MEDALIST BY 4 STROKE MARGIN

West Wind Blows Favorites Out of Picture; Burke, Cooper and Armour

By PAUL NICKELSON
ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 30 — (AP)—Roaring along with a ripping west wind that blew several big favorites right out of the picture, Clin Dutra, gay caballero of golf from Santa Monica, Cal., captured the professional "gold" championship medal at Kellar today.

Dutra, always known as one of the best windjammers of golf, put together rounds of 71-69 on his 36-hole jaunt to win the medal by a four-shot margin over Horton Smith of Chicago, who came in with a last round push of 71 for his 144, equalling par.

Three of the biggest championship favorites in the starting field of 102 fell in the heartless struggle against the wind—Harry Cooper of Chicago, a red hot pick because of his great record in the two $10,000 St. Paul open over the same course; Billy Burke of Greenwich, Conn., 1931 national open champion, and Tommy Armour of Detroit, a former champion. The great triumvirate fell in a "sudden death" play-off at one hole, which saw 10 thunder down the fairway after two places. Two of the longest shots in the parade, Abe Espinosa of Chicago and Al Collins of Kansas City, won with birdie threes.

Johnny Farrell, another former national open king; Mike Turner, Willie Klein, Morrie Dutra and the two Hackneys, Dave and Clarence, also were numbered in the victims, their scores booming from the play-off figures of 153 and upwards.

PARENTS OF BRIDE TRY TO KEEP HER
TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 30 — (AP)—Superior court is to decide here tomorrow whether a young bride and her husband can be kept apart by the bride's parents.

