

BUILDING OF BARN ORDERED 3RD TIME

Osborne Requests Board to Hire Part Free Labor, Pen Construction

Rebuilding of the large hay barn at the Oregon State hospital which was totally destroyed by fire early Sunday was authorized yesterday morning by the state board of control. The estimated loss due to the fire was $10,000. Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the hospital, was requested to submit his plans and recommendations. The cost will be paid from the state restoration fund.

A group of labor leaders, headed by Ben Osborne, executive secretary of the state federation of labor, appeared before the board and urged that a share of the construction operations scheduled at the state penitentiary be awarded to free labor instead of convicts.

Osborne told the board that unemployment conditions were serious, and that even temporary employment meant bread and butter for many workers. Governor Meier indicated that his only objection to awarding the work to free labor was the hazard that would result.

Action is Deferred
Action by the board was deferred pending a conference between the labor leaders and Warden Lewis, to determine the character of the proposed construction operations.

The board adopted a resolution recommending that the federal veterans administration be authorized to employ the operations of the new national soldiers hospital at Roseburg the several persons now on the payroll at the old soldiers home. The old soldiers home will be absorbed by the federal institution. Adoption of the resolution was requested by Senator Eddy of Roseburg.

AUXILIARY LINING UP FOR NEW NAMES

EAST WOODBURN, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Minnie LeFebvre of Woodburn, captain of one of the membership drive teams of the Legion auxiliary, was making arrangements here Friday for a big drive, which is an annual event. Last year the membership was nearly doubled over the previous year, but with the depression still hanging on, the job is going to be more difficult this year.

It takes the strawberries of Earl Rickard's to show what real courage is in the face of a disastrous season. The berries are again bearing and furnishing plenty for the table, which is considered unusual with "so dry a season."

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Larson, who have been farming in the Union district for a good many years, have moved their household goods to Hubbard, where they expect to make their home. Miss Marvel Larson, their daughter, is an instructor in the Taft high school.

A number of people near Monte who had entries in the Clackamas county fair were winners. Mrs. L. D. Lenon received first prize on a quilt of an applique design, the J. L. Lienhart family received second prize on the general farm booth, and their son, John, Jr., was awarded third on his Jersey heifer and fifth on a Jersey bull. Winifred and Frances, daughters, received first and second respectively on their pens of Rhode Island Red hens.

Sheriff Killed, Posse of 500 is Seeking Slayer

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 4.—(AP)—More than 500 Rush county citizens and all available peace officers formed posses to search for the slayer of Sheriff Ray Compton, 41, after he had been mortally wounded while making a liquor search Monday. Compton was shot in the right jaw by a man who opened the front door of a house southwest of here when the sheriff and two deputies went there with a warrant to search for liquor.

BENEFACTOR

Dr. Charles Armstrong of the Public Health Service in Washington, D. C., who used his own blood in preparing the serum that was used by plans to Mrs. William E. Borch, wife of the Senator from Idaho, at Boise. Mrs. Borch, who was suffering from an illness, diagnosed as "parrot fever," is reported recovered.

THEY'RE A TWOSOME NOW

Both ardent golfers, Miss Joan MacDonald, daughter of the British Premier, and Dr. Alstair Mackinnon, her husband, are shown as they played a round just a few days before their marriage at Wendover, Eng. The Premier's daughter plans to continue her medical studies after the honeymoon. She has already won a degree in medicine.

SCIO NOMINATES SCHOOL OFFICERS

SCIO, Oct. 4.—Nominations for the Scio high school student body were made at a student body meeting held Monday afternoon. Leonard Miller, last year's vice-president, was in charge. Elections will be held Wednesday of this week. F. A. Gallely, principal, will again be faculty advisor for the student body.

Nominees are: President, Leonard Miller; vice-president, LeVann Gardner and Richard Quarry; secretary, Sylvia Bartu and Rose Silbersagel; treasurer, Yvonne McClain; sergeant-at-arms, Lyle Jackson; business manager, Geraldine Rodgers and Virginia Turnidge; boys' athletic manager, Leonard Lukenbach and Adolph Krosman; yell leader, Norma Mumper and Sylvia Baker.

