

Ducks Win Another, Stars Stay Right on Their Heels

RACE REMAINS AT STATUS QUO

Angels Bobble Three Times And Portland Puts on Several Rallies

CONF. LEAGUE

W. L. Pet.	W. L. Pet.
Portland 102 75 576	Los A. 90 87 508
Holy. 99 78 559	Seattle 86 88 494
S.F. 92 83 532	Oakland 77 98 440
Sac. 92 85 526	Mission 68 118 375

PORLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Portland defeated Los Angeles, 8 to 5, in tonight's ball game here and managed to retain its three-game first place lead over Hollywood.

The Ducks, apparently feeling their first place margin was none too large, stepped out in the first inning to bring in three runs. They added one in the third, two in the fourth, one in the fifth and one in the seventh, while the best the Angels could do was two in the fourth and three in the seventh.

Home run honors were even for the teams, Johnson and Ogleby bringing in one each, with none on.

Los Angeles 5 8 3
Portland 8 11 0
Montreal, Stitzel and Campbell; Koupak and Fitzpatrick.

Stars Keep Coming

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Hollywood kept in the race for the Pacific coast league baseball pennant tonight by defeating Oakland 4 to 1, behind the tight pitching of Shellenback, who chalked up his 24th victory.

Butch Fieber started strong for Oakland, but the Stars got him intermittently and by the sixth inning, with four runs against him, Fieber retired.

Oakland 1 8 2
Hollywood 4 10 1
Fieber, Solonais and Raimondi; Shellenback and Bassler.

Suds Even Series

SEATTLE, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Seattle Indians had the better of a free hitting Pacific coast baseball game here today to nose out San Francisco 9 to 6 and even the series one all.

The hits were about even, but the Indians bunched six of them in the second to chase across four counters and take a big lead. They were blanked only in the sixth and seventh. Donovan, the visitor's first sacker homered in the third, but there was no one on.

San Francisco 6 13 1
Seattle 9 14 2
Stine, Douglas and Brenzel; Haid and Cox.

Solons Win Another

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Sacramento defeated the Missions 9 to 6 today, making it two straight games over the Reds. A 4-run rally in the ninth enlivened the game. The Solons collected 13 bingles off Osborne and Johnson while Vinci allowed 11.

Sacramento 9 13 0
Missions 6 11 2
Vinci and Woodall; Osborne, Johnson and Hoffmann.

ATHLETIC SCHEDULE STARTS SOON AT Y

The young men's tumbling classes at the Y. M. C. A. will open Monday night, according to Bob Boardman, physical instructor. Classes will be led by Fred Smith and a Mr. Stevenson of Portland. Stevenson for the past few years has been in charge of tumbling in Portland. Classes will be held every Monday from 7 to 8 p.m.

The diving team under Fred Paul will also take the course in tumbling, and will practice from 8 to 9 o'clock Mondays. Tumbling practice will be an asset to the divers, as both sports come under the same category.

The junior lifesaving team will meet every Friday from 4:15 to 5 p.m. in the Y. tank with Gus Moore, boys' secretary, as instructor. Bob Needham of the University of Oregon will lead the speed swimming team which will practice from 7 to 8 Monday nights.

Wrestling classes will be under Don Hendrie, who won the lightweight championship of the northwest in the high school tournament last year. The time for these classes has not yet been scheduled. Clyde Grewell will continue in the position he held last year as boxing leader. He was formerly of the Multnomah club, Portland.

No regular classes will be held next Wednesday, Salem day at the state fair.

Normal Gridiron Squad Will Fly To Play at Reno

Coach Larry Wolfe and his Oregon Normal school football squad will take off in two tri-motor planes from the Salem airport at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning, headed for Reno, Nev., where the Wolves will meet the University of Nevada eleven Saturday afternoon. The grididers will also make the return trip by air.