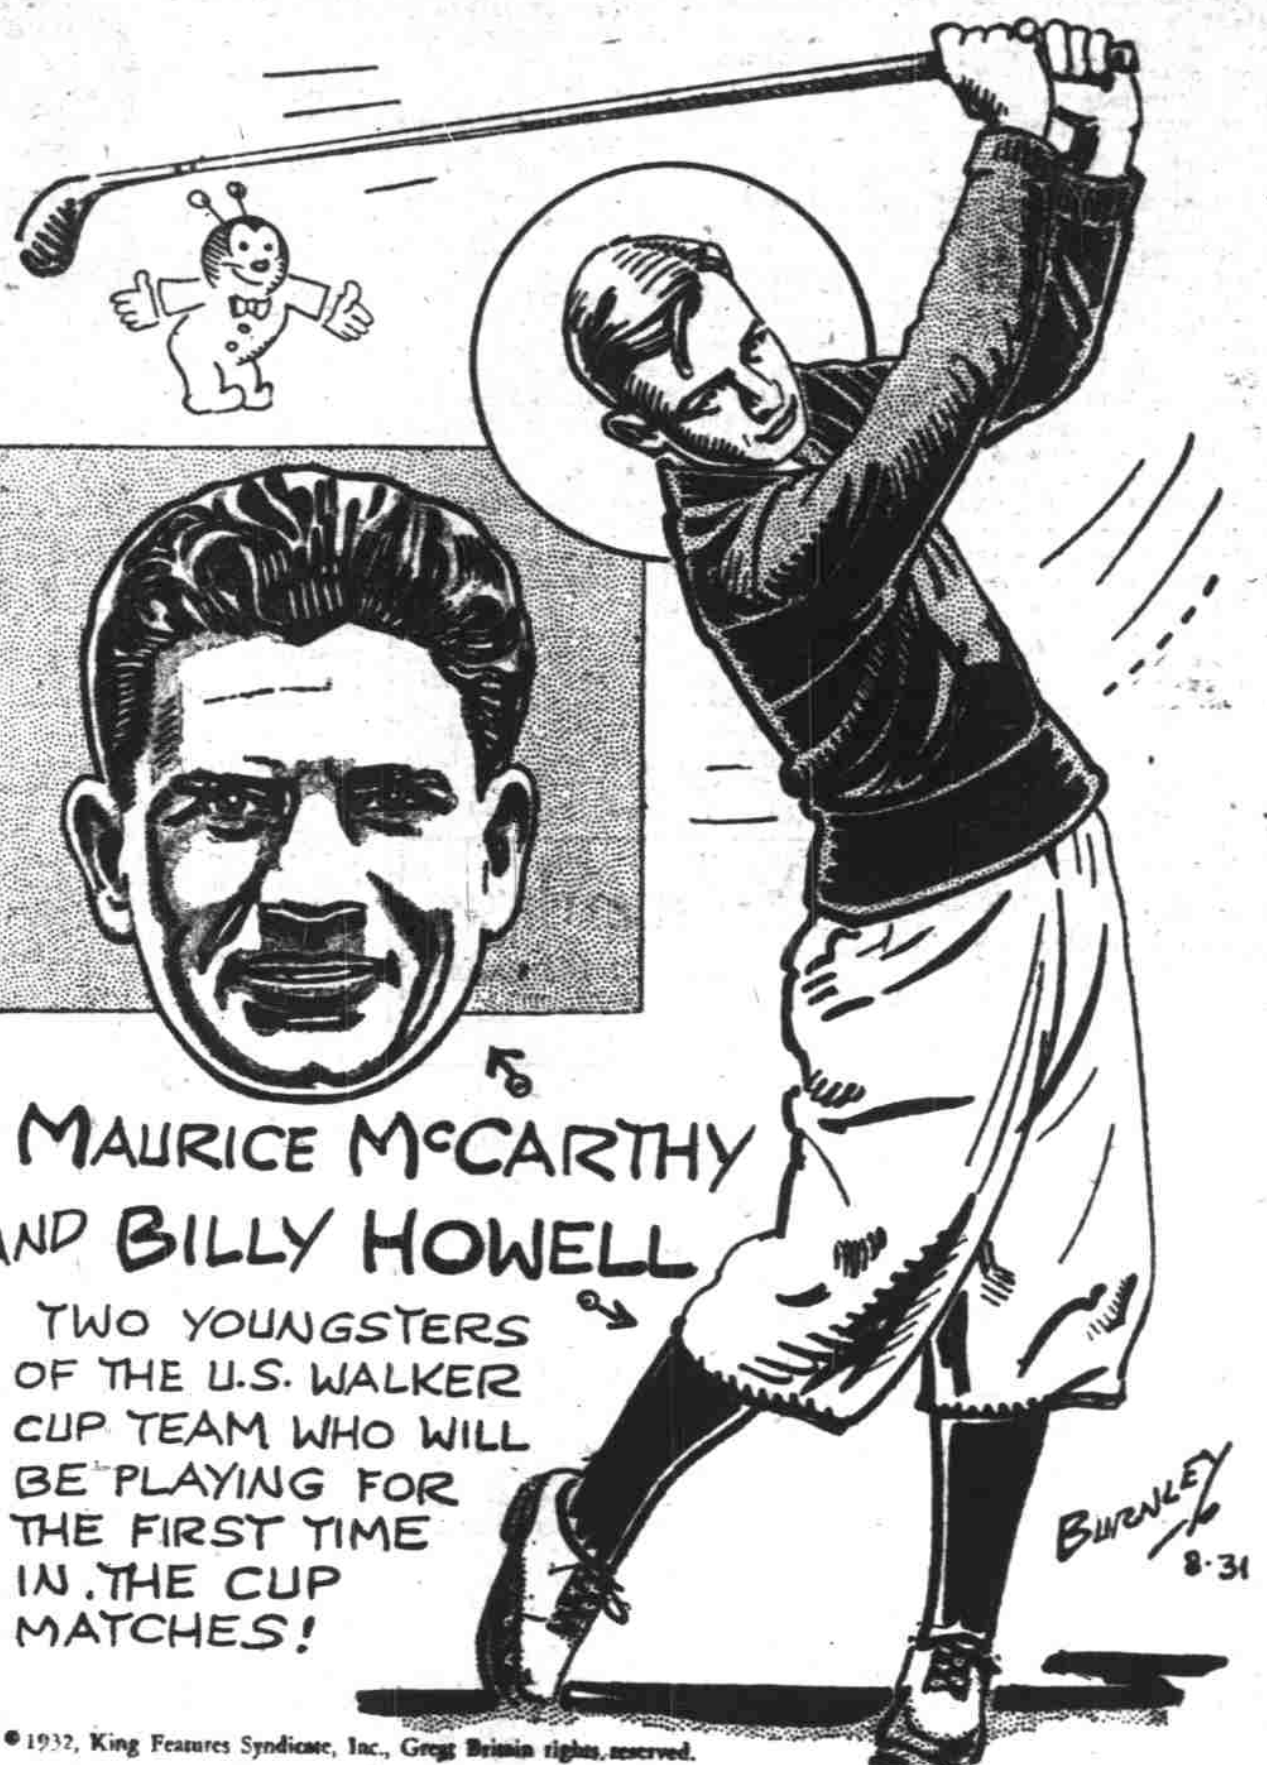

Fred H. Vogel, Jr., 22, of Portland, and Tilma Anderson, 20, Tacoma, were married and went from the minister's home to the house of the girl's parents, Vogel said in court today.

He complained that when he took his wife to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Anderson to obtain her clothing and personal effects, the parents refused to let the girl leave the house or communicate with him. The bride wishes to join him, he said, and is being held against her wishes.

He was granted a writ of habeas corpus against the parents, and Judge W. O. Chapman will decide their destinies tomorrow.

Newcomers to Walker Cup Play

By HARDIN BURNLEY

MAURICE MCCARTHY AND BILLY HOWELL
TWO YOUNGSTERS OF THE U.S. WALKER CUP TEAM WHO WILL BE PLAYING FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE CUP MATCHES!

DESPITE the criticism which followed the selection of the American Walker Cup players—particularly because of the failure to name Johnny Goodman, conqueror of Bobby Jones—recent golf happenings have made the U. S. G. A. selection committee look good.

And despite the general feeling that the American team does not seem to be up to the standard of other years, the American squad—old guard and new—is facing confidently the opening of the matches at Brookline, Mass., today.

Francis Ouimet, reigning national amateur champion, proved that his game is still good recently by trimming a field of crack professionals in the Massachusetts Open. Jess Sweetser, veteran Siwonoy star, turned in a brilliant round of 69 at Sleepy Hollow when he and Bobby Jones defeated Billy Burke and Johnny Farrell in an exhibition match. And then there was the brilliant play of youthful Billy Howell in the recent intercollegiate championship. Billy, who is making his first appearance as a member of the Walker Cup team, reached the finals of the intercollegiate tournament and, despite the fact that he lost, clearly demonstrated that his brilliant golf of 1931 was no flash in the pan.

Another young golfing genius who is making his first foray as a Walker Cup player is Maurice McCarthy, Jr., husky Brooklynite. McCarthy several times has knocked at the door in the amateur championship. At Merion in 1930 he reached the quarter-final round and last year at Beverly he reached the semi-final round, losing to Jack Westland in the privilege of facing Ouimet in the finals.

