Bridge Club is Entertained

Mrs. Ted L. Kuhns entertained Thursday at her home in compliment to members of her club. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and the afternoon hours were occupied with bridge.

Present were Mrs. James L. Scars, Mrs. Clifford Duce, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mrs. Lars Bergsvik, Mrs. Stanley Burgess, Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, Mrs. Leif Bergsvik and Mrs. Kuhns.

An attractive dessert luncheon and this followed by an afternoon of bridge was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Charles McElhinney Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Floyd Siegmund and Mrs. Alex Jones will be the next hostesses to the club at the Siegmund home. High scores for cards went to Mrs. Fred Dunnean. Additional guests were Mrs. Albert Gragg and Mrs. Livingston Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., have returned from an extended trip into Washington where Mr. McGilchrist visited Rotary orders. Wednesday was spent in Eugene and today Mr. and Mrs. McGilchrist will leave for Portland where they will visit with Miss Josephine McGilchrist over the weekend. Miss McGilchrist is attending St. Helen's hall.

Golden Wedding Celebrated in Portland

A golden wedding celebration of interest in Salem was that celebrated Wednesday evening in Portland honoring Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Poling. The event was jointly celebrated with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Luckel.

Marriage vows were renewed at the First Evangelical church Wednesday evening with Rev. G. L. Lovell officiating. Mrs. Poling and Mrs. Luckel each wore mulberry colored velvet gowns and corsages of orchids.

Yellow chrysanthemums, golden tapers, purple asters made the reception rooms of the church a delightful background for the reception which followed the marriage vows.

Those who assisted in serving were Miss Irene Good, Miss Barbara Jane Wood, both of Portland and from Salem Miss Kathleen Phelps, Miss Savilla Phelps, and Miss Joyce Phelps all five of whom are granddaughters of Dr. and Mrs. Poling.

Dr. and Mrs. Poling left Thursday with Dr. Dan Poling by plane for New York city where they will spend the next three months. Dr. Poling flew from the east to be present for the golden wedding events.

Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps was also present from Salem. North Howell—Complimenting Miss Lucille Waltman, whose marriage to Henry Haglan, was an event of September 29, a large number of neighbors and relatives were invited to the attractive home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waltman for a miscellaneous shower.

The guest list numbered over 60 and among those present were Mrs. Fred Beer, Mrs. Amy Beer, Mrs. R. H. Drake, Mabel Drake, Mrs. Leana Rand, Mrs. Belle Kurze, Mrs. Mildred York, Mrs. J. E. Brooks, Mrs. R. C. Ramsden and daughter, Mrs. Adam Wichter, Mrs. M. Milne, Mrs. Nellie Tuve, Mrs. J. Anderson, Mrs. Signa Woelke and daughter Margaret, Mrs. M. Mikkelsen, Jessie Coomler, Ada Mikkelsen, Alta Hall, Helen Wiesner, Mrs. C. E. Mellwain, Margaret Mikkelsen, Gladys Waltman, Luia Wiesner, Blanch Mellwain, Martha Vinton, Ruth Rickard, Adeline Schmidt, Helena Schmidt, Mrs. Sylvia Baughman, Mrs. Ewan Beals and daughter Bertha, Mrs. Evan Beals Jr., Ruby Stewart, Alice Jefferson, Margaret McCollum, Mrs. Lester Waltman and the hostess Mrs. J. E. Waltman.

The young couple will make their home for the present in a house on the Hartley and Craig farm in North Howell.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps will not be held Saturday because of the conflict with fair activities.

Joint Birthday Celebrated

Hubbard—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McArthur and children, Doris, David and Jerrell and Mrs. Waldo Brown and children, Betty, Boyd and Wallace, attended the celebration of the 67th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. David McArthur of New Era at the Warner grange hall. Their birthdays were also noted.

Mrs. McArthur was 89 years old Friday September 9, and Mr. McArthur will be 91 November 24. About 100 guests were seated at the large dinner table. A huge birthday cake graced the center of the table.

Michaelmas daisies, asters and autumn leaves were used for decorations.

The Woman's Relief corps of Oregon City and the G. A. R. were represented by about 20 men and women.