Enrollment Reaches 106
With the registration of Bruce Quarry, sophomore, and of Ralph Johnson, post graduate, the high school enrollment is now 106. The classes number of students: Post graduates 51, seniors, 21; juniors, 22; sophomores, 31; freshmen, 27.

WHO'S WHO LISTS BARNES, YOUNGEST

Probably the youngest Salem-born man to be enrolled in "Who's Who in America" is Ralph W. Barnes of Salem. Mrs. E. T. Barnes of this city, who is now the Moscow, Russia, correspondent of the New York Herald-Tribune. The average age at which names are first entered in the roster of the nation's great is 51 years. Ralph's age is 33 years, and he is only 10 years out of Willamette. He grew up here, graduated from Salem high school and Willamette university.

The following is the sketch of his career which appears in "Who's Who," with the residence classed as Moscow: "Ralph Waldo Barnes, newspaper correspondent; born Salem, Oregon, June 14, 1899; son Edward Talbot and Mabel (Baker) Barnes; A.B. Willamette U., 1922; M.A. Harvard 1924; married Esther Barton Faroukian October 11, 1924; children, Joan, Suzanne. Began as reporter Brooklyn Daily Eagle, 1924; with New York Herald-Tribune 1926; member editorial staff, New York Herald, Paris, 1926-29; assistant Paris bureau New York Herald-Tribune 1929, reporting conferences of financial experts that drafted Young plan; Rome correspondent New York Herald-Tribune, 1930; Moscow correspondent since April, 1931. At central telephony O. T. S., Waco, Tex., 1918, world war. Address, Hotel Metropole, Moscow, U. S. S. R."

Auto Camp Men Meet at Nelscott Beach Next Week

The Oregon Auto Camp association will hold its eighth annual convention at Nelscott, Tillamook county, on October 10 and 11. Many camp owners from Washington, British Columbia and California are expected to be in attendance. The principal camp owners of Oregon are members of the association.

University Frosh Elect Potter Head

Earle Potter was elected president of the freshman class at Willamette university at the class election held this week. Other officers were elected as follows: Kenneth Manning, vice-president; Wanda Landon, secretary; Leander Quearing, treasurer; Talbot Bennett, interclass rivalry chairman; John Ross, chapel committee chairman and Paul Hauser, executive committee chairman.

TWO WEDDINGS IN SIGHT

DALLAS, Oct. 4.—Two marriage licenses were issued here Saturday afternoon. One was to Clem Lute, 26, laborer, of Dallas, and Mabel Robinson, 18, housewife, of Monmouth. The other was to Burton Burton Dalley, 34, horse trainer, of Pomona, Calif., and Flora Cruickshank, 24, school teacher, of Salem.

Powell was exonerated of all liability at the conclusion of the testimony in the lower court.

The supreme court reversed the decree of Judge Stapleton on the ground that the question of

DECREE IN NORBLAD CASE IS REVERSED

Committeemen Freed From Payment of Campaign Materials Bill

Reversing a decree of Judge Stapleton of the Multnomah county circuit court, the state supreme court yesterday handed down an opinion in favor of the dependants in the suit brought by Ray Fennell to recover approximately $3789 from Kenneth Hauser, Gus Moser, W. W. Banks, T. B. Handley and Tom Sweeney, alleged members of the "Norblad" for governor committee.

The total amount sued for by plaintiff represented 18 assigned claims, which were alleged to have covered the purchase of printed matter and advertising.

Defendants admitted that they had interested themselves in the candidacy of A. W. Norblad, but denied that any organization or association capable of transacting business had been formed. They alleged that the so-called "Norblad" for governor committee was but a name, and that the merchandise had been supplied with the understanding that it was to be paid for by Governor Norblad, or through the use of funds contributed to his campaign by friends.

100 Persons Involved
Testimony also offered by the defendants that the term "Norblad" for governor committee was applied to one hundred or more individuals who had attended a Norblad rally at the Multnomah hotel for the purpose of encouraging and stimulating interest in his campaign.

The lower court held that, as a matter of law, the defendants composing the "Norblad" for governor committee, with the exception of Samuel Powell, were jointly and severally liable for all wares and merchandise ordered in the name of the committee. Judge Stapleton directed a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the amount of $3789.10.

Powell was exonerated of all liability at the conclusion of the testimony in the lower court.