There has been much discussion of the possibility of these two "inexperienced youngsters" folding up under the stress of international play, but there is hardly much chance of that. The Old Guard—Ouimet, Sweetser, Johnson and Voigt—heroes of many Walker Cup links battles, will be there to supply a steady influence.

Well, anyway, it should make a great combination of youth and experience, and this 1932 links battle should prove to be a whopper.

Bits for Breakfast
Bonte, who came in 1812 with the Astors. He had come, before going to the west side, to farm with Joseph Gervais, next below the old mission. The Indian wives of Gervais and La Bonte were sisters; also the wife of Solomon Smith, who worked for the mission, here and on the coast.

Having heard that the farm of the late Mr. Young (Ewing Young) was the most beautiful spot in this section of the country, I determined to visit it, and for this purpose crossed the Yamhill again.

"When we reached the top, we again had a view of the Faults (Tualatin) plains, which were highly picturesque. The hills were covered, as we had found them before, with wall-flowers, lupine, scilla, and quantities of wild strawberries. . . . Mr. Young took charge of the share (of California cattle in 1837) of Mr. Slacum, which then amounted to 23. Previous to our arrival . . . we heard from the United States of the death of Mr. Slacum, and on our arrival (on this coast) that of Mr. Young was also made known to me. The funds and property of Mr. Young, by general consent of the settlers, were put into the hands of the Rev. Mr. Leslie, who acted as administrator (he was appointed administrator under the first provisional government established at the old mission Feb. 18 of 1841), and informed me that at the division of Mr. Young's cattle, 38 had been put aside as the share of Mr. Slacum, after the proportion of loss and accident had been deducted, making the increase in four years 63. Of these cattle no other care had ever been taken than to drive them into the pens for protection at night. Mr. Slacum's share was subsequently sold at the request of his nephew, who was a MIDGEPIHAN ON BOARD MY SHIP, to Dr. McLoughlin for $860—ten dollars per head. (Slacum had put $500 into the cattle fund.) The Willamette is now, through the interest felt and advances made by Mr. Slacum, well supplied with cattle, which are fast increasing in numbers.

