

Weddings of Present and Yesteryears Hold Favor Today and Add Color To Society

Unique Celebration of Golden Wedding Anniversaries at Carkin Home Today; Wedding of Interest

Autumn society gains color these days from weddings and preparations for weddings with all the attending entertainment. Today is being especially given over to interest in weddings with the celebration of the double golden wedding of the parents of Mr. and Mrs. John Carkin at the Carkin home on South Winter street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. L. Carkin of Medford, parents of Mr. Carkin, were married in Bangor, Maine, 50 years ago September 20. They moved to North Dakota in 1884 and lived there until 1911 at which time they came to Medford where they have lived since.

Of five children three survive, John Carkin of Salem, Mrs. Glenn O. Taylor, Medford, and Everett Y. Carkin, Medford. There are six grandchildren in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Turner, parents of Mrs. Carkin, were married 60 years ago March 14 of this past year, in Rudd, Iowa. They pioneered in South Dakota, living near Aberdeen for 20 years, and in Grand Forks, North Dakota, until five years ago at which time they moved to Los Angeles where they now make their home.

They have three children, Mrs. Cora Hotelling, Los Angeles, Mrs. John Carkin of Salem, and Porter E. Turner, Bakersfield, Cal. They have seven grandchildren.

This afternoon and evening the former Dakota friends of the two honored couples are asked to call and greet them on this unique occasion.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Carkin are extending an invitation through the press to their own intimate friends to call and meet the visiting parents. Mr. and Mrs. Carkin senior, arrived Saturday at the Carkin home and Mr. and Mrs. Turner came Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carkin will be hostess Tuesday evening for a joint golden wedding dinner for all of the guests of the two couples and immediate members of the three families.

Today will also mark the marriage of Miss Maxine Ulrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ulrich to Stearns Cushing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stearns Cushing, Sr. of Oregon City.

The ceremony will be read by Rev. S. Darlow Johnson in the Leslie Memorial church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Preceding the vows Miss Bernice Riskman will sing accompanied by Robert Magin who will also play the wedding marches. At the close of the vows a quartet of Willamette university students will sing "I Love You Truly". The quartet is Louis Magin, Veron Bushnell, Robert Magin, and Morris Dean.

Miss Ulrich in a gown of white crepe cut along princess lines, will wear a flowing veil caught by orange blossoms in a cap about her head. Her bouquet will be roses and sweet peas with a clever corsage insert caught with the ribbon which tied the wedding bouquet of her mother. A strand of crystals will complete her ensemble.

She will be attended by Miss Elizabeth Clement as maid of honor, in pink organza, who will carry an arm bouquet of roses, sweet peas and delphinium in shades of pink and blue; and by

The Lookout committee of the high school C. E. society sponsored a party for new members Thursday evening in the parlors of the First Christian church. They motored through a very enjoyable evening of entertainment. In addition, however, took the form of prizes and the automobile idea was carried out in games that were played and in

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13
16
20
26
31
37
40
45
48
53
58
67
65

- HORIZONTAL
- 1—happy
 - 5—grant
 - 9—small river
 - 13—earnest
 - 14—a high mountain
 - 15—a wading bird
 - 16—flying heroes
 - 17—receive
 - 19—one of the Great Lakes
 - 20—something held back
 - 22—summons to return
 - 24—penetrated again
 - 27—a heavenly body
 - 28—barley, steeped in water, made to germinate and dried in kiln
 - 31—grasp by encircling
 - 33—in favor of
 - 35—a twilled woolen fabric
 - 37—a wharf loafer
 - 38—the nobility
 - 39—always, poetic
 - 40—banish
 - 42—open fabric
 - 43—a cloth made of flax
 - 45—close
 - 47—repair
 - 49—eminence
 - 53—lubricated
 - 55—supposed
 - 58—ravellings
 - 59—destines
 - 61—a heavy cord
 - 62—a shrub bearing black or red berries
 - 63—regret
 - 64—delight
 - 65—besides
 - 66—feeds or runs together
 - 67—dispose of for consideration
 - VERTICAL
 - 1—appliances
 - 2—intertwined
 - 3—grows old
 - 4—abandons
 - 6—burdened
 - 7—a graceful shade tree
 - 8—steeples
 - 9—lever actuated by foot
 - 10—a nobleman
 - 11—old
 - 12—drugs
 - 17—vouch
 - 18—name
 - 21—comes in sight again
 - 23—without pause
 - 25—a violent stream
 - 26—a measure of land (pl.)
 - 27—a silk fabric
 - 28—inclination
 - 29—abounding in flowerless plants
 - 32—slack
 - 33—confining
 - 34—edible grain
 - 36—a call in driving animals
 - 41—one to whom a bequest is made
 - 44—guarantees
 - 46—bamboos like grass
 - 47—a state of disorder
 - 48—a warble
 - 50—worship
 - 51—called
 - 52—drive back
 - 53—meritment
 - 54—concludes
 - 56—to stir
 - 57—small, retired valley
 - 60—belonging to us

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Sunday, September 18

First district conference of Business and Professional Women, all-day meeting in McMinnville; one o'clock luncheon, reservations with Julia Webster or Ruth McAdams before 6 o'clock Thursday.

