

Youngsters Scintillate Again as Walker Cup Clinched

WIN ALL FOUR U. S. VICTORIES

British Capture one, Halve Three Against Veterans; Dunlap Shoots 66

By ALAN GOULD
BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 2.—(AP)—While the old guard faltered a trifle in the heat and a thunderstorm, America's new golfing blood today completed its sensational entry into international competition by contributing the chief thrusts in the United States' seventh straight victory over Great Britain for the Walker cup.

Led by George T. Dunlap, Jr., former intercollegiate champion from Princeton, who furnished the day's scoring fireworks with a record-smashing 66, five under par, the American "Freshmen" dominated the concluding singles matches, accounting for all four U. S. victories in the eight 36 hole contests.

Although hopelessly whipped from the start, so far as the team battle was concerned, the British staged a highly courageous comeback by halving three other matches after Leonard Crawley, the English schoolmaster, posted their only victory in two days by beating the New York veteran, George Voigt, 1 up, on the 36th green.

The final official tally, therefore, was 8 to 1 in favor of the United States, for the two days of international competition, with three matches halved. On points, however, for the 12 matches the tally was 9 1/2 to 2 1/2 in favor of the home forces.

Under Walker cup rules, there is no playoff of a match that is deadlocked on the last hole. The Americans captured all four Scotch foursomes yesterday.

The only British "shot" that came even close to the endangering the Walker cup, which has never left American possession since it was put up ten years ago by the St. Louis sportsman whose name it bears, was fired by Crawley. On the last hole of the morning round, in his battle with Voigt, Crawley's wild approach hit the huge silver trophy sharply on one handle, leaving a slight dent as the ball bounded off to the road and cost the Briton the hole.

Otherwise the cup was safe from attack, despite the most gallant efforts of the invaders to stem the tide closing in on them. Aside from Crawley's fine finish, they resisted stoutly to the end and succeeded in pulling from the fire three other matches that seemed irretrievably lost.

Four From Oregon State on Boston Braves Pro Football Squad; West Sending Many

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(AP)—A host of stars from the far west, among them outstanding college products of Oregon, Washington and California, will campaign almost as far east as they can get this fall in the professional ranks of the Boston Braves football team.

"Lud" Wray, former head coach at Pennsylvania and Braves mentor, has ordered them to report at Lynn, Mass., Tuesday for the start of practice.

The far west delegation is already on the way east, Wray said, with the ultimate destination of Ernie Pinkert, all-American halfback at Southern California last fall, still in doubt. Pinkert first signed a contract with the Braves, then with the New York Giants, and decision as to his proper affiliation is still in the hands of Joe Carr, president of the league.

Wray expects him to line up with the Braves with whom he first signed articles.

Among the far west stars who will play for Wray are Jim Mues, former U. S. C. fullback ace; Glenn Edwards, all-American tackle from Washington State; Reg Rust, halfback and Henry Hughes, bare footed Hawaiian back; Kenneth Hammer, center; Jack Cox, guard, all of Oregon State; George Hurley, Washington State guard; Larry Bettencourt, St. Louis Browns third baseman and former all-American center at St. Mary's; and Kermit Schmidt, Olympic club end.

From other parts of the west come Hugh Rhee, giant Nebraska tackle last year; Russ Peterson, U. of Montana and Basil Wilker, Oklahoma City, both tackles; and Fred Felber, North Dakota end.

Falt Elkins, former Decathalon star at Nebraska, had been recruited to the professional ranks.

BEAR TRAINER IS TO RETURN

Barrackman to Meet Mutt Eddy, Billed as Second Wildcat McCann

Mervin Barrackman, "gentle" bear trainer, will drive into Salem early next week with his wrestling bear riding in state in the trailer that used to be a familiar sight here.

Barrackman is coming back to wrestle "Mutt" Eddy of Salt Lake City.

Eddy has not been here before but he is heralded as a "second Wildcat McCann" which means much for this match. The Wildcat is rated high in the mid-dleweight ranks nationally but fans here remember him principally as a roughhouse artist of the first rank.

The boxing and wrestling commission which occasionally clamps down on rough stuff and decrees that the boys must wrestle, has obligingly lifted the lid for this match and those fans who like blood and thunder will get a treat from all indications.

