

TURNER TO BE HOST TO SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Santiam Union District to Hold its Convention Throughout day

TURNER, Sept. 30—The Santiam union district Sunday school convention will be held at the Christian church here Sunday with President C. S. Jordan presiding and Dr. H. C. Epley of Salem leading the singing. The program will be as follows: 9:45 a. m.—Song service and Sunday school. 11:00 a. m.—Morning service, instrumental solos by Kathryn Hawk and Glenn Garner of Turner, address by Rev. E. J. Gilstrap of the Christian church, communion service. 12:00 p. m.—Basket dinner. 1:30 p. m.—Song service, devotionals led by Rev. Hawk of Turner Methodist church. 2:00 p. m.—Young People's service in charge of Glenn McClellan, business meeting. 3:00 p. m.—Gideon quartet, afternoon address by Rev. G. C. Birchett of Salem Presbyterian church.

CHANGE IN MEETING TIME IS REPORTED

Dr. Emory W. Petticoard, pastor of the First Evangelical church, announces that beginning with Sunday night of October 2, all evening services will begin a half hour earlier, with Christian Endeavor 8:30 and the preaching at 7:30 p. m. These are busy days for Dr. Petticoard for on October 16 his congregation will hold an all day valley meeting. Rev. C. P. Gates, district superintendent of the Oregon and Washington conferences, will be one of the speakers to gather with this pastor. A basket dinner will be served at this time. This week Dr. Petticoard conducted a rally service at Sweet Home, later in this week he is attending the golden wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Poling, former pastor and wife of this church. Sunday afternoon on October 2, Dr. Petticoard will be the principal speaker in the afternoon rally program at the Albany Evangelical church, and on Monday night, October 3, will address the joint meeting of Christian Endeavors of the Portland district in the east side Evangelical church.

Missionary Day Program Sunday For Nazarenes

Missionary day is being observed in the church of the Nazarenes Sunday when Rev. Fletcher Galloway, pastor of the church delivers a missionary sermon and the Nazarene Young People's society gives a missionary program. Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Smith returned missionaries from China will be present at the services. Last week the Sunday school sent a Christmas box for Mrs. E. F. Poin, a missionary in South Africa. Rev. Galloway will speak tomorrow from the following subjects: 11 a. m. "The first foreign missionary and his methods," and at 7:30 p. m. "Will the world go on forever? If not, what? Alfred Schroeder has charge of the missionary program for the N. Y. P. S. He will be assisted by Greta Schotfield and Lois Smith. Special music will be given by the church choir.

Ross to Start Sermon Series On Revelation

Britton Ross, pastor of the First Baptist church will begin a series of sermons on the book of Revelation Sunday night at 7:30. For a number of years he has given close study of this wonderful prophecy from this chart. Mrs. Ross designed and painted this chart and it will be used for the first time Sunday night. This series of sermons will run through the fall, winter and spring.

ANDERSON LEADER Martin Anderson will lead the discussion at the regular Sunday evening meeting of the Young People's Forum of the First Methodist church. His topic will be "A Study of Religious Attitude." The hour of the Forum meeting has been changed from 6:30 to 8 o'clock.

First Baptist Church Marion and North Liberty Sts. Sunday Night 7:30 Hear BRITTON ROSS on THE BOOK OF REVELATION The Most Discussed Book in the Bible and to many the most Mysterious Book Mr. Ross will use a large hand painted chart the work of Mrs. Ross COME EARLY

SUNDAY in the Churches

SOUTH SALEM FRIENDS South Commercial at Washington street, school 10 a. m. rally day and promotion exercises with special program and musical numbers. Every member at meeting. 11 a. m. Dr. Lewis Pennington, president of Pacific college, will bring the message. Ladies' quartet and Prof. Williams G. Jones will sing. Reorganization of Young People's society of Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m. Business meeting and quarterly meeting. C. E. will both be present and speak. Twentieth anniversary service of South Salem Friends church. Dr. Pennington will again preach. There will also be messages of greeting from non-resident and former members and a story of the church. Ladies' quartet will sing.

