Frenchman Makes Five Birdies to Break Amateur Record

Voigt Goes Down as Ouimet Makes 30 in Nine Holes: 8 Left in Field

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor FIVE FARMS COURSE, Baltimore Country Club, Sept. 14-(AP)-On the crest of a recordshattering scoring wave, Francis Oulmet, the grand old master of the American links, came through with two sensational victories today in his defense of the United States amateur golf champion-

The bespectacled Bostonian swept one of his foremost rivals. George J. Volgt of New York, out of the first round by negotiating the first nine holes in a recordbreaking 30, five under par, and going on to win by 6 and 5.

Back in the afternoon against the youthful Yale star, Sidney W. Noyes Jr., of New York, Ouimet had so hard a fight on his hands he needed a birdie three on the 18th and last green to win 1 up. after a brilliant exchange of spectacular shots.

Ouimet's scoring outburst surpassed anything ever witnessed in dazzling 30, with five birdies, on row, are: the outgoing nine, was a stroke better than the previous record of Jesse P. Week after week went by and still the first division and second division teams were separated by less than a hundred percentage points.

Then something happened. The Chicago Cubs, kept in the race up to August by Rogers Hornsby, were handed over to first-baseman Charlie Grimm. Nearly everywhere, fans thought Hornsby had done about as well as anyone could do with the material on hand. When Bill Veck handed the reins to Grimm, the Wrigley entry was about three games out of the lead.

The new manager oiled all the working parts. He told the players that common sense would be the only rule of discipline. "The game's the thing."