The supreme court reversed the decree of Judge Stapleton on the ground that the question of liability should have been determined by a jury, and not by the court.

Damage Suit Upheld
In another opinion the supreme court affirmed Judge Eakin of the Columbia county circuit court in a suit brought by Hattie Large to recover damages from the city of St. Helens. Mrs. Large alleged that she fell on a defective sidewalk, and suffered injuries of a permanent nature. The lower court held for the plaintiff.

Other opinions handed down today follow:
V. Winchell vs Pacific Fruit and Produce company, appellant; appeal from Hood River county. Motion to recall mandate overruled in opinion by Justice Kelly.

A. H. York, plaintiff and respondent, vs Western Savings and Loan association, and others, defendants and appellants, and James Mott, state corporation commissioner, intervenor—appellant; appeal from Multnomah county. Action for reasonable value of services performed. Opinion by Justice Kelly. Judge James P. Stapleton reversed.

Petition for rehearing denied in Brown vs New Jersey Insurance company and in Allegretto vs. Oregon Automobile Insurance company.
Petition for rehearing allowed in Kerns vs Union county, involving rights of way for highway construction.

MULLIGAN STEW IS SERVED KIWANIAN

Members of the Salem Kiwanis club, at their weekly meeting, yesterday, sat down to a Mulligan stew, mashed potatoes, bread pudding and coffee at the Hotel de Minto, which is conducted by the Salem police department for the accommodation of homeless men.

Dr. O. A. Olson explained to the Kiwanians that $6,216 meals had been served to hungry men at this "hotel" during the last 10 months. Beds also are provided. Under the rules of the "hotel," no man can remain longer than 24 hours, and is limited to one night's lodging and two meals.

Chief of Police Minto said the operation of the "hotel" had reduced crime here materially, and had cleared the residential districts of all suspicious characters.

JOHNSON'S

The Store For Ladies — 464-466 State St.

COAT SALE

LADIES....!

Let me tell you of the wonderful bargains at Johnson's during their Remodeling Sale.

Carpenters and painters are busy making the store one of Salem's finest — but still you will find it crowded with costumers taking advantage of the prices of this fine merchandise.

You'll like the store and you'll feel welcome too.

Look! Look!

POLO COATS

in all shades and positively all wool at $7.95

Jersey Dresses

After all is said and done you can't beat Johnson's for prices. One and two piece Jersey Dresses at $1.49

Others at $2.95 and $3.95

Speaking of

Hat Values

Here's a group of felts just unpacked. They are more expensive hats but our sale price is $1.39

French Berets and Knitted Turbans at 50c

New Silk Blouses

Puffed sleeves, long sleeves and short sleeves

$1.95

Dresses! Dresses!

Hundreds of them in ostrich feather crepe, silk crepe, etc., all styles and sizes 12 to 48 at $5.88

Others at $10.95 and up And again we say it takes Johnson's for real prices

Exceptionally Low-Priced

$10.88

and

$15.88

These are really stunning coats—copies of exclusive Paris originals. The fabrics are soft and spongy and the lavish use of quality furs help to bring out a real expensive appearance.

Sizes for misses, juniors and junior misses.

HOSIERY!

Trojan Pure Silk, full fashioned Hose, Remodeling Sale Price 50c

Johnson's

464-466 State St.

SILK CREPE UNDIES

All regular values to 3.95 in Step-Ins, Dancettes, Chemise, etc. Very Special. $1.95

The circulating principle... draws in cold air, sends out hot air....

Flood your home with healthful heat!

for less than the cost of an old fashioned stove...
CIRCULATING HEATER
For 4 or More Large Rooms
EVEN IN SEVERE WEATHER
HEATS EVERY CORNER OF THE HOUSE

The Aristocrat Windsor

Burns Wood — Heats 4 or 5 Rooms
Heat Circulates From All Four Sides

Beautiful walnut porcelain enameled. May be cleaned with a cloth like furniture. Big, roomy firebox designed to take long or rough wood.

$54⁵⁰

Just like illustration

The Todd-Ola Windsor Wood Burning Circulator

Walnut enamel, cabinet style, double front doors, designed to heat perfectly a medium size house. Come in and see this astonishing value.

$38⁵⁰

MONTGOMERY WARD & Co.
275 North Liberty Street