LABRIE EVANGELICAL H. R. Schaeferman, pastor, 1181 Union street. Sabbath school 9:45. Church school 10 a. m. W. A. Starker, superintendent. Worship at 11, subject, "The Examining of the Lord's Supper." Midweek devotionals Thursday at 7:30. O. P. Epley in charge. Clear Lake service, 8:30. E. L. C. E. 7 p. m. Evening worship following young people's meeting, 8:30. Ladies' society, 9:30. Young People's church school 10 a. m. J. E. Walker, superintendent. E. L. C. E. 8:30, topic, "The Examining of the Lord's Supper." Change Business! Bible study and prayer meeting Wednesday, 8 p. m.

TURNER CHRISTIAN Elmora J. Gilstrap, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m. The North Santiam Sunday school convention meets with us today. Dr. J. E. Gilstrap, pastor, will be the speaker. Special music by Kathryn Hawk and Glenn Garner; sermon, "A Spiritual Journey." Pastor's address at 11. Convention after noon. Rev. Hawk leads devotionals at 1:45. Rev. Galloway, pastor, address at 3:15. Dr. Epley, song leader, Christian Endeavor, 7 p. m. Marjorie Fowler, leader. Evening service by pastor at 8.

IMMANUEL BAPTIST Hazel and Academy streets. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Lesson: 5 p. m. Midweek prayer and testimony meeting on Thursday, 8 p. m.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL Center and Liberty streets. J. R. Simmonds, pastor. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Morning worship, 11. "The Involuntary Cross."

JASON LEE MEMORIAL M. E. H. M. A. J. Carpenter, superintendent. Preaching by pastor, 11, subject, "The Message of the Cross." Epworth league 6:30 p. m. senior and high school groups. Song service and testimonies. "Christ's Call to the Extraordinary Life."

FIRST CHURCH OF GOD Hood and Cottage streets. G. N. Neal, pastor. Sunday school and morning preaching at 10 o'clock. Installation and promotion day. New officers and teachers of Sunday school installed. Church committee has arranged a splendid program. Preaching service at 10:30 a. m. "The Cross." Pastor, J. E. Walker, 7:30. Testimony meeting Wednesday, 7:30.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH Marion and North Liberty streets. Britton Ross, minister. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. H. B. Carpenter, superintendent. Morning worship 11 o'clock, special music by male chorus. Junior and senior Epworth leagues. 6:30 p. m. senior and high school groups. Song service and testimonies. "Christ's Call to the Extraordinary Life."

HIGHLAND FRIENDS Right and Church streets. Glen Rindard, pastor. Bible school 9:45 a. m. E. M. Beckett, superintendent. Morning worship 11. Sermon subject, "The Kingdom of God." Junior C. E. 5:30 p. m. senior and intermediate C. E. 6:30. Evangelistic service. "The Kingdom of God." Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30.

ALLIANCE GOSPEL TABERNACLE 655 Ferry street. W. H. Caldwell, pastor. residence 456 Belmont street, phone 945. Sunday school 9:45. Mrs. Alice White, superintendent. Morning worship at 11 a. m. theme, "The Message to the Church at Berea." Evangelistic service 7:45 p. m. Orchestra plays at 7:30. Opening services in charge of young people. Quarterly business meeting. Epworth night. Prayer service Tuesday and Friday nights. Orchestra practice. Wednesday night. Young people's night. Thursday, 7:45. Street service Saturday 8 p. m. Services at Bellevue church Sunday, 11.

FREE METHODIST Market and North Winter. J. R. Stewart, pastor. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Morning worship 11, subject, "The Sanctifying Power of the Divine Presence." Evening worship 7:30, subject, "Fulfillment of Prophecy." Young people's meeting 6:30.

TEMPLE BAPTIST Breymann at 19th street. J. H. Briscoe, pastor. Sunday school 9:45. W. H. McCallum, superintendent. Sermon, 11. "The Lord's Supper Following morning service." B. Y. P. S. 6:30 p. m. Epworth league 7:30. Subject, "How God Keeps His People's Choir." Regular midweek prayer service 8 p. m. Wednesday. (Note change of time in evening service.)