"We found the farm of Mr. Young very much out of order, although I understood that two persons had been put in charge of it on wages at $1 a day. The farm house, at which we stopped, was entirely open, and every thing seemed to be going fast to ruin. Johnson (William Johnson), in hunting about the premises found a sick man, a native of the Sandwich Islands, lying in a bunk. In a small kitchen half a pig was hanging by its hind legs, roasting over a slow fire, and everything seemed in confusion. . . . We had a long ride before us; for it was our intention to reach Champoe before dark. . . . Before dark we reached a deserted house, belonging to George Gay, opposite to Champoe, and formerly occupied by Mr. Young.

"Finding the stream difficult to cross, we determined to take up our quarters in this house. About two miles from our stopping place, we passed some salt springs, to which the cattle and game resort in great numbers; they are strongly saline, and cover a considerable extent of ground. This is considered, as Mr. Johnson informed me, the best grazing grounds for their cattle. (Who can tell the writer the exact location of this old "lick")? In consequence of the baggage horses and party losing their way, they did not reach the camp until near midnight.

"Shortly after our arrival, George Gay was employed to break in," as he called it, a cow for milking. This operation, as performed by George, however necessary, was not calculated to raise him in any one's opinion, and therefore I shall not venture upon a description, farther than to say that the treatment the poor beast received was in my opinion as unnecessary as it was cruel. (Continued tomorrow.)

EDITH MCCORMICK FORTUNE DWINDLES
CHICAGO, Aug. 30—(AP)—Did Mrs. Edith McCormick, Chicago, social dictator of Chicago for 30 years and long known as the "world's richest woman," die practically penniless?

Attorneys and business associates familiar with the estate that once was valued at more than $40,000,000 said today it may have shrunk to such an extent that only enough remains to settle outstanding obligations.

Under present real estate valuations, those familiar with the McCormick holdings said, the estate probably is worth very little.

"After it all is summed up the estate may not be worth a cent," said former Judge Charles S. Cutting, who drew up Mrs. McCormick's will three weeks before she died.

Billy Sullivan stays right in there at first base for the White Sox, getting his hit or two most every game—three for three one game recently. And we haven't noticed any errors.

Billy, Sr., who was in town recently, said young Billy's last letters have sounded more optimistic, the boy feeling that he had just about overcome the handicap which failure to en-

Schaaf Favored To Defeat Baer In Bout Tonight
CHICAGO, Aug. 30—(AP)—Ernie Schaaf of Boston and Max Baer of Livermore, Calif., a pair of top ranking heavyweights, will meet in a 10-round bout at the Chicago stadium tomorrow night.

The boys have met before—about two years ago in New York—with Schaaf hauling down the decision, and tomorrow night's tussle will give Baer a chance to even things up. He says he will do it, probably by a knockout, but the wagering, what little there was, favors Schaaf at around 6 to 5.

Sweetland Grid Cleaned Up for Early Practice
When initial football practice is held a week from Monday at Willamette university, the gridirers will find Sweetland field cleared of its accumulation of weeds and debris.

A group of students were busying themselves yesterday cleaning up the gridiron. Several new out-lets will be added to the drainage system so that fall rains will not slow up the field as much as in the past.

