PROGRAM MONDAY

Monday—Eugene Day—Lane county day—Opening day—Boys' and girls' free day—Family bargain day. Entire family and car admitted for $1. Boys and girls of high school age or under admitted free. Monday is one day you ought not to miss. Fair starts officially with down-town parade and reception sponsored by the Salem chamber of commerce. Lane county delegation arrives down town by special train, carrying four bands and Lane county talent to furnish the program for the day. First official appearance of the Queen of the Rodeo and princesses. BANDS PLAYING TODAY: Seventy-five piece University band. Eugene chamber of commerce band. I. O. O. F. band of Eugene, Oregon Loggers from Lane county, Eugene's Boy Scout band, Chemawa Indian school band. OTHER NUMBERS in addition to bands and band concerts. Announcer: Crosby Evans. Poole quartette—Blackface artists. Style show and one-ton ballet, directed by Dr. W. E. Buchanan, Jr. (This act from Westfir, Lane county, 8 men weighing one ton, appear in style show and novelty costume dances.) "REX" King of the Cantines, and his trainer, Bobby Christensen, Log Chopping Contest—Westfir vs. Springfield. (A battle of double-bit-axes to settle a long-standing feud between these two logging communities to determine who can chop a two-foot log the fastest.) Log Sawing Contest—Oakridge vs. Westfir. (This contest will settle it for all time between these two towns. How many seconds to buck a two-foot log? Vernon Russell, Tap Dancer. Musical program by Mr. and Mrs. Rex Underwood. University of Oregon Band Concert at 4 p. m. in Agricultural Building. Chemawa Indian School Musical Students. GENERAL PROGRAM FOR THE DAY: Down-town parade at 10:30. Eugene and Lane county program 11:30 to 2—Strawberry Rodeo. Rodeo 3 to 4 free at grandstand. Concert by University band 4 p. m. in Agricultural building. Night stampede in stadium at 7 p. m. (Note: On Monday the night show starts an hour earlier to permit the Lane county delegation to take the train home at 9:15. Reserve afternoon show and night show seats now for Monday. Dial 9187.
