

100 CITIZENS WILL GREET DELEGATION

Service Clubs Name men to Welcome Eugene Group Coming to Fair

When Eugene's state fair delegation, due to arrive here at 10 o'clock Monday morning in 14 coaches, leaves the train, it will be greeted by a crowd of 100 or more of Salem citizens, representatives of local civic organizations. Plans for greeting the Eugene crowd, which will stage a parade on the downtown streets before going to the fairgrounds, are being completed by W. M. Hamilton, chairman of the local chamber of commerce fair committee.

"Eugene is showing great interest in the fair this year, and is sending an unusually large delegation, including three bands and other special features and it is fitting that Salem should pay the visitors courtesy of a proper reception," Hamilton said in announcing plans to receive the Lane county group.

Mr. Hamilton has asked each service club and civic group in town to delegate 10 or 12 men to join the reception committee of a hundred persons, and already Rotary and Lions clubs have appointed their representatives. Cherrians and Kiwanis clubs are expected to name their delegates today, and other clubs will do so later this week.

Chairman Hamilton announces the following appointments from Rotary and Lions clubs on the reception committee:

Rotary—V. P. McNamara, chairman, W. M. Hamilton, C. P. Bishop, J. E. Blinckhorn, Irving Smith, C. F. Brethaupt, J. T. Delaney, W. B. Miner, F. G. Decker, R. E. Lee Steiner, R. R. Boardman, A. A. Gueffroy, E. A. Gueffroy, B. F. Pound, G. A. Sprague, F. D. Thielson, Charles McElhinney, Eric Butler, W. T. Jenks, R. J. Hendricks, Carl Abrams, W. L. Phillips, B. E. Sisson, C. E. Wilson, W. H. Dancy and C. A. Howard.

FASCIST GOVERNMENT URGED

PREMIER BENITO MUSSOLINI

Not a good five-cent cigar, but a leader of the calibre of Italy's Duce is what this country needs just now, according to the sage of Malden-Hudson, N. Y., otherwise Fourniey Bigelow, author, historian and brilliant controversialist, who recently celebrated his 77th birthday. Mr. Bigelow, a son of John Bigelow, United States Minister to France under President Abraham Lincoln, is a great admirer of Italy's strong man and a close friend of the former Kaiser of Germany, with whom he went to school at Potsdam. He believes that the ex-Kaiser and Benito Mussolini are two of the greatest rulers of modern times. However, his suggestion for an American dictatorship may be treated in the light of a Shavian joke, for an America at the mercy of a dictator would no longer be the America whose proudest boast is freedom. Bigelow's friendship with the former ruler of Germany was ruptured by the World War, the blame for which the sage of Malden laid on Germany's doorstep in a book which he authored in 1925, entitled "Seventy Summers." The ex-Kaiser issued a vigorous denial of Bigelow's charges from his retreat at Doorn, Holland, and in 1930 the school friends were reunited when Bigelow visited the exiled ruler and helped him saw his logs. Incidentally, Bigelow is confident that the Hohenzollerns will be back at the head of German affairs in the near future.

Grains Run Beyond 1931; Still Coming

MONMOUTH, Sept. 21.—"Grain is still rolling into the Monmouth Cooperative warehouse, and is running over the 1931 intake," says F. E. Murdock warehouse manager. "By the last of August we doubted that our tonnage this year would equal that of last season, but a tremendous amount of grain has been delivered since Sept. 1. In fact the harvest has dragged unusually this year."

Wheat is about equalling the 1931 crop here, with 30,000 bushels already in storage. White oats are equal to the amount harvested last year; but gray oats are short, both in quantity and quality. However, the vetch harvest is double that of 1931, and that helped to even up the tonnage score, and even lap it over last year's record.

The season seems to have been favorable for corn, with many farmers reporting small fields of excellent production which is ripening evenly. Potatoes are not believed to be holding their own this year for quantity. Some local growers report rather meager returns throughout this section.

tee. The purchase of feeds for winter was discussed.

Word has been received here of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Higbee of Tillamook. He has been named Dwight. Mr. Higbee was professor of the old Riverview high school many years ago.

