Reception Will be of Interest

Teachers are being welcomed back to Salem after the summer vacation, and those new to the city are being greeted by members of the P. T. A. association of the city.

Tonight the Lincoln P. T. A. will entertain at the school house with an attractively planned reception to greet the teachers of this school. The hour has been set at 7:30 o'clock.

An interesting program has been arranged by the committee, which includes Mrs. Steven Stohr, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood and Dr. L. E. Barrick.

Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., is chairman of the reception committee and assisting her is Mrs. H. N. Crain and Mrs. Elmer Wooten.

Hostesses who will serve in each room, include Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, first grade; Mrs. W. F. Perlich, second grade; Mrs. A. Schramm, third grade; Mrs. T. C. Harrington, fourth grade; Mrs. Leslie Springer, fifth grade; Mrs. O. L. Marshall, sixth grade.

Judge George Rossman will give the main address of the evening and musical numbers will be presented.

Other committees working include the publicity committee, Mrs. Nina Adams, chairman; finance, W. F. Perlich, Miss Bertha Englehorn and J. McNeil; flower, Mrs. Don Taylor; and car committee, Mrs. T. C. Bates.

All parents and friends are urged to attend this opening social occasion of the school.

Friday night the members of the McKinley P. T. A. will entertain with a reception to the teachers of this school.

A program has been arranged by Miss Long, chairman of the social committee and this will include musical numbers and short talks. Superintendent of schools, George Hug, will give the address of welcome and to this response will be made by both a parent and a teacher.

Special guests in addition to the building teachers, will be elementary supervisors, Dr. Vernon Douglas in president of the association for this year.

Mrs. Lydia Lehman Heads W. C. T. U.

At the regular election of officers for the coming year held by the W. C. T. U. Tuesday at the organization hall Mrs. Lydia Lehman was elected president.

Lena V. Robins was elected vice president; Mrs. Luella Baker, treasurer; Mrs. Jessie ... in, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Toole, recording secretary.

Mrs. Lena Lile will be delegate at large for the state convention and other delegates will include Mrs. Ruth Toole, Mrs. Sarah C. O'Connell, Mrs. Lena Robins, Mrs. Beulah Battif, and Mrs. Josephine Shanks.

Alternates include Mrs. Jennie Nelson, Mrs. Maud Tallman, Mrs. Rachel Reader, Mrs. Laura McAdams, Mrs. Minnie Stoltze, Mrs. Allie Bryan, Mrs. Mary Watson, and Mrs. Bertha Kauffer.

Arrangements were discussed at length concerning the convention of the W. C. T. U. which will be held in Salem October 11 to 14.

It was determined that rooms and breakfasts should be provided by Salem members and friends and in order that this may be done with ease it is requested that any one who will assist with this housing call Miss Jessie Martin.

Announcement was also made that all reports of officers or directors should be sent to headquarters by not later than September 27.

New York Guest At Church Supper
Dr. Charles C. Merrill, who will speak at a supper of Congregationalists of the city at the Knight Memorial church on Wednesday evening, has become widely known in the circles of his own and other denominations for his progressive statesmanship in adaptation of religious programs to needs of today.

He is senior secretary of the commission on missions of the general council of Congregational and Christian churches, with headquarters in New York City.

Dr. Merrill will speak at a "pot-luck supper" at the Knight Memorial church on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock to which the members of the First Congregational church are invited.

He will also speak at a meeting of the Women's Union of First church at the home of Miss Constance Kantner on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The women of Knight Memorial church are invited to attend this program.

Woman's Union to Hear Noted Speaker

Mrs. E. I. Thieme Is Complimented

Mrs. E. I. Thieme, nee Mary Louise Aiken, was the guest of honor for an intimate party given Tuesday night by Miss Florence Power at the home of her mother, Mrs. Frank Power.

Mrs. Thieme has been a guest in Salem since June at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Aikin. She plans to return to Seattle this weekend where she and Mr. Thieme will make their home.

Mrs. Thieme has been a member of the University of Washington faculty for the past two years while taking post graduate work. Mr. Thieme is a student in the university.

A group of former Willamette university friends made up the party Tuesday evening. An attractive shower complimented Mrs. Thieme as part of the evening's entertainment. Cards were also in play.

Present in compliment to Mrs. Thieme were Miss Ruth Fick, Miss Ruby Laughlin, Miss Loretta Fisher, Mrs. June Gains, Miss Rosalyn Van Winkle, Mrs. Clarence Emmons, Mrs. Charles Kaufman, and Miss Power.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop Will Entertain Aid

The first meeting of the year for the Women's Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop with an assisting committee of Mrs. Frank Power, chairman, Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. L. G. Altman, Mrs. H. B. Glasyer, Mrs. A. L. Brown, and Mrs. Willis Moore.

The meeting is called for 2 o'clock but the executive committee of the organization is requested to meet at 1:45 o'clock for a special session.

An unusually pleasing program has been planned with vocal numbers by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Miss Elizabeth Clement, and Wendell Robinson. Mrs. F. E. Mercer will give a group of readings.

Plans for the coming year will be discussed at the business meeting.

Nile Club Will Meet Thursday

A change has been made in the meeting date of the Salem Nile club this week, the date having been changed from Wednesday to Thursday, this change being necessary because the social rooms were to be occupied today.

