Foreign Marts Erratic

BOSTON, Sept. 30-)AP)-The commercial bulletin will say to-

As Mohair Moves

Some in East

morrew: "The wool market has been very quiet but for the limited business which has been passing, prices have held fairly firm, Some sales of combing and woolen goods have been made at fully as high rates as any price recently obtained. The topmakers, however, have been making strong offorts to secure wool fractionally

"The foreign markets have been somewhat erratic. London, towards the week-end, has recovered some of its loss but Sydney has been about five per cent down from the high point. "The piece goods markets are most reassuring. "Little new is heard from the west, where buying has become much quieter. "Mohair is moving moderately at unchanged rates." The bulletin will publish the following quotations:

More Prairie Wheat Steps in Process Described; 30 People Employed Through Season

JEFFERSON, Sept. 39-One of the busiest places around Jefferson is at the R. C. Thomas prune dryer just outside the city limits southeast. Prunes this year are of very good quality, and fell of sugar. Some prunes were of enormous size. In one box of prunes, one Italian prune was found that weighed three ounces. Others were weighed, and it took only unofficial authorities estimated seven prunes to weigh a pound. that 140,000,000 bushels of Cana-It is interesting to note what dian wheat had been marketed in process the green prune underthe prairie provinces since August goes until it is a finished product. 1, compared with 55,000,000 a The prunes are picked in the orchards and brought to the dryer, Wheat closed unsettled, 14-114 where they are weighed. > At the end of the 24 hours, the trays of prunes are taken from the tunnels to the sorting tables. wh' 'e the soft prunes are sorted ou. and again placed into the tunantil they are dried enough.

> the dried prunes are dumped in a wheelbarrow and taken to the warehouse. About 30 people are employed in this dryer during the prune harvest.

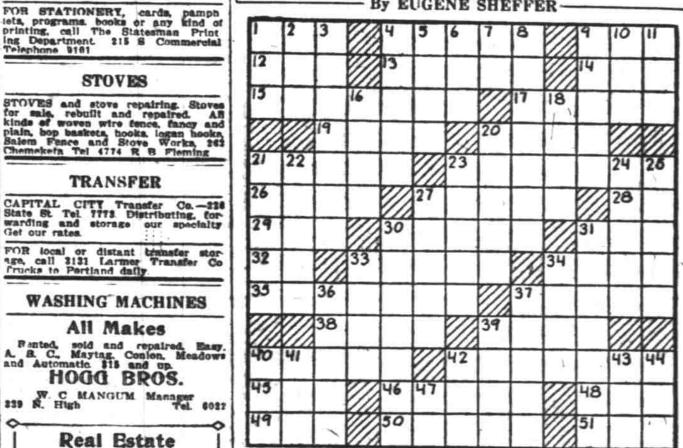

NEW YORK, Sept. 30-(AP)-Trading in stocks today conformed closely to recent patterns. The market was very dull; it dipped in the morning, ruled lower until the last hour and then improved enough to cancel most of its moderate losses. Sales totaled 1,144,-720 shares, smallest turnover since July 21.

Net changes were normal in most so-called pivotal issues. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Electric, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Mont-Ward, Sears Roebuck, Case, Harvester, American Telephone, Standard of New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio were up slightly, while Allied Chemical, Santa Fe, Kennecott, American Tobacco "B," National Biscuit and Public Service of New Jersey were mildly reactionary. The market ended the month with a net loss in Price averages. The standard statistics-Associated Press composite, which closed Sept. 1, at 67.3, finished today at 64.2.
