6 NEW MEN NAMED ON SCHOOL STAFF

Local Attorneys Augment Old Law Faculty--Lockenour, New Dean, Announces

Dr. Roy M. Lockenour will head Willamette university college of law as dean this year, taking the place of Roy R. Howitt, who resigned last spring, yesterday announced six new members to the law college faculty, all practicing attorneys in Salem: Victor R. Griggs, Walter E. Keyes, E. M. Page, L. J. Page, Guy O. Smith and William H. Trindle. The men were approved by the executive committee of the board of trustees at its last meeting here.

Before coming to the law school here as instructor four years ago, the new dean taught in the political science department at Oregon State college for four years, and practiced law in Kansas and Wyoming for seven years. During his practicing period, he held offices of U. S. commissioner, city attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney and counsel for several large oil and mining operations.

Formal Dinner Compliments Bride

Mrs. Marvin Headrick, nee Alida Olson, was the inspiration for an attractive formal dinner Saturday evening when a group of intimate friends entertained for her. Mrs. Headrick was a bride of September 2 and an attractive gift from the group acknowledged the date.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Headrick, and Miss Myra Belt, Miss Marie Bone, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Iris Jorgensen, Miss Margaret Bell, Miss Ruthia Hoffnagel, Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Dorothy White, Miss Kathryn Laughrigo, Miss Margaret Wagner and Mrs. Gordon Bennett.

Turner—The W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday afternoon, September 14, at the home of Mrs. Susan Girardin. Business of importance will be taken up and members are urged to be present.

Among the recent guests of the Sovereign hotel in Portland, were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Watson, of

TROUBLED ALL LIFE WITH CONSTIPATION

But Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brought Real Relief

If you are subject to headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness and other effects that so often result from constipation, read Mrs. Turner's voluntary letter.

"For the past six months I have been eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, and cannot praise it too highly. 'Am fifty years of age. All my life have been troubled with constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has not only helped me, but has cured me. 'I thought I couldn't like the taste of bran, but Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is delicious.'—Mrs. C. J. Turner, 507 Hanover Street, Fall River, Mass.

Tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things which overcome constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Certainly this is more natural than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. Two tablespoons daily will correct most types of constipation. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Pastor Hits Bull Fight; 'Big Mistake'

Branding the bull fight advertised as feature of Oregon's state fair as a "shame and disgrace and an insult to the intelligence and refinement of the people of Salem and the state", Rev. Britton Ross, pastor of the First Baptist church during his Sunday morning sermon expressed his personal views on the attraction.

"I talked to Fair Director Gehlhar about it, telling him how I felt. He says it is not a bull fight. But if it isn't, I'd like to know what it is?" Rev. Ross inquired.

"I think the whole thing is a mistake, an absolute mistake. Why, the best people of Mexico, and even our own nation, are revolting at these affairs in that country; and here we bring it to our state fair.

"This is Oregon's state fair, and of the legal holiday.

Hamilton to Talk At Lions Club on State Fair Plans

W. M. Hamilton, chairman of the chamber of commerce state fair booster committee, will be the speaker at the Lions club meeting at the Marion Thursday noon, and will tell about the fair program.

Mr. Hamilton has invited Max Gehlhar, director of the fair, to appear also and tell about his big show. Effort is also being made to secure appearance of one or two state fair entertainers at the meeting.

At this luncheon, members of the Salem Kiwanis club will also attend, as the Kiwanis luncheon will not be held today on account of the legal holiday.

Business Houses Asked to Help in State Fair Week

The chamber of commerce has addressed 150 letters to business houses here asking cooperation with state fair officials to create a Salem interest in the fair, especially by giving Fair Director Gehlhar full cooperation in placing cards and posters in store and office windows.

Salem interest in the fair is essential to the success of the undertaking, and greatly affects the future of the exhibition, Mr. Gehlhar believes, and so urges full support here.