Miss Lucille Sommer started her school at Griggs station Monday with 11 pupils, and Mrs. Glenn Phillip started the Mountain View school, also with 11 pupils. The Riverview and Oakview schools also opened Monday with a good attendance.

HANNA WINS BULL FIGHT; LAD SAVED

WALDO HILLS, Sept. 21.—John W. Hanna, dairyman of the Evergreen district, engaged in a bull fight a few days ago that called forth no protests, was given no advance publicity, but which he feels sure would entitle him to a prominent place on the state fair program.

Mr. Hanna had just arrived home from Salem when he heard the frightened screams of his two young visiting nieces. On locating the children he saw his 27-month-old son, Ronald, forced against the side of the barn by a young bull. Running to the scene he caught the animal by the horns but was thrown to the ground.

Jumping to his feet he kicked at the animal, driving it far enough back to reach a large stick with which he drove it off until he could climb the fence with the child. At no time did the little lad utter a cry, seeming to be paralyzed. While badly bruised and suffering a few cuts, Ronald is as happy as ever.

VanCleave's to Move to Farm At Hayesville

CENTRAL HOWELL, Sept. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Vernon VanCleave have started their children Merle and Edris to school in the Hayesville community, where they own a small acreage to which they will move shortly.

The Goplerud place where the VanCleave's have lived for several years will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Sannerud from Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Clark have bought a small acreage from P. Steffen, Mrs. Clark's father, and have started building a home on it.

HOP HARVEST AT EVERGREEN ENDS

Kuenzi's Knee Operation Successful; Rue Leaves For School

WALDO HILLS, Sept. 21.—Hop picking in the Evergreen district was finished Tuesday. This district is well known for its numerous yards and the splendid quality of hops raised. This year's crop falls below the average, however, but prices are slightly better.

Edison Kuenzi is at the R. H. Henrich home for a knee operation. He injured the muscle in his knee and for a time his doctor feared the young man would lose his leg.

Virginia Scriber, who spent last year in Washington going to school is now at the home of Mrs. G. Harris Thompson on the Garden road and is attending Silverton high where she is a junior.

Le Roy Rue left Tuesday noon for Minneapolis to enter Augsburg Seminary where he will take a three years theological course.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Whidden, who live on the Mrs. Della Cook place, left Saturday morning accompanied by Mr. Whidden's aunt Mrs. S. J. Comstock of Silverton for Yakima, Wn. Mr. Whidden and Mrs. Comstock will return this week but Mrs. Whidden will stay in the northern city where she will represent a dress company for a few weeks.

53 Years of Wedded Life Celebrated

MONMOUTH, Sept. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cummins of Monmouth celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary at their home Monday. They were married Sept. 16, 1879, in The Dalles, and made their first home on a farm near that city.

On Feb. 15, 1898—the date the battleship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor—Mr. Cummins sold their farm, and they soon set out for southern Oregon with a team and wagon. After some changing about they settled in Polk county, and since 1908 have lived at Monmouth.

Mrs. Cummins, who was Miss Olive Hawn, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hawn, was born in Yamhill county, Nov. 17, 1855. That year her father and two brothers fought in the Indian wars of Oregon. She recalls that she was 10 years old when the Civil war ended, and money then had small purchasing power.

Mr. Cummins was born Feb. 25, 1847, in Platt county, Mo., and crossed the plains with his parents when five years old. He spent his childhood at Kings Valley in Polk county. At an early age he began driving a freight team, and during the Indian uprising's freighted merchandise from valley points to eastern Oregon forts.

MARIAN, Sept. 21.—At the meeting of the Marlan Farmers union Friday night a motion was made and carried to send out a questionnaire to each candidate seeking office in November.

A good many from Marlan union attended the West Stayton festival Saturday. The one feature of the Marlan booth attracting the most attention was the large hornets nest, procured and presented by Carl Olson.

The Marlan school opened Sept. 19 with an enrollment of 64 pupils. This is a larger number than last year, and should this number be increased as the school year advances, another teacher will be added.