PRESBYTERIAN Winter and Chemeketa streets. Grover C. Birchett, D. D., pastor. Church school 9:30. L. M. Ramage, superintendent. Morning worship 11, celebration of the Lord's Supper and reception members. Anthem, "It Was for Me." (Sticks). Solo by Wendell Robinson, "Ye Who Sit Alone, Who Sorrow, from Obed to Calvary." (Mauder). Christian Endeavor societies 6:30 p. m. Evening service 7:30. Sermon, "Life with a Martyr." Anthem, "Blest are the Pure in Heart."

WEST SALEM Sunday school at Ford Memorial church at 9:45 a. m. will give way largely to the rally day program. The Sunday school for some time organized at Old Grove chapel will be reorganized at 10 a. m. Organization of Sunday school to be subject, "Is a Better Day Dawning?" The evening sermon will be preached by the pastor at Ford Memorial at 7:30 subject, "The Christian Religion in Every-day Living."

LESLIE MEMORIAL South Commercial street at Myers. S. Darlow Johnson, pastor. 9:45 East Myers street, phone 9627. Morning worship at 11, sermon by the pastor on "The Place of Religious Education." Anthem, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand." By Schaefer. Happy evening hour, 7:30. Song leader, C. S. Ordway, assisted by the Junior choir, "Seek Ye the Kingdom." (Carrie B. Adams). Sermon, "The Main Chance." Church school 9:45. V. M. Bissett, superintendent; all departments leading toward rally day. League at 6:30. Miss Carle Williams leading the Leslie group on "Discovering Our Needs," and the Asbury group led by Miss Morrison Williams on "Finding Our Resources."

FIRST EVANGELICAL North Summer at Marion. Emory W. Petticoard, D. D., minister. Sabbath school 9:45 a. m. L. L. Thomson, superintendent. Morning worship 11, organ prelude and offertory. Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps; sermon, "Physical Abuse Under the Moral." Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Evangelistic service, 7:30, sermon, "Conquest of the Cross." Evening worship 7:30. Young people's meeting 6:30, subject, "Getting Off to a Good Start." Alice Johnston, leader.

ENGLWOOD UNITED BROTHERS North and Nebraska. R. V. Wilson, pastor. Sunday school 9:45. Morning worship 11, subject, "Wanted—A New Vision of God." Evening worship 7:30. Young people's meeting 6:30, subject, "Getting Off to a Good Start." Alice Johnston, leader.

GOVET STREET CHRISTIAN Court and 17th streets. Hugh M. McCallum, pastor. residence, 1744 Chemeketa. Bible school 9:45. Mrs. Irene Walker, superintendent. Morning worship and communion at 11. Sermon, "The 'Sal' of Salvation." Young people's Endeavor societies at 6:30. Evening evangelistic service 7:30. Special sermon, "Safety First." The large chorus choir will sing a special number and lead in the singing of the hymns. Young people's church night Wednesday, with special kickoff pot-luck dinner at 6:30, and Kennell E. Burke of Dallas as guest speaker.

SPIRITUAL CHURCH OF DIVINE TRUTH Nelson hall, Chemeketa street between Liberty and Commercial. Gordon Fleming, pastor. Service 8 p. m. subject, "Spiritualism as a Factor in Civilization." Followed by message by Rev. J. R. Simmonds at 253 D street, between Commercial and Front, Thursday 8 p. m.

CHRIST LUTHERAN East State street. Rev. A. E. Mannebaum, pastor. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. F. H. Theuer, D. D., will preach on the theme, "Are You Veridical Branches of the Vine?" Services at 9:45 a. m. German, and 11 English. Sunday school 9:30. Luther league 7 p. m.

REFORMED Capitol and Marion streets. W. G. Lienkaemper, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m. F. E. Kruse, superintendent. German service 10 a. m. subject, "The Parable of the Tares." English service 11, subject, "The Necessity of Being About the Father's Business." Special music by male quartet. This is All-Church and Rally day. Lunch served in the church basement at noon. Meetings of Sunday school daily, consistency and Ladies' Aid and Missionary societies in the church.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTISTS Chemeketa and Liberty streets. Sunday services 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Subject, "Unrestrained in the church basement at 11. Testimony meeting Wednesday 8 p. m. Reading room at 406 Masonic temple open from 11 to 5:30 except Sundays and holidays.