Among those appearing on the program were Mr. McArthur, who gave a brief account of Abraham Lincoln; Mrs. McArthur sang "Soldiers Going to War"; Howard Belton gave the main address stressing the long married life of the honored couple. Other numbers, solo and readings by members of the McArthur clan.

A picture of Lincoln was presented to the grange by Mr. and Mrs. McArthur.

Turner—Mrs. Earl S. Prather entertained with a party Tuesday afternoon for a group of young children, their mothers and several guests, in compliment to the first birthday of her daughter, Margaret Ann. A social hour was followed by the presentation of the large birthday cake by the wee maid's grandmother, Mrs. A. S. Prather. Mrs. T. T. Palmer assisted the hostess.

The guest list included Mrs. A. S. Prather, Mrs. H. S. Bond, Mrs. I. E. Putnam, Mrs. C. A. Bones, Mrs. T. T. Palmer and Peggy, Mrs. C. F. Standley and Carol Jean and Harold Dean, Mrs. Harvard Baker and Shirley and Melvin, Mrs. E. S. Bear and Eunice and Billy, and Mrs. Clifford Ensey and Gaylia of Aumsville, and the hostess, Mrs. Prather, and children, Sanford, Jr., and Margaret Ann.

Mrs. James Lester Gault of Corvallis, one of the leaders in musical circles in the state college city, was in Salem yesterday. Mrs. Gault was in charge of the musical program by Corvallis musicians at the arts pavilion at the state fair yesterday.

Garden Club Will Meet Monday

Much interest is being felt in the first meeting of the fall for the Salem Garden club which will take place at the chamber of commerce rooms Monday night beginning at 8 o'clock.

Ernest Inzer, new president for the year, and Mrs. Myron Van Eaton, new secretary, will take charge of the meeting, the business part of which will be mostly concerning plans for the coming season. The club meets monthly, the first Monday of each month.

The program is being enthusiastically anticipated. It will be a talk on the care and arrangement of cut flowers by Miss Irene Brothaupt, and her remarks will be illustrated by Miss Helen Breitbaup.

Anyone interested is invited to attend this lecture. Anyone desiring to join the Garden club may secure information by calling Mrs. W. E. Anderson.

Shaw—A double wedding was held at the Fred Schafer home Tuesday morning when Amelia Herbeck became the bride of Joe Schwindt and Catherine Lawinger became the bride of Frank Schafer. They were married at the Shaw Catholic church at 10 o'clock. Rev. Marcellone Maty performing the ceremony.

A reception was held at the Fred Schafer home where about 50 relatives and friends were present.

Miss Herbeck wore a white crepe dress with a long trailing veil held in place by a wreath. She carried white asters. Miss Rose Schwindt, sister of the groom, attended the bride, and wore a frock of pale green trimmed with silver. S. Axman acted as best man for Mr. Schwindt. They will make their home on the groom's farm in Jordan.

Miss Lawinger wore a pink dress with a long trailing veil and carried an arm bouquet of purple asters. Miss Madeline Sylvania, her bridesmaid, also wore pink. Mr. Schafer's best man was Mr. Waltymna, an uncle of the bride.

North Santiam—Mrs. L. C. Kiehl was pleasantly surprised Sunday when a group of relatives and friends came to spend the day—the occasion being her birthday anniversary. At the luncheon hour covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Knox and children, George and Wendel, Mr. and Mrs. John VanLydegraf and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Mills, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hammer and Lenore, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kethley, Willis Kethley, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kethley and Mary Lou and Betty Jo Kethley of this community.

Bethany—Mrs. Attie Lee was the inspiration of a party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Grinde, the affair being sponsored by the Pythian Sister group. Mrs. Lee will spend the winter at Forest Grove with Mrs. E. J. Maple.

Present at the farewell were Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Wanda Anderson, Mrs. J. C. Cooley, Mrs. L. C. Eastman, Mrs. Elmer Olson, Mrs. Gilbert Moser, Mrs. E. R. Ekman, Mrs. A. W. Kleob, Mrs. Oscar Storassli, Mrs. J. L. Stalker, Mrs. Fred Knight, Mrs. Joe Stayer, Mrs. J. F. Fishwood and Mrs. Grinde.

The Girls Friendly society of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet this afternoon between the hours of 4:15 and 5:30 o'clock for a social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Clara A. Lee, branch president.