The meeting will be a luncheon and for this each guest is asked to bring sandwiches. Mrs. Charles Stricklin, Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. George Dunsford are in charge of the luncheon arrangements.

All members of the club are urged to be present for this meeting in order that a definite date may be arranged for future meetings.

Hubbard — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Read and their sons, Harry, Bob, Merrill, Clyde, Kenneth and Henry attended a farewell party Saturday night given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith at their home at Marquam. About 35 guests were present. After an evening spent in dancing, a bounteous basket supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith with their daughter, Georgianna, left for California Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Woods where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Woods are returning to California, after spending the summer at the Smith home.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Smith and daughter Georgianna, and Mr. and Mrs. Woods were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Read. Other guests at the Read home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Stipe and daughter Caroline and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boucher and son Hazen, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs.

Parties Complement Bride Elect

Miss Velma Simpkins, select of Donald Deckebach, was the inspiration for an attractive evening of bridge at the home of Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Jr., Tuesday.

Miss Simpkins will also be the honor guest for an informal evening Friday night with Miss Kathryn Elgin as hostess.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

It is a well known fact that beltless frocks make one appear much taller and slimmer. The lines of the frock sketched are most interesting as they produce the slender hip illusion. The sleeve treatment is very new and really delightful and the bow at the neck is applied in a novel way. Satins and crepes are chic this season.

Pattern 2270 may be ordered only in sizes 16 to 20 and 34 to 44. Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 1/4 yard 20 inch contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

The fall and winter edition of the Anne Adams Pattern catalog is ready! Charming, flattering models—32 pages of the newest and best house, street and formal frocks—cleverly designed styles for large figures—and beautiful, practical models for juniors and kiddies. Lovely lingerie patterns, and suggestions for gifts that can be easily and inexpensively made, are also included. Send for the new catalog. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern to follow. Twenty-five cents. Address for all mail orders to Statesman Pattern department, 343 W. 17th street, New York City.

Mrs. Ed Viesko Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Ed Viesko entertained for the Amulet club at her home Tuesday afternoon. An informal few hours of conversation and sewing was followed by an attractive tea hour.

Among special guests were Mrs. Kenneth Waters, Mrs. Al Adolphson, Mrs. Joseph Schur and Mrs. Ted Endicott. Members present were Mrs. Oliver Huston, Mrs. Kathryn Corey, Mrs. A. J. Wheaton, Mrs. V. A. Douglas, Mrs. M. Panek, Mrs. R. R. Boardman, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Karl Emmons, Mrs. H. R. White and Mrs. Viesko.

Mrs. H. R. White will be hostess to the group in two weeks.

Birthday Occasions Surprise Party

The birthday of Miss Viola Haack was the inspiration for a happy birthday surprise party at the apartment of Mrs. Mildred Lenoir, Tuesday night.

The evening was delightfully spent in informal conversation, and cards. Before the late coffee hour a handkerchief shower complimented the honor guest.

Present to compliment Miss Haack were Mrs. Lenoir, Olga Larson, Daisy O'Brien, Grace Golden, Natalie Spandler, Elizabeth Barnett and Juanita Hald.

Shaw — About 50 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaefer, Saturday evening where a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Molly Schaefer who will be married September 27 to Joseph Schwint of Jordan. The marriage will take place at the Immaculate Conception church at Shaw. The bride-to-be received many beautiful and useful presents.

Bethany — Mrs. Frank Hubbs was a recent hostess at an afternoon of bridge to a group of friends from Silverton. Present were Mrs. A. W. Kiebs, Mrs. G. L. McDonald, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. Hugh Range, Mrs. Theodore Lorenzon, Mrs. Charles Hartman, Mrs. Len Madsen, Mrs. Harold Lamb, Mrs. James Hollingsworth, Mrs. Elgin McCleary and Mrs. T. Olsen.

Miss Waters is Honored Guest

Miss Elizabeth Waters was the guest of honor for an attractive bridge tea at the David Wright home with Miss Eleanor and Miss Eloise Wright as hostesses Tuesday afternoon.

At the tea hour Miss Catherine Corey and Mrs. David Wright assisted the hostesses at the tea hour.

Guests in compliment to the Boston visitor included Mrs. Howard Berry of Portland, Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Viola Crozier, Mrs. Marvin Headrick, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Miss Esther Homer, Mrs. Frank Shaffer, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Kathryn Corey, Miss Billie Cupper, Miss Jean Wilson and Miss Ruth Fick. Additional guests for the tea hour were Miss Greta Rinehard, Miss Ruthita Moffett, Miss Lois Lutz and Miss Mary Cupper.

New Breakfast Club Discussed

A new women's organization is under heavy discussion and effort to culminate the day into an organized group will be made Tuesday morning at which time the women of the Credit association will meet at 7 o'clock in the Masonic temple.

It is the aim to create a regular "Women's Breakfast" club such as the Portland credit women enjoy. Mrs. Edith Shaw, president of the Portland club, will be present to talk to the group.

Sublimity — A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Kremer Sunday night, for an evening of card playing and later lunch was served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Pete Etzel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hendricks and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Baker and son Harold; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hendricks and daughters, Margaret and Edna, Clarence Hendricks, Louis and Veronica Hendricks, and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Kremer and sons, Vincent and Harold.