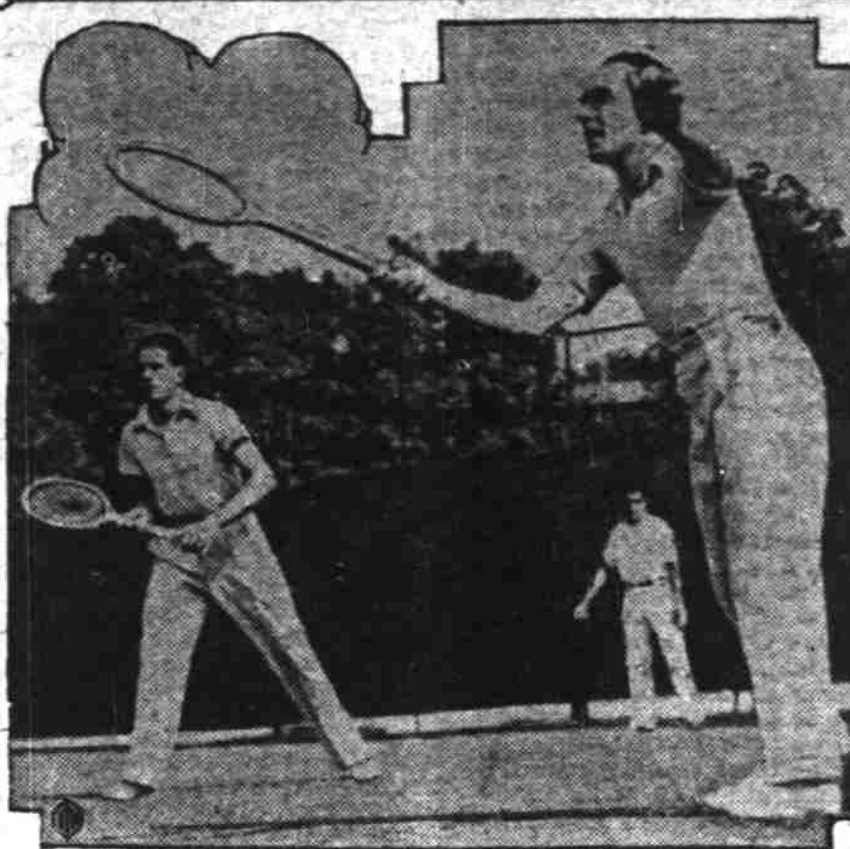

Coach "Spec" Keene Las written all Bearcat candidates asking them to be on hand for the first practice.

BEGINNING TO SQUARE ACCOUNTS

put to revenge his recent defeat at the hands of Ellsworth Vines in Paris, Henri Cochet, famous French tennis star, got away to a flying start in the first round of the national doubles at Chesnut Hill, Mass., when he and his youthful partner, Marcel Bernard, defeated R. R. and T. B. Thurber of Boston to the tune of 6-1, 6-1, 6-0. Cochet (right) and Bernard are shown in action. They displayed brilliant form and are among the favorites to snatch the laurels.

Wiles Can Come Again Even Though Meyers Defeats Him; Copper Show He Has Stuff

Chet Wiles can play in Salem's back yard, holler down its rain barrel and climb its apple tree again if he wants to, even though he lost to Bob Meyers Tuesday night, and even though he promised never to ask for another bout here unless he won.

Wiles showed Salem's doubting fans, or such of them as didn't doubt too strenuously to turn out to see him, that he can wrestle when he is in condition.

They flew at each other with plenty of action and the fans saw without the aid of any extra binoculars they might have brought to view today's eclipse, that Wiles was in earnest about that "showing Salem" business. Nevertheless, he fell victim to Meyers' series of reverse headlocks at the end of 21 minutes, 20 seconds.

Opening up with sonnenbergs and such, Wiles came back strong and he required only 7 minutes, 7 seconds to flatten Meyers with a series of sonnenbergs interspersed with headlocks.

In the third round Wiles kept going at what appeared to be a sure winning pace and had victory almost in his grasp several times when he succeeded in elevating the cheese-town grappler for airplane spins, but on these occasions he either failed to slam Meyers at the proper fatal angle, or Meyers would manage to get a grip on the ropes and spoil the flight.

All this time Meyers was not idle, and at the end of 10½ minutes he slipped a flying scissors on Wiles that brought him the deciding fall.

Pat Callahan of Butte was elected and signed by Seattle.

Mulligan Joins Portland Squad
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30—(AP)—Eddie Mulligan, veteran third baseman, recently released by the Seattle club of the Pacific coast league, joined the Portland club here today.

Mulligan stated the season with the Missions was released and signed by Seattle.

Lenhart cuffed Lomski down in the second round but in the third went down himself two times while he was able to retaliate with only one more knockdown of Lomski.