Monday, September 19

Regular election of officers of American Legion Auxiliary, Fraternal Temple, 8 o'clock. Eighty-first celebration of organization of Odd Fellows lodge at regular lodge meeting, I. O. O. F. hall. Alpha Chi Omega sorority alumnae meeting, with Mrs. G. F. Chambers. Sigma Nu Delphian chapter, 8 o'clock in auditorium room of public library.

Tuesday, September 20

Sons of Union Veterans and its Auxiliary, with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Denton, at rural home; 6:30 o'clock pot-luck dinner. Executive board meeting of Y. W. C. A. in social rooms of Y. W. 10 o'clock. Salem Chapter War Mothers, social meeting and reports of convention, American Lutheran church; 2:00 o'clock. Salem W. C. T. U., 2 o'clock; election of officers; plans for state convention, October 11-14.

Wednesday, September 21

Naomi circle of First Methodist church, with Mrs. A. H. Fuostman. Woman's Foreign Missionary society, Leslie Methodist church, with Mrs. John Kooreman, 1755 South High street. Past Noble Grand club with Mrs. D. A. Hodge, 1270 Chemeketa street; 8 o'clock.

Thursday, September 22

Faculty Women's club at Lausanne hall, tea meeting.

McMinnville Wedding Beautiful Ceremony

Grand Island — One of the most beautiful weddings of the season was solemnized Wednesday night at the St. Barnabas Episcopal church in McMinnville when Miss Maxine Roavis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wood of Dayton, became the bride of Hermann Strachauer of Minneapolis, Minnesota. The double ring ceremony was used with the Rev. Geiser reading the impressive service in the presence of many relatives and friends.

The auditorium of the church was beautifully decorated with candles and huge baskets of autumn flowers.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Loehgren's wedding march. The four bridesmaids, Misses Ruth Petre, Mary Starbuck, Evelyn Lyndahl and Nona Mondahl, all of Dallas. They wore dresses of pastel shades with matching accessories and carried bouquets of gladiolus. Miss Marcel Reavis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an orchid taffeta and carried a bouquet of matching accessories and carried an arm bouquet of orchid gladiolus.

Dona Rae Potts, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Potts of McMinnville acted as flower girl. Dressed in pink or-rose petals, which she scattered before the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Ross Wood. She was beautiful in a gown of ivory satin, floor length. The veil was held in place by wreaths of orange blossoms and strings of pearls. The only jewelry worn was a beautiful string of pearls, a gift from the groom's mother. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The groom's attendant was Dr. Arthur C. Strachauer, father of the groom.

The ushers were Karl Retzer, Dr. Ernest C. McCollon, Dan Quick and Rex Pemberton.

After the ceremony a reception party was held for the bride and her immediate families at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wood at Dayton. Mr. and Mrs. Strachauer left immediately for a motor trip to Yellowstone National park and Minneapolis, Minnesota, and will return by way of California. They will make their home at the Fisher apartments in Salem.

Constitution day, which was being observed by the Daughters, He traced in interesting fashion the struggle for personal rights from ancient times to present day events.

HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
Each year finds peonies gaining in popularity and deservedly so. The peony has many uses in the garden; it is a real perennial; has a wide range of color and a long blooming period. Many varieties have a delightful fragrance. Peony planting time is September or early October. This is also the season of the year to divide and transplant your old clumps. While a peony will grow and bloom to some extent with neglect, it does so much better with proper care that no gardener should neglect it. In preparing the bed, dig it out to a depth of about 18 inches and, if the soil is inferior, fill the bed with superior soil. Then add a fertilizer. Well-dressed manure will do very well, but do not add too much of this for it is apt to cause root rot. Coarse bonemeal, mixed with the soil, before planting, is very beneficial. A pint may be added for each plant to be used. Then in the spring, before the plants appear, rake in slightly finely ground bonemeal. Do this each two weeks until the buds appear on the plants. After the blooming season is over, it is well to give each plant a trowelful of bonemeal and one wood ashes.

Peonies should be planted so that the large eyes or the top of the root are two inches beneath the soil. They should be planted at least two feet apart each way. If you already have a bed of peonies and have not fertilized them for some years, it is well to dig in decayed manure between the plants. Do not place it directly on top of plants, this seemingly causes "blind buds". A light straw mulch is sometimes beneficial to the plants however. Too deep planting will also cause blind buds. A lack of fertilization is another cause. But the most often cause is poor plants. If one is planning to grow peonies it will decidedly pay to get good roots from reliable dealers. Too few gardeners, commercial peony growers report, realize that there are many peonies that develop more "blind buds" than buds that will come into bloom.