MICKEY MOUSE WITH SHAKESPEARE UNCONSCIOUS, AND ONLY MICKEY, MINNIE AND SPOOKS AGAINST THE PIRATE CREW, THE ODDS SEEM HOPELESS!

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye Now Showing — "A Fighter's Philosophy"

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY GEE, ZERO—I WISH THIS CAR WOULD GET TO WHERE EVER IT'S GOIN'—I USED TO JUST LOVE CALVES AN' I KNOW IT AMT THEIR FAULT—BUT I DON'T LIKE 'EM AS MUCH AS I USED TO LIKE 'EM!

TOOTS AND CASPER "The Inquisitive Colonel"

GALVARY BAPTIST Church school 9:40 a. m. Mrs. W. A. Barkus, superintendent. Preaching services 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. B. Y. P. S. at 6:30, senior and intermediate. Morning service, "Go Forward!" Promotion day, Anthem, "His Love and Care" (Wooler). Night, B. Y. P. S. installation service and short message by pastor. Anthem, "Love Divine," solo by Miss Lotie. Obligation by Mrs. Taylor. This week, Tuesday, association meeting at Lebanon. Wednesday, anniversary dinner and inspirational service; dinner at 6:30 service following at 7:30. Choir and orchestra rehearsal at 7:30 p. m. W. Earl Cochran, pastor.

Center at 18th street. Fletcher Galloway, pastor. residence 2025 Market, phone 9630. "The First Foreign Missionary," 9:30. "The First Foreign Missionary," ever! 11:30. 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. F. L. Livittler, superintendent. N. Y. P. S. and Junior society 6:30 p. m. Mrs. Paul Hardy, president. Special music by choir, 11 a. m.

EVANGELISTIC TABERNACLE Ferry at 19th. C. G. Weston, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m. E. M. Kruse, superintendent. Church service 3 p. m. Evangelistic service 7:45, with Evangelistic League at 8:30. "Religion Damning the World." Revival services continue nightly, except Monday, at 7:45.

GRACE GOSPEL HALL South and 11th streets. Preaching 8 and 7:45 p. m. E. K. Bailey speaking at both services. Gospel meeting each Friday 8 p. m.

ST. PAUL'S (EPISCOPAL) Church and Chemeketa streets. George H. Swift, rector. Holy communion 7:30 a. m. Church school 9:45. Holy Eucharist and sermon at 10:30.

FIRST UNITARIAN North Cottage and Chemeketa streets. Fred Alban Weil, minister. Service, 11 a. m. sermon, "Swinger of Bibles." 7:30 p. m. sermon, "Organist, Mrs. Walter A. Denton."

ST. JOHN'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN (Missouri Synod) Sixteenth and A streets. H. W. Gross, pastor. English service 9:45 a. m. German services at 11 with celebration of holy communion. Preparatory service at 10:45. Sunday school 9 a. m. William O'Neill, superintendent.

AMERICAN LUTHERAN Church street between Chemeketa and Center. A down to date message from the Book of Nehemiah, 13 a. m. Special music by the choir, directed by William McGilchrist. St. Sunday school 9:45. A. A. Kruse, superintendent. Young people's meeting at 6:30. Stereoscopic lecture at 7:30 by Dr. William Scheeler, "Whence Came Man? Or, Are Men and Monkeys Related?"

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL Church school, 9:45. Public worship, 11, address, Miss Ruth Field from Indian chorus choir of 50 voices. Three Epworth leagues at 6:30 p. m. Young people's forum in church parlors. 6. Evening service, 7:30, sermon, "The Calling of Christ." Dr. E. E. Packer. Special musical numbers.

Winter Activity At St. Joseph's Opens on Oct. 5 St. Joseph's church will begin its winter activities next Wednesday evening with a thrilling mystery play, "Haunted," to be presented in the hall at 8:15 p. m. It is amusing, thrilling and an enjoyable evening is promised. The Misses Aline Bremner and Barbara Schotthofer will direct the musical program and among the players will be found the following: Dorothy Dalk, Lillian Kropp, Johnny Nathan, Michael Fitzpatrick, David Dinsmore and Urban Trumm.

