Symphony Work Will Begin This Week

Of interesting portent is the announcement that the Salem Symphony orchestra will get its practices under headway with the 7:30 o'clock meeting planned for Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A.

The first appearance of the symphony group will very likely be when it appears on the Salem day program at the fair. The invitation to play at that time came through the Oregon Federation At Dallas Party

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS There is no doubt that the neck treatment of the present mode is the most important detail of any Mrs. Richard Tue, Mrs. T. Slatfrock. On this model a large shawl collar forming graceful revers is extremely flattering. Ruffling adds a delightful trim to both collar and cuffs. The skirt lines are particularly slenderizing. Crepes, sheer wool, or mesh would be ideal with pique or organdy

Pattern 2352 may be ordered only in sizes 12 to 20 and 30 to Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards 54 inch fabric and 1 yard 36 inch; contrasting.

Continue Fight On Outside Man

Local cleaners and pressers yesterday declared they would continue to fight an Oregon City cleaner doing business here through their 25 cent charge for men's suits and proportionately cut rates on cleaning other articles. The outside operator continued to do business at 50 cents for suits, with a 40 cent rate for persons purchasing his scrip.

Meanwhile the Salem cleaners are swamped with business. Many have been working late at night in an effort to catch up on the floor of clothing with which they have been deluged. Some cleaners said they were so busy they would be unable to guarantee when they would be able to return clothes