There are so many splendid varieties that it is difficult to give the "best" ones. Last spring when I visited the peony gardens in bloom, it seemed each one I looked at was finer than the one before.

One of the loveliest ones is the Marie Jacquin which so closely resembles a water lily. It is rather single, is white with a pink tinge to the bud. It is also fragrant. A Lemoine creation, the Solange, is one of the most distinctive peonies and comparatively rare here. The blooms are very full, and the coloring is a rich cream. The coloring is so unusual that it always attracts attention wherever it is seen.

The Phoebe Cary is one of the late bloomers. The flowers are very large and full and it is a light lavender pink. Another pink, more of a coral shade, is the Walter Faxon, which is also full but not as large as the Phoebe Cary.

These are all comparatively expensive sorts. Among the cheaper ones which are good are the single Kelway Dorothy, the one; the Crimzon, The Moor and the white Rosy Dawn. Good double ones are the early Festive Maxima, a white one; the sulphur white, fragrant and early Duch Louis Van Houtte; which is dwarf and late; the rose Livingston, a tall late variety; the pink Mrs. Emile Galle, which is of medium height and also blooms in mid-season.

Sage of Salem

(Continued from page 4)

Every day the papers tell of some owner of a bull or of some man servant of a man who owns a bull with whom the bull makes a sudden and unexpected couplet. And there is not much poetry in that sort of couplet, either.

Gilly Cudd, who went down to Portland last Tuesday, reports the five hours long according to his left leg and between seven and eight hours long according to his right leg, which is rheumatic. Also, it was a grand parade.

D. A. R. District Meet Holds Local Interest in Corvallis

DISTRICT two of the Daughters of the American Revolution met in Corvallis Saturday for its annual meeting. From Salem were Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. C. C. Clark, and Miss Ola Clark.

Mrs. H. T. Love gave the response to the address of welcome and also reported from Chemeketa chapter. Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state regent from Portland gave a talk concerning the educational problems facing the D. A. R. in maintaining its scholarship loan funds, both local, state and national. Chemeketa chapter aids in maintaining two girls in Willamette university and the state organization aid in both state school work and in maintaining mountain schools in the east. The next district meeting will be held in Albany in September, 1933. The next district executive board meeting will be held October 28 and this will also be held in Albany. A luncheon was served at the Benson hotel for the conference members Saturday and following this Claude Ingalls addressed the group on the general subject of

War Mothers Will Meet Tuesday

The Salem chapter of War Mothers will gather for the regular social meeting Tuesday afternoon in the American Lutheran church. Reports of the recent Legion convention will be an additional feature of the meeting.

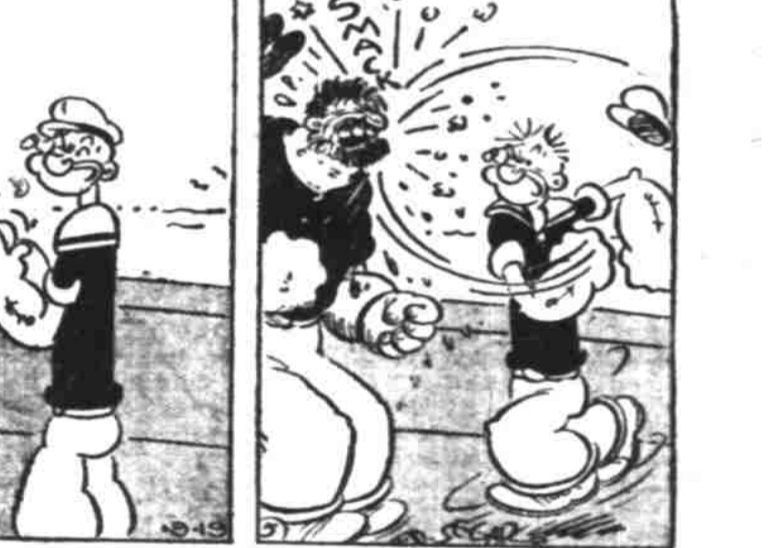

Mrs. Ada V. Skiff heads the social committee and assisting her are Mrs. Susie E. DeLapp, Mrs. M. J. Rigdon, Mrs. Eva Hill, Mrs. Emilia Hendricks, Mrs. S. Phillips, Mrs. Helen M. Southwick, Mrs. F. A. Erickson and Mrs. Elizabeth Dieffenbach.

Mrs. George H. Vehrs entertained at the Vehrs home on North Capitol street Friday afternoon complimenting her daughters, the Misses Carmen Jean and Esther, and her niece, Miss Yvonne Torgler. Mrs. George Arbuckle assisted at the tea hour.

MICKEY MOUSE

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

TOOTS AND CASPER

WELL, OF ALL THINGS! IT LOOKS LIKE SOME GIRL HAS FALLEN IN LOVE WITH CASPER'S PHOTO! ISN'T THAT ROMANTIC!