ATTENDANCE GAINS AT SCOTTS MILLS

39 Pupils in High and 89 In Grades With More Yet to Enroll

SCOTTS MILLS, Sept. 28.—Scotts Mills school started Monday morning with an increase in attendance and more yet to enroll.

There were 39 high school pupils, and 89 in the grades with 16 beginners and 39 in Miss Athy's room, more seats having to be added. There are three new teachers this year. They are Harold Wynd who teaches in the high school and is athletic coach; Mrs. Hazel Frazier, primary teacher and Miss Athy, intermediate teacher, besides Miss Ruth Boyce, seventh and eighth grades. Miss Elsie Wagini, high school and girls' coach. Mrs. Bethel Taylor is principal.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gouthier and family who have been working near Grants Pass this summer returned home Saturday so the children would be ready for school.

Visits From Frisco Mrs. Florence Perdu of San Francisco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Groshong. Mrs. Perdu has been in New Jersey during the summer.

Charles Crites was taken to a hospital in Oregon City on Tuesday, suffering from blood poisoning in his hand. He mashed his hand, then ran a wire in it, which caused the poison. He also has a touch of flu.

Mrs. Marie Phillips, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Maud Myers and her brother La Noll Myers, the past two weeks, left for Salem Sunday, where she is employed in the Marion hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sheperd and family moved a few days ago, to a ranch six miles south of Salem in the Ankeny Hill district.

BOYS EXHIBIT STOCK MOUNTAIN VIEW, Sept. 28.—Members of the local boys' 4-H club represented at the fair are Roy Tansey and James Smart, each of whom is exhibiting a calf. Kenneth Jennings, who lives on the Applewhite place, "Bonnie Briar," and specializes in pure bred poultry, is exhibiting a pen of fancy Rhode Island Reds.

KNIFE TOSSER

Steve Clemente gives one of the thrilling and most skillful acts in the Night Stampede program every night this week in the stadium at the Oregon State Fair. He is a knife-thrower, battle-axe thrower, or what have you? He doubles for famous movie stars and always kills his man on the screen—without hurting him.

SIZING UP OREGON ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Sept. 27.—Frank Withers, whose home is in Golden City, Mo., is at the home of his brother, Adrian Withers. He expects to remain long enough to form a permanent opinion of western Oregon, probably all winter.

4-H Garden Exhibit This Year One of Largest Yet; Numerous Awards Listed

The 4-H garden exhibit is one of the largest that has ever been held, and Judge Bouquet of Oregon State college who acted as judge pronounced this exhibit to be of very good quality. ## VIGILANTES AVERT ROBBERY OF BANK

VALIANT, Okla., Sept. 28.—(AP)—Vigilantes' gunfire halted a bank robbery here today and resulted in the capture of three alleged robbers, but an attractive young woman accomplice who waited in an automobile outside of the bank, escaped on foot.

At Vian, Okla., however, two robbers were more successful. They kidnaped R. W. Armstrong, Vian state bank president, and escaped with $6,200, all the bank's funds. Armstrong was released unharmed a half mile west of Vian.

The three men captured here were identified as Walker Pretty, Brokenbow, Okla., wounded by flying glass, Ralph Smith of Glover, Okla., and W. W. Matlock of Garvin, Okla.

They surrendered to S. P. Hackworth, vice president of the bank, after vigilantes had opened fire from across the street.

NAVY BALLOON IS APPARENT WINNER

BASEL, Switzerland, Sept. 28.—(AP)—The U. S. Navy balloon was tentatively declared winner of the James Gordon Bennett cup race tonight and "second place was accorded the other American entry, "Goodyear No. 8."

The navy bag, carrying Commander T. G. W. Settle and Wilfred Bushnell, was credited with exceeding the distance of the Goodyear entry, with W. T. Van Orman and R. J. Blair aboard, by the 153 kilometers (about 91 miles). The French entry, "Petit Mousse" was third and the Polish "Polonia" fourth. The race began from here Sunday.