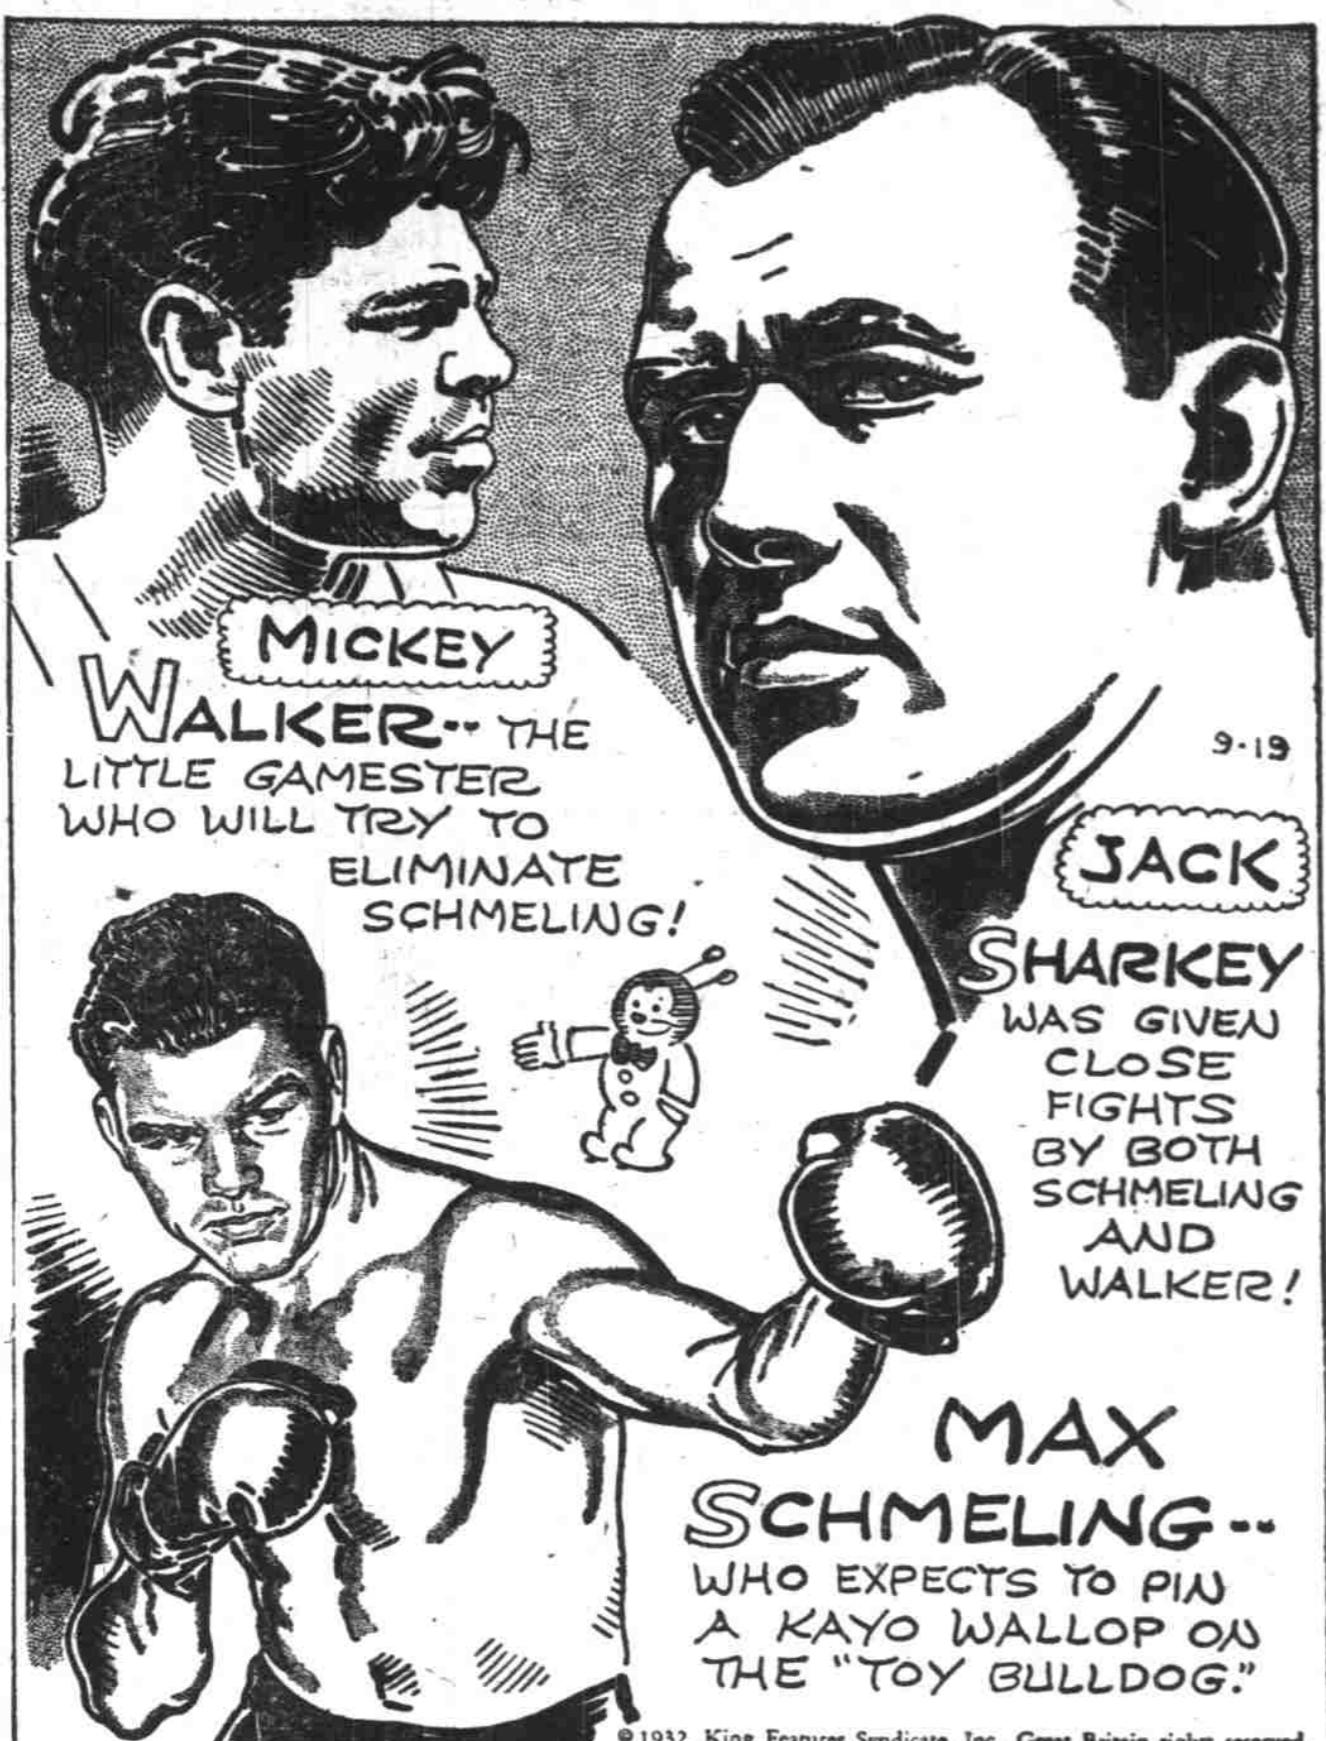

So far as is known here this will be the first airplane jaunt ever taken by an entire football squad.

24 Gervais Grid Candidates Out; Opener is 30th

GERVAIS, Sept. 21—Athletics are getting under way at the high

The Battle of the Big "Ifs"

By HARDIN BURNLEY

© 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.

In the Sunken Bowl at Long Island City, N.Y., Max Schmeling, erstwhile champion of the world, and little Mickey Walker "Toy Bulldog" of New Jersey, clash in a match to decide who will meet Jack Sharkey for the heavyweight title next June.

The affair will be over the fifteen-round route, and don't think for a moment that Herr Maxie of Germany, isn't taking a serious chance with his laurels as No. 1 man of the contenders.

Maxie could have calmly remained in distant Germany with his ale and kraut, secure in the knowledge that Master Sharkey would not meet him again next year.

There was nobody in sight to disturb his place as logical contender. Big Camera is moving along, but without causing much excitement. Ernie Schaaf was slowly but surely pushing himself out of the picture (the job being finished by Maxie Baer just a week or so ago). Walker threatened, but was not being taken too seriously. All in all it seems that the No. 1 place was safe for Schmeling.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then regains the title from Sharkey he will be

entitled to some credit for accepting this Walker match. He says it is all part of his and Manager Jacob's plan to prove that he is a real fighter. It may be costly.

Maxie, while nearing the end of the pugilistic trail, is still a tough customer. He is a good pugilist and from New Jersey has just turned 31 and hasn't been boxing nearly thirteen years. In that time he has squared off against the best in four divisions, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight, winning the title in the first two. Should Maxie defeat Schmeling and then go on to a victory over Sharkey he will be the smallest man that ever held the heavyweight championship in modernistic history. And he will be the second oldest fighter to win the title. Bob Fitzsimmons was 35 when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City.

There is another "if" connected with this bout. If Schmeling defeats Walker and then reg