"Outnumbered"

"Poor Little Rich Girl"

"The Inquisitive Colonel"

LESLIE TO OBSERVE SEVEN-DAY RALLY

Rally week will be observed at Leslie Memorial church next week, October 2 to 9, culminating in a Rally day program by the church school at the morning hour October 9. Monday a rally of officers of all church groups in the church parlors. Tuesday, in the church auditorium, a men's rally under the auspices of the Brotherhood. Oscar Weed, sheriff of Columbia county, will speak on "The 18th Amendment as seen by an Enforcement Officer." The Gideon quartet will sing. C. S. Ordway, committee chairman, says the women are invited to hear this program and join in the social hour. Thursday evening mid-week Rally Friday evening, Young People's night. Leslie and Asbury leagues combine for a social evening in the church parlors. All evening meetings during the week begin at 7:30.

Ministers Meet Monday Morn At Y. M. Here The first regular monthly meeting of the Salem Ministerial association will be held Monday at 10:30 at the Y. M. C. A. Last year the meetings were held semi-monthly but this year the plan is to give a longer time and prepare a strong program and meet only once a month. Sixteen ministers were present at the called meeting two weeks ago and a number of new men in the city have not yet had the opportunity to join so there is an indication of unusual interest in the association meetings this year which augurs well for the cooperative enterprises that will be undertaken for the community welfare. Rev. Grover C. Birchett is president of the association and Rev. Fletcher Galloway is secretary-treasurer.

Stewart to Talk, Pleasant Grove

TURNER, Sept. 29—A special program is announced for Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Pleasant Grove church, four miles southeast of Turner. Rev. J. Y. Stewart of Albany is pastor and has arranged for special music by Salem talent and Mrs. Necla Buck, a national W. C. T. U. lecturer will speak on "What will happen if Oregon loses its state prohibition law?"

Tooze to Address Brotherhood Meet

TURNER, Sept. 29—The Methodist Men's Brotherhood will meet Monday night at 7:30 with women invited. Fred Tooze Jr., of Salem, president of Marion county Federation of Reform movement, will give an address on "The Citizen's part in law enforcement. Light refreshments will be served. Also a committee will confer with Mr. Tooze for an October rally day date for Turner.

What a heritage of historic values and memories cluster around this school, the oldest degree granting institution of learning west of the Missouri river! With such a perspective, who can wonder at two boys walking 600 miles to enter the ranks of its earnest student body? That setting, those historic values, explain why Willamette university has been given an endorsement now approaching the two million dollar mark bestowed largely at the price of sacrifices by thousands of devoted men and women. In order that the old school might live and work in perpetuity and fulfill the fond hopes of its founders. The sum of widows' mites is a considerable part of the whole. The first money, $550, was given in 1839 from the tender means and yet unearned small salaries of the voyagers on the ship Lausanne. Mayflower of the Pacific, in the first few days of their journey half around the world, to their mission stations in this then savage wilderness, and contributing further to the fund that made up the cost of the first building, on Wallace prairie, were settlers in log cabins using tanned deer skins for windows. The whole course of old Willamette has been run largely through sacrifice. Members of the faculty in all the beginning years lived sacrificial lives; labored on pitifully small salaries, generally far in arrears. Presidents of the old school might have truthfully sung with Burns, "What though on humble fare we dine, were hodge nodge gray, and a' that." This condition lasted through many administrations; was the state of affairs when Congressman W. C. Hawley was president of Willamette. But the spirit of sacrifice is the highest heritage of the old school. But for this spirit, through many lean years, the doors of opportunity it afforded would have been closed, with the sheriff's red flag signaling the sad event. In the cradle of this institution the two provisional governments of Oregon were formulated, the city of Salem was born, and through influences nurtured on its campus the capital came to this city, and was kept here through the final vote after the plebiscite by the framers of the state constitution. The torch that guided the way of the 600 mile trek was lighted more than 100 years ago, in the

PARENT-TEACHERS OPEN YEAR MONDAY

GERVAIS, Sept. 30—The opening meeting for the season of the Parent-Teacher association will be held at the school building Monday night, October 3, when organization for the year will take place and a round table discussion held. The subject will be general on P. T. A. work. Mrs. Berta Darker is president of the association this year. Mrs. Ida Minaker is vice-president and Miss Ethel Martin, secretary-treasurer. While scuffling with a friend Sunday afternoon Walter Dorchers stepped into a hole in the ground, breaking a bone in his right ankle. The junior, sophomore and freshman classes have elected officers as follows: Junior class: president, Gilbert Smith; vice-president, Frances Schoman; secretary, Homer Wadsworth; treasurer, Edgar Albritton; class advisor, Mr. Buchanan. The sophomores elected Mary Miller, president; Betty Cufarino, vice president; Erma DeJardin, secretary; Donald Smith, treasurer; Maurice Slox, sergeant-at-arms, and Miss Catta, class advisor. The freshmen elected Betty Jean Hicks, president; Lella Woods, vice president; Willard Andrews, secretary and treasurer; Andrew Jensen, sergeant-at-arms, and Mr. Tumbleson, class advisor.

What a heritage of historic values and memories cluster around this school, the oldest degree granting institution of learning west of the Missouri river! With such a perspective, who can wonder at two boys walking 600 miles to enter the ranks of its earnest student body? That setting, those historic values, explain why Willamette university has been given an endorsement now approaching the two million dollar mark bestowed largely at the price of sacrifices by thousands of devoted men and women. In order that the old school might live and work in perpetuity and fulfill the fond hopes of its founders. The sum of widows' mites is a considerable part of the whole. The first money, $550, was given in 1839 from the tender means and yet unearned small salaries of the voyagers on the ship Lausanne. Mayflower of the Pacific, in the first few days of their journey half around the world, to their mission stations in this then savage wilderness, and contributing further to the fund that made up the cost of the first building, on Wallace prairie, were settlers in log cabins using tanned deer skins for windows. The whole course of old Willamette has been run largely through sacrifice. Members of the faculty in all the beginning years lived sacrificial lives; labored on pitifully small salaries, generally far in arrears. Presidents of the old school might have truthfully sung with Burns, "What though on humble fare we dine, were hodge nodge gray, and a' that." This condition lasted through many administrations; was the state of affairs when Congressman W. C. Hawley was president of Willamette. But the spirit of sacrifice is the highest heritage of the old school. But for this spirit, through many lean years, the doors of opportunity it afforded would have been closed, with the sheriff's red flag signaling the sad event. In the cradle of this institution the two provisional governments of Oregon were formulated, the city of Salem was born, and through influences nurtured on its campus the capital came to this city, and was kept here through the final vote after the plebiscite by the framers of the state constitution. The torch that guided the way of the 600 mile trek was lighted more than 100 years ago, in the LYONS, Sept. 30—The new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGee is nearly finished. The couple do not expect to occupy it for some time, however, as they had business affairs in California to close up before coming here to live. They spent some time here this summer but returned to California the first of this month and if their plans materialize they will return to Oregon the last of the year or early in 1933. L. H. Lewis received a message from Salem early Wednesday, telling of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Lillie Vass, wife of Amos Vass of Salem. Raymond Berry and two of the Jungwirth brothers, Doc and Pete, are gone on a hunting trip to southern Oregon this week. L. C. Trask, home from White Salmon, Wash., reports farm conditions in Washington pretty much the same as here. Crops in general were very good this season in and around the White Salmon country. Arthur Vaughn and family have moved from Lyons to the J. F. Potter farm about one and one half miles southwest of town. Mr. Vaughn is working for Mr. Potter, taking care of the chores and working on the farm. The Potters in general were very busy later. Mr. Potter has employment with the government at present, which will continue until bad weather.

