First Concord Grapes Of Season Arrive On Mart Here

Egg prices were boosted here yesterday, with the highest offer in weeks prevailing for extras and standards. Raisers received 22 cents on extras and 20 cents on standards, while mediums continued to hold at 16 cents. Broilers are up, with the offer on leghorn broilers 12 cents, and colored ones bringing 14 cents to the chicken owner. First concord grapes of the eason were brought into the local market yesterday, and mark the beginning of harvest at the large Fiala orchards near here. First price to growers is 20 cents on a heaping basket. These weigh between six and eight pounds. This price is not expected to hold

Lady Finger grapes from the south are also new on local markets. The small seedless grape has been offered for some time. Threatened boost in tomato rices did not materialize yesterday, and offerings were heavier. However, a share of the tomatoes noted yesterday had ripened' unevenly.
