Corn Strikes Bottom Unequalled in Many Years

CHICAGO, Sept. 29-(AP)-Dragged down by a fall in Winnipeg prices putting Canadian wheat below 50 cents the first time this season, all grain values here weakened today.

A collapse of the corn market carried every delivery of corn to bottom quotations unequaled in years. The drop in corn values was in the face of news that a delegation of Chicago grain men had called on President Hoover today regarding use of Reconstruction Finance corporation funds to facilitate grain exports, corn in particular. Wheat closed unsettled %-1 1/4

NEW YORK, Sept. 29-(AP)-Soggy commodity markets pro-

The early rally carried several leaders up a point, but it lacked enthusiasm. Railway equipment issues provided a small flurry based on prospects of larger orders through reconditioning of locomotives and cars, and with and without Reconstruction Finance corporation aid. Steel equities, however, did little, and sagged with the general letdown in values. U. S. Steel was off around 2 net. Allied and DuPont, showed larger losses.

American Telephone, given momentary aid by gossip that the company's loss of connections had shown a sharp but seasonal contraction, also yielded 2 points. Farm implement issues lost courage at the sight of lower wheat prices. Case dipped more than 3. Rails were quiet. Union Pacific rallied 2 and then slumped 3 net. Coppers eased on news of a lower foreign price.

Sales reached 1,336,430 shares.

Bits-for Breakfast

(Continued from Page 4) 79th. If there is a sincere doubter, whose interest has any bearing on what should be the proper succession of dates, the Bits man will be plesed to go all over the proofs once more, and make it conclusive. But what has already been found, and published, ought to settle that matter.

This has all been commendation highly deserved, as any loyal Salemite will stoutly aver. But how many of our people realize he full extent of the sacrifices the 12:20 individual members of our drum corps have made-not this year only, but through a course of ming up days on end given to practice, and to participation in public events, in the line of seifimposed civic duty. At Portland the corps helped not only in the great and colorful parade, but it was called upon to appear in many other functions, and re-sponded whole heartedly. Not the least of these was playing for the newsreels, which are being and vided too soft a footing for stocks | will be shown in movie houses all today and prices relapsed after a around the world, giving Salem feeble advance in the first half free advertising the value of which can scarcely be computed in terms of mere dollars. 2 4 4 The capital prize won at Portland was $1000. But no member got any of this money. It has gone for equipment and uniforms and such necessities.

How much, does the reader ruess, did each individual member of the corps get for participation in the Portland events?

He received $3.75. That was to include the cost of transportation, meals and other expenses. Some drove their own cars, and took other members with them. Some of course were accompanied by their wives and families.

But not one of them spent as little as $3.75 on the trip. The rest came out of his own pocket, And almost every member was obliged to sacrifice valuable time from his business or his job.

1 1 1 Not a single member has complained or will be heard to bewaif the sacrifice. This is written merely as a note of appreciation for such splendid sportsmanship, for such sacrificial service for city, community, state and country.