VISITS FROM A. A. GERVAIS, Sept. 29—Fern Wadsworth of Los Angeles arrived Friday and is spending the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth. Before going to Los Angeles Miss Wadsworth taught in the Marion county schools, her last position being at Woodburn. FIRE RAZES HOUSE FALLS CITY, Sept. 29—The Estelle home was destroyed by fire Sunday morning, with little of the household goods saved. Mr. Estelle owns and operates a mill near here. F. BALDWIN BURIED ELPRIEDGE, Sept. 29—Funeral services were held at Memorial Tuesday for F. Baldwin, father of Mrs. Fuller, who lives north of the Eldridge school. teaching of Jedediah Smith, the St. Paul of the mountain men west of the Rockies. (There will be something to add, along this line, in the issue of Tuesday or Wednesday.)

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

Bits for Breakfast

(Continued from Page 4)

What a heritage of historic values and memories cluster around this school, the oldest degree granting institution of learning west of the Missouri river! With such a perspective, who can wonder at two boys walking 600 miles to enter the ranks of its earnest student body? That setting, those historic values, explain why Willamette university has been given an endorsement now approaching the two million dollar mark bestowed largely at the price of sacrifices by thousands of devoted men and women. In order that the old school might live and work in perpetuity and fulfill the fond hopes of its founders. The sum of widows' mites is a considerable part of the whole. The first money, $550, was given in 1839 from the tender means and yet unearned small salaries of the voyagers on the ship Lausanne. Mayflower of the Pacific, in the first few days of their journey half around the world, to their mission stations in this then savage wilderness, and contributing further to the fund that made up the cost of the first building, on Wallace prairie, were settlers in log cabins using tanned deer skins for windows. The whole course of old Willamette has been run largely through sacrifice. Members of the faculty in all the beginning years lived sacrificial lives; labored on pitifully small salaries, generally far in arrears. Presidents of the old school might have truthfully sung with Burns, "What though on humble fare we dine, were hodge nodge gray, and a' that." This condition lasted through many administrations; was the state of affairs when Congressman W. C. Hawley was president of Willamette. But the spirit of sacrifice is the highest heritage of the old school. But for this spirit, through many lean years, the doors of opportunity it afforded would have been closed, with the sheriff's red flag signaling the sad event. In the cradle of this institution the two provisional governments of Oregon were formulated, the city of Salem was born, and through influences nurtured on its campus the capital came to this city, and was kept here through the final vote after the plebiscite by the framers of the state constitution. The torch that guided the way of the 600 mile trek was lighted more than 100 years ago, in the LYONS, Sept. 30—The new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGee is nearly finished. The couple do not expect to occupy it for some time, however, as they had business affairs in California to close up before coming here to live. They spent some time here this summer but returned to California the first of this month and if their plans materialize they will return to Oregon the last of the year or early in 1933. L. H. Lewis received a message from Salem early Wednesday, telling of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Lillie Vass, wife of Amos Vass of Salem. Raymond Berry and two of the Jungwirth brothers, Doc and Pete, are gone on a hunting trip to southern Oregon this week. L. C. Trask, home from White Salmon, Wash., reports farm conditions in Washington pretty much the same as here. Crops in general were very good this season in and around the White Salmon country. Arthur Vaughn and family have moved from Lyons to the J. F. Potter farm about one and one half miles southwest of town. Mr. Vaughn is working for Mr. Potter, taking care of the chores and working on the farm. The Potters in general were very busy later. Mr. Potter has employment with the government at present, which will continue until bad weather.

VISITS FROM A. A. GERVAIS, Sept. 29—Fern Wadsworth of Los Angeles arrived Friday and is spending the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth. Before going to Los Angeles Miss Wadsworth taught in the Marion county schools, her last position being at Woodburn. FIRE RAZES HOUSE FALLS CITY, Sept. 29—The Estelle home was destroyed by fire Sunday morning, with little of the household goods saved. Mr. Estelle owns and operates a mill near here. F. BALDWIN BURIED ELPRIEDGE, Sept. 29—Funeral services were held at Memorial Tuesday for F. Baldwin, father of Mrs. Fuller, who lives north of the Eldridge school. teaching of Jedediah Smith, the St. Paul of the mountain men west of the Rockies. (There will be something to add, along this line, in the issue of Tuesday or Wednesday.)

By WALT DISNEY

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY