Plans were made for the state convention which convenes October