Winnipeg Rumors add To Upward Trend At Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 .- (AP)-Stubborn advancing tendencies developed in Chicago grain values today, influenced by suggestions that the Winnipeg wheat market was receiving powerful support. Evening up of accounts to prepare for monthly unofficial domestic crop summaries Monday served also to give wheat prices a firm undertone. One private monthly report issued today contained a forecast that United States winter wheat acreage of 1933 would be about 6 per cent less than last year. Wheat closed steadfast at the day's top level, %-% higher than pended animation today, although the market did manage to muster yesterday's finish, corn unchanged enough activity in the last quarter

Source PORTLAND, Oct. 1-(AP)-Rumors of great shortage in supplies of butter in storage here appear the chief factors in the trade at the moment. Most of the rumors which appear to come from one source, indicate that there are no available stocks in ice house here and that former speculative holders are scrambling for their needs. Survey of the situation fails to disclose this alleged shortage. The rumors name several leading storage interests as being sold out, but these stoutly deny that they have sold. The rumors come chiefly from one party said to have great stocks of butter piled up in store. There was no change in the price of butter for the weekend session of the produce exchange.

Butterfat values continue steady. Trade in the egg market remains of very favorable character. At the weekend there was no change in values which recently have been generally sustained at the high mark.

Market price on chickens here is still kept at the weak point with California and direct shippers to California getting the benefit of the situation. Portland continues to lose shipments to the
