing extra

RED LION

THE NEW SPEEDWAY PERFECTED GASOLINE
ROAR with GILMORE

The Greater Gilmore Circuit
Fridays 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.
KFI KGO KGW KONO

THROWS OUT IMPERFECT CIGARETTES
Uncanny Device Spots Flaws in Manufacture

Twenty electric fingers search every pack of Chesterfields before it's sealed up. Every Chesterfield is checked to make sure that it is made right; that is, the right size and properly filled. And that's why Chesterfields are firm, round, filled full—to smoke cool and last longer. And they're made of mild, ripe tobacco—cross-blended... they're not to be milder and tastier.

Chesterfield

THE CIGARETTE THAT'S AS PURE AS SCIENCE CAN MAKE IT
THE CIGARETTE THAT'S MADE RIGHT, THAT'S MADE TO SMOKE COOL AND LAST LONGER

© 1932, LORRETT & SYRMS TOBACCO CO.