

BOOSTER NIGHT GREAT SUCCESS

For Silverton Grange; Brown, Gunderson, Rots-vold Speakers

SILVERTON, Sept. 24.—The Silverton grange held its annual booster meeting Friday night at the M. W. A. hall at Silverton with Ed Overlund in the chair as master and Mrs. Karl Haberly as lecturer. A particularly good program had been arranged for the evening. Arthur Brown, district deputy, was present and spoke on the achievements of the grange. M. G. Gunderson, state chairman of the agricultural committee, spoke on his organization. Martin Rostvold, state chairman of cooperative marketing, gave an interesting talk describing his association. This was followed by a discussion on what to do to assure agricultural prosperity in America. The discussion was led by George Isrealson, manager of the Warehouse Service corporation at Silverton.

Mrs. George Vinton of the North Howell grange was present and spoke briefly of the booster meeting planned by her grange. James Darby, master of the Union Hill grange, gave an interesting talk on agricultural conditions. Jabo Stolker of the Silverton grange spoke briefly on matters coming up for election. The measures to be voted on in November will be taken up more fully at the October meeting, it was announced.

At the social program community singing, led by George Isrealson and accompanied by Mrs. Edson Comstock, was enjoyed; a reading was given by Ed Overlund; Mrs. Comstock and Mr. Isrealson gave a piano and baritone horn duet, and Raymond Hall, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall, sang a solo. Following the meeting, a supper was served and a social hour of conversation enjoyed.

Kiddies Make Display For Fair Booths

HAYESVILLE, Sept. 23.—The Hayesville Sunday school is preparing two displays to be put in the Hayesville district Sunday school booth at the state fair this year.

Some children are portraying "Jacob's Dream" and the Japanese children are using "Jesus at the Well" as their subject. Each year the Sunday school booth attracts many visitors and great interest is taken in selecting the subjects for portrayal.

Miss Ida Denny returned Tuesday night from a three weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Armstrong, at Baker. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schroder are the proud parents of a baby girl born September 10, and named Grace Aileen. Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Eggen and two children, Evelyn and Alice, have moved from Seattle onto the Zimmerman place on the Chemawa road.

Miss Beulah Roth of Burlington, Ia., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. L. Moore.

LIBERTY CHILDREN GET FAIR DAY OFF

LIBERTY, Sept. 24.—According to A. V. Meyers, principal, school will be dismissed all day Wednesday, Salem day at the fair. The local team 4-H team members are George Lansing, Elbert Jones and Fred Murhammer. They are alternates to Silverton and Mt. Angel in the stock judging fair team.

With the addition of the new volumes just arrived for the school library the number of books now totals 981.

Classes outside the primary departments have been started out upon a departmental basis. The new teacher, Miss Shogren, is to have charge of the music in addition to her third and fourth grade classes. In the two higher grade rooms Mr. Meyers will teach geography, arithmetic, history and civics. Miss Hummel is to teach art, hygiene, English, reading and spelling. The complete schedule has as yet not been perfected. Miss Berndt again has charge of the library, the school books and the first and second grades.

Orchestra and Choir Started By M. E. Group

INDEPENDENCE, Sept. 24.—The Methodist church is starting fall activities by establishing a choir and an orchestra. Judge McIntosh is to be director of the choir and Mrs. Taylor pianist.

Those who will be in the orchestra are: violins, Clarence Quartier, Fay Mort, and Margaret Eddy. Cellos, O. A. Kreamer. Others will be added later. Singers will be Melvin Kelley, Robert Kelley, Ed Kelley, Rev. Aschenbrenner, Mrs. Ed Kelley, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Lottie McIntosh, Mrs. Byers, Blanche Baker, Eva Bullis, Grace Raymond, Ruth Raymond, and Mrs. O. A. Kreamer.

Mrs. Siegmund, May Irvine Hurt

JEFFERSON, Sept. 24.—Mrs. J. C. Siegmund, wife of the county judge, and Mrs. May Irvine of Woodburn sustained cuts and bruises early this morning when their car was sideswiped by a truck. The women's car went into the ditch about five miles south. They were returning from Corvallis.

Kiwians Talk on Ambitions; Only 2 Out of 15 Hit Mark

DALLAS, Sept. 24.—Members of the local Kiwanis club enjoyed an impromptu entertainment at their regular meeting Friday noon when the president called upon each member present to give a three-minute talk. Members were to tell of their boyhood ambitions and whether or not they attained them.

Only two of the 14 present reached the goal planned for themselves. These were C. L. Crider, local merchant, and G. W. Bruce, minister of the local Methodist church. Five desired to become doctors, while others wished to become locomotive engineers, teamsters and seamen. Most of them stated that the lines of business they were now following were the result of chance.

HIGHER PRUNE RATE MAY CHECK DRIERS

SUNNYSIDE, Sept. 24.—Prune driers are now running to capacity but the better price being offered for the green prunes may make a difference in the length of drying season. Prunes have ripened slow and drying will continue through next week.

Fritz Fellers will finish up threshing with a small crop of barley for Taylor's and Beardsley's. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Barnett are returning to Corvallis after a vacation of two months. Mr. Barnett will take up his research work at the agricultural college.

School Enrolls 30

The Sunnyside school opened Monday morning, September 19, with 30 pupils enrolled and more to follow. Mrs. Jessie L. Rains as principal is beginning her second year in this district. Her vacation was spent at the Oregon Normal school where she graduated in August. Miss Bess Jones comes from Gold Beach, Curry county, where she has taught the past five years. Miss Jones taught here several years ago. New first graders are Anabel Whelan, Robertta Porter and Bruce Taylor. Four of last year's graduates are attending Leslie Junior high. Evelyn Chandler, Isabel Johnson, Chester Tucker and Lloyd Brown.

BIRTCHEK SPEAKER FOR DISTRICT MEET

TURNER, Sept. 24.—The Santiam district Sunday school convention will meet Sunday, October 2, at the Turner Christian church. The theme for the day will be "Reconsecration."

Sunday school at 10 o'clock will be preceded by a short song service. At 11 there will be a piano solo by Kathryn Hawk and Glenn Garner will give a guitar solo, followed by the morning sermon by Rev. E. J. Glstrap. A basket dinner will be served at noon in the dining room, followed by song service at 1:30 and devotions led by Rev. N. Sherman Hawk.

Glenn McClellan will lead a young people's service at 2 o'clock. At 2:45, a business meeting, followed by the Gideon quartet; address at 3:15 by Rev. Grover Birtchet of Salem Presbyterian church. Dr. H. C. Epley will be song leader. C. S. Jordan is president and Dale Monroe secretary-treasurer.

Worms Promise Mild Weather

HAYESVILLE, Sept. 24.—This district experienced its first frost of the season Tuesday night. The most noticeable damage was done to the cucumbers and pumpkins. The woolly worms are usually right in predicting the weather for the coming winter, and those who read their signs say the winter will be mild.
