

Schools Throughout County Open; Enrollment Holds Up

HARVEST WORK HOLDS UP SOME

Monday, September 26, to See Almost all Schools Busy; Changes few

Schools throughout the county are opening with enrollments equal to or exceeding those of former years, advices received yesterday from Statesman correspondents show. The majority of the schools have already begun work although a number will not start until next Monday, September 26. A few will delay their start until the state fair has been completed. In a few districts the fruit harvest is still in progress, necessitating that students either be excused or else that school opening be delayed.

ROBERTS SCHOOL BUSY
ROBERTS, Sept. 20. — School will open Monday with Mrs. Harry Carpenter as principal and Julia Query in the primary room. This will be the second year for both teachers.

120 ENROLL AT AURORA
AURORA, Sept. 20.—The Aurora school opened Monday with an enrollment of 120 pupils. Fifty-six of these were from the Union Hill district. There was more than a capacity load and it was necessary for Mat Rees, driver of the school bus, to make the second trip. Many pupils were not in attendance the first day and the enrollment cannot be definitely known until the latter part of the week. Extra seats had to be provided in the room of Evanda Hurst, teacher of the first and second grades.

66 ENROLL, HAYESVILLE
HAYESVILLE, Sept. 20.—Monday morning children of the district, shiny and clean, appeared at school to start the year. There were 30 in the advanced grades and 36 in the primary, with 12 beginners.

TUITION BOGEY LOOMS
BRUSH CREEK, Sept. 20.—A number of Brush Creek students have entered Silverton high school this autumn and report that they will continue unless they have to pay a heavy tuition. A number of the young people are entering the senior high school who attended the junior high last year.

Those going from here include Robert and Harlan Moe, Lyle Krug, Helen Elton, Elizabeth Hall, Charlotte and Walter Goplerud, Milo Grace, Vivian Bunes, Ruth Maurer and Robert Haage. Sylvia Haere is taking a post-graduate course. Clarence Brown, who made his home at the Dan Hillman farm and attended from here last year, is now at Portland at the home of his grandfather. Clarence, it is understood, has employment at Portland.

175 AT WEST SALEM
WEST SALEM, Sept. 20.—Among 175 pupils reporting for school at the opening of the fall term Monday morning, a number of new faces were in evidence. Ruth Butler of Dallas is a new member of the faculty. At the joint meeting of members of the school board and teaching staff, held at the schoolhouse Saturday night, plans were formulated and the year's work organized. It is the policy to institute student government again this year and various rooms will be organized with officers as they have for a few years past. For the third consecutive year there will be boys' football with a first team and probably a practice team, and a number of competitive games are scheduled.

SILKE BUSY AT HUBBARD
HUBBARD, Sept. 20.—School opened Monday with Eugene Silke in charge. This is Mr. Silke's first year in Hubbard. He comes highly recommended and the school year promises to be a good one. He will be assisted by Mrs. Nellie Cornell, commercial and history, and Mrs. Adeline Fields, English and foreign languages, who are both entering their fourth year in Hubbard. The seventh and eighth grade teacher will be Kenneth Dart, who is beginning his second year; the fifth and sixth grades will be in charge of Frances Friend, a local

RULE OF RUSSIA'S RED CAESAR TOTTERING

According to observers of the political situation in Soviet Russia, Joseph Stalin, the supreme dictator who holds virtual powers of life and death over 150,000,000 persons, is slated for the oblivion into which he sent Leon Trotsky, former Comissar of War and co-founder of the New Russia. Reports of the impending upheaval reached London following the discovery of a plot to assassinate the dictator in Moscow. It is said that 120 persons, including many high officers of the Red Army, were arrested. One of those allegedly implicated in the plot, Comissar of War Voroshiloff, is said to be the new leader of the opposition against Stalin, who will, in the event of the latter being ousted, grasp the dictatorship. Stalin's fall is said to be due to the unsatisfactory manner in which he has piloted the voyage of the good ship Five-Year Plan. The Soviet dream is not progressing in the blaze of glory which was confidently expected, and erstwhile supporters of Stalin are beginning to believe that Leon Trotsky knew where he spoke when he accused Stalin of mismanagement of the entire affair. Trotsky was exiled for his pains, but since then, as he wandered about Europe and Asia, virtually a man without a country, he has continued to criticize Stalin's methods. So far, the only Red leader who has succeeded in retaining his popularity is Nikolai Lenin, who lies in his great sarcophagus in Moscow's Red Square, the idol of millions of worshipping Russians. But had he lived, it is probable he would have suffered the fate that is Trotsky's today and which may be Stalin's tomorrow.

girl; the first and second grades will be in charge of Mrs. Lorna Duncan and this will be her ninth year in Hubbard. There were 87 registered in the high school and several more who are working in the prunes, will register later. Last year there were 45 in the high school, so this year portends to have a record attendance.