TRAGEDY

An investigator is shown examining the concrete crypt where the body of Mrs. Edith du Bois was found in the Summer home of her husband near Great Herring Pond, Plymouth, Mass. The discovery was made just a few hours after her husband, Charles E. du Bois, New York jeweler, had fatally shot himself in Quincy, Mass.

MRS. ALLEN HEADS LEGION AUXILIARY

STAYTON, Sept. 21.—Members of the Stayton Legion Auxiliary went up to Lyons Monday night where they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Thelma Surry. Those going from here were Mesdames Flossie Pounds, Eva Humphreys, Katie Etzel, Evelyn Jordan, Crystal Miller, Florence Adams and Thesa Duncan. Besides the hostess, others present were Mrs. Ida Fleetwood, Mill City, and Mrs. Beatrice Hyatt, and Bertha Allen, Lyons.

Mrs. Eva Humphreys gave a report from the National convention, where she went as delegate. The organization also elected officers for the coming year as follows: Bertha Allen, president; Ida Fleetwood, first vice president; Thesa Duncan, second vice president; Beatrice Hyatt, secretary; Thelma Surry, treasurer and Florence Adams, chaplain.

Officers will be installed at the next regular meeting the second Monday in October. The installation will be held at the Community club house here and it is hoped that Mrs. Dorothy Akin, of Dallas may be able to attend as installing officer.

The remainder of the evening was spent tying a quilt. Each member had made a block of pastel shades of print, and these blocks had been set together with rose and white, making a very pleasant combination. This quilt, along with two others the local auxiliary will make, will be sent to Portland, for distribution to needy ex-veterans families.

"SHOW ME THE WAY TO GO HOME"

While conducting the famous investigation into the city government of New York, Judge Samuel Seabury proved he knew his way about. But in London it is a different matter and the Grand Inquisitor must ask directions from a Lun'on bobby. The Judge, who was primarily responsible for the resignation of Mayor Walker, denied he intended to run for the office vacated by the popular Jimmy.

Enrollment at High School is 1316; Growing

Senior high school registration jumped to 1316 yesterday, the first day of regular classes. Principal Fred Wolf announced. That still more students will enroll is expected because the principal holds 230 registration cards made out by students who have not yet appeared at the school.

Enrollment at Leslie junior high yesterday reached 403, 20 more than on the first day of school. Reports from other schools were not to be made to the superintendent until tomorrow.

COURT REFUSES TO ACT, EXPENSE ITEM

The state supreme court yesterday refused to assume original jurisdiction of the filing of candidate's expense accounts and publication of the voters' pamphlet in the city of Portland.

The request was made by John H. Lewis, candidate for city commissioner of Portland, who said he had been advised that George R. Funk, auditor, would refuse to accept his expense account or his argument for publication in the pamphlet.

Lewis declared that while the Portland city charter provides that expense accounts shall be filed by candidates for city office, such a practice has not been followed in the past.

The supreme court suggested that Lewis launch a mandamus proceeding in the circuit court which was in a better position to expedite the proceeding than the supreme court.

Opening Deer Season Draws Males of Suver

SUVER, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Clarence Ritchey is carrying mail out of Suver this week while Harry Kester is deer hunting.

Lloyd Flickinger and son Alford have also gone on a deer hunt.

Mrs. Anna Brown returned home Sunday after a week's visit with her son Earl Brown and family of Airlie. Mrs. Katherine Foxe of Keeno spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Kester, near here.

Doris Conger and Jane Goodale entered Oregon State college at Corvallis Monday. They graduated from Corvallis high school last term.

BREAKS SILENCE WITH A BUGLE

Tooting his horn as loud as anyone else, former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, is shown as he entered into the spirit of the thing at Coney Island's Mardi Gras. It was Fireman's Night, which accounts for Al's chapeau. Though still silent on his intentions regarding the coming Presidential campaign, the "Happy Warrior" made plenty of noise with his little trumpet.

OUTLAW OF THE JUNGLE

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the great animal painter, Paul Bransom... inspired by the leopard's fierce fighting power and relentless hunt for prey which makes him the terror of every beast of the African jungle.

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTES

"IT'S TOASTED"

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