Barrackman is a versatile veteran who can wrestle in any fashion the fans or the situation seem to demand. Outside the arena he is a mild-mannered, pleasant fellow but his tactics in some bouts here have drawn upon him the dislike of a large group of fans. Many of them will be there in the hope of his getting what they consider his "needings" at the hands of this new mauler.

The bear Barrackman has with him now is not the one that wrestled here previously but a younger one which used to ride along without paying for his grip by appearing in the ring. However, he is said to be cleverer than his predecessor, now deceased. The management wants a couple of brave young men to tackle this beast.

The Barrackman-Eddy match will be one of two main events, the other featuring Chet Willes of Portland and Toby Wallace of Vancouver, Wash.

LEONARD IS WINNER
LONG BEACH, N. Y., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Benny Leonard, former lightweight champion, added another victory to his long "comeback" string tonight by outboxing Phil Raftery of New York to win the decision in the six-round feature bout at the Long Beach stadium. Leonard weighed 151 1/2 pounds, Raftery 146 1/2.

Starting with Oregon Normal—a game that will be marked by the aftermaths of some rankings which we may discuss later—the home schedule includes Albany college, Linfield; College of Puget Sound, Pacific and Whitman.

Fans here know what Pacific and Whitman can produce! but Linfield and Puget Sound are going to be tough matters this year also. Coach Lever at Linfield won't admit it—says his team will be about the same as last year only some of the boys have gained a little weight—but the word is he expects to knock a lot of them over. Puget Sound was tough last year, beat Pacific, you recall—and it had a stronger team of ineligible on hand who will be eligible this year.

Unless Spec Keene finds some mighty good freshman pushing their way into the equipment room about September 12, his team may be on the bottom side in several of these games this fall in a position to which the Bearcats have hardly been accustomed in recent years.

CURT COMMENTS

Looks like the new federal taxes will turn out to be the kind of wind that blows somebody good. The athletic department at Willamette university has announced that for several of its games this fall the general admission price will be well, lower than ever before.

Now that general admission price announced by Keene & Co. happens to be just under the minimum charge on which a tax is assessed. If it were a nickel higher the athletic department would lower the price because the tax would be below what the price actually is to be. All this is good news to the perspiring fan, but not such good news to the athletic department except that in these times, it probably will mean more patronage.

Anyway Salem is going to see more collegiate football this fall than ever before, and if the Northwest conference teams hold up to the forecasts, it will be some great football.

Bowman Holds Bells After Two Others Fail; Runs Scored in Threes

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Three Misses pitchers paraded to the mound today but lacking support of their team mates Portland defeated the Reds 9 to 4. The Ducks scored three runs in each of three innings.

The Misses took an early lead scoring a pair on two walks and as many hits in the first and added another run in the third. The Ducks scored a trio in the fourth and after two were out and with the help of an error made three more in the fifth. The three they marked up in the ninth were unnecessary as Bowman held the Misses scoreless.

DUDLEY AND DUTRA WILL CLASH TODAY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Big Ed Dudley rode into the semi-finals of the national professional golf championship today in a scintillating overtime exhibition of the kind of golf Olin Dutra must buck tomorrow.

Kicked two down with only two to go by the amazing Al Collins, of Kansas City, the big boy from Wilmington, Del., sharpened up his spurs, rode over the final two fairways of the regulation 36 hole stretch with a par and an eagle to pull even and then polished off his performance by winning on the second overtime hole.

Dutra, of Santa Monica, Calif., whom Dudley faces in the semi-final round, tamed par for the fourth successive day to rout Herman Barron of Port Chester, N. Y., five and four. Frank Walsh of Chicago, spinning along comeback road after last winter's serious injury, provided a minor upset by routing wee Bobby Cruickshank, of New York, 8 and 7, in a match of erratic golf.

Tom Crawley, defending champion, sailed right in with a 3 and 2 triumph over Ralph Stonehouse, last surviving member of the dark horse contingent along with Collins, 3 and 2.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(AP)—James Joseph Tunney, the former heavyweight boxing champion, sprang to the defense of the word "saloon" when he arrived from Europe today on the Berengaria.

"Silly, the way the republicans shudder at the word saloon," said the retired pugilist who is planning to make his first extensive campaign speech for the democratic nation's ticket at Lewiston, Maine, Labor day.

"Verbally, saloon is far more pleasing to the ear than its English counterpart, pub, the French cafe, the German Biergarten, the Spanish bodega or the Austrian wienstube," he said.