ZENA SCHOOL READY
ZENA, Sept. 20.—The Zena schoolhouse has been cleaned and floors oiled in preparation for the beginning of school Monday, September 26. Dorothy Bork of Monmouth is to be the teacher. Miss Bork will reside at the W. Frank Crawford home.

NEWCOMERS AT SWEGLE
SWEGLE, Sept. 20.—Swegle school opened yesterday, with 20 children enrolled in the upper room and 26 in the primary room. New ones to start were Patsy Chapman, third grade; Velva Silvers, second grade; Barbara Plasher, sixth in the primary. The following were first grade beginners: Barbara Buntin, Margaret Smith, Virginia Aldrich, Louise Whitehead, Mary Lou Segun, Gladys Dalke, Florence Dalke, Leonard Swanson, Ernest Wells and Dorothy Bond.

OPENING DATE MONDAY
BRUSH COLLEGE, Sept. 20.—The Brush College school will open Monday, September 26, with Mrs. Mary Sehon as principal and Ruth Bennett as primary teacher. A new study table is to be placed in Mrs. Sehon's room and several other needed improvements made.

ENROLLMENT LIGHT SO FAR AT HEIGHTS

SALEM HEIGHTS, Sept. 20.—Salem Heights grade school took up September 19 with the following teachers this year: Cecile Wiegand, principal; Hyda Foster first and second grades, Wanda Phillips third and fourth grades, Dorothy Dutton fifth and sixth grades. The total enrollment is quite light in some of the rooms due to the fact that prune picking is still on but it is expected that by the time the pupils are all in the total will be increased to about the same as last year.

Miss Phillips, teacher of third and fourth grades who has had special training in music, has begun to organize a school orchestra and reports that quite a number of boys and girls are ready to begin taking lessons. This will be in addition to the regular school work, practices taking place after school hours. Miss Dutton who teaches the fifth and sixth grades and who has had special work in advanced and the newer methods of art and project work will take over that department. Miss Dutton and Miss Foster will also organize a Campfire Girls' club, their first meeting for membership taking place Wednesday afternoon at 4 p. m. Tuesday morning a general assembly was called by Cecile Wiegand, principal.

The physical examinations as required by law have just about been completed by the teachers after which the regular classes will resume.

Picnic Given for Winners in Match For C.E. Members

JEFFERSON, Sept. 20.—In a contest staged during the past month, between the junior and senior societies of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor, the juniors lost, so entertained the seniors with a moonlight party at the home of the president of the junior society, Virgil Wilson, Friday night. Out-door games formed the evening's diversion, and later all joined in a circle on the lawn, and refreshments were served by the juniors. Those present were Shirland, principal; Alice McGrath of Portland and Miss Amundson of Silverton.

FIRE DRAWS CROWD
BRUSH CREEK, Sept. 20.—A stubble and brush fire on the Ole Hattberg farm here attracted considerable attention from all surrounding districts Monday night. The glare of fire reached for miles around and many drove out from Silverton and other neighboring communities to see what it was.

ley Jones, Douglas Starr, Edith Mary, Clarence and Virgil Wilson, Marjorie Weddle, Florence Lening, Jack and Patsy Parrish, Helen, Laura, Walter, George and John Kih, Ruby Koker, Robert and Evelyn Gulvin, Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Luning, Anna Klampe, Mrs. Nettie Reeves, Geraldine Jones, Frances Weddle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson, Glenn, Ray and Clifford Wilson, and Miss Opal Ecker of Salem.

OPENS NEW STORE
SALEM HEIGHTS, Sept. 20.—Charles F. Frame, formerly of Salem, has recently opened up the store at the corner of Jefferson and Liberty formerly conducted by Kenneth Dalton and known as the Dalton Grocery. Mr. Frame will serve light lunches and soft drinks and will operate a filling station. The place is now open for business.

RECEPTION FRIDAY FOR ALL TEACHERS

TURNER, Sept. 20.—School opened Monday with a good enrollment and a number have promised to enter later. Pleasant View district is sending their grade school to Turner by bus as they did last year. A few grade pupils from Battle Creek and Pleasant Point districts will attend school at Turner.

A public reception will be given for the school faculty Friday night, September 23, at the school auditorium. Patrons and friends are urged to be present and meet the teachers at the beginning of the school year.

Turner young people leaving this week for college are Miss Sheila DeJell who enters O.S.C. for her sophomore year; Miss Katherine Shampier, who goes to Albany college as a freshman; James and Russell Denyer, to Willamette for their second year; John Hawk enters Willamette as a freshman; Willard Bear returns to Albany college for his junior year and Kenneth Bear enters as a special student. Wilfred Harrison will attend business college in Salem. He has a scholarship for excellent high school work.

BOY TO JOHNSTONS
SIDNEY, Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Johnston are the parents of a baby boy, born to them recently at the Dallas hospital. The young man has been named Wayne Francis.
