BUYING WAVE LIFTS GRAIN PRICE STEEL AND COTTON HELP STOCKS

Uncertainty Precedes Advance Credited To Cotton Boom

CHICAGO, Sept. 2— (AP) —A wave of heavy buying at the finish swept grain prices higher today after the market had jiggled nervously within a narrow range most of the session. Commission house buying gave wheat an early bulge which was quickly wiped out by profit taking and by liquidation of the September delivery. Improvement in stocks and cotton encouraged buying and caused considerable nervousness among shorts. Corn followed wheat. Oats were quiet and provisions eased with hogs.

Wheat closed at or near the top for the day and 7-8 to 1 3-8 cents higher than yesterday's finish, corn 1-8 to 3-8 up. Oats were mixed 1-4 lower to 1-4 advance.

Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: Sep. old 52 3-4, new 52 1-2; Dec. 57 1-4 to 3-8; May 62 1-8 to 1-4.

Corn: Sep. 30 3-4 to 7-8; Dec. 33 3-4 t o7-8; May 38 5-8 to 3-4.

Oats: Sep. 17 1-8 to 1-4; Dec. 19 1-4 to 3-8; May 22 1-8 to 1-4.

U. S. Steel Common is Up Past 50 First Time of Season

NEW YORK, Sept. 2—(AP)—More cheerful reports from the steel industry and a buoyant cotton market sent stocks on another upward excursion today.

Most commodities were firm, but the south's leading staple quite outstripped others, closing with net advances of more than $2 a bale. Stocks, content to follow cotton early, grew stronger when financial news tickets estimated that steel ingot production would be speeded up after the Labor day shutdowns and reported that scrap prices, usually an important index of trends in the industry, had been advanced $1.50 a ton in some districts.

It was natural that steel shares should lead the rally and their gains were rather pronounced. U. S. Steel common sold at 50 for the first time since spring, closing at the top. Its net gain was 3 1-8. Gulf states, Youngstown, Bethlehem, National and Republic gained from nearly 2 to 4 points.

Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania, Delaware & Hudsan and Lackawanna were up 1 to 2; but the market's advance was inclusive and there were but few stragglers. Coppers took notice of 6 cent metal, while automobile equities appeared to have been cheered by reports that August sales were better than the distressingly low July volume. Chemicals, led by advances of nearly 4 each in Du Pont and Allied, did well, while utilities were generally stronger, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas and North American rising 2 to 3.

The advance, averaging 2.9 points, carried the Standard Statistics-Associated Press composite to 70.2, the highest mark of the summer boom and only about a point under the year's top, made March 5. This thrust through August's peak was favorably construed by brokers who have been particularly impressed by the Rails' performance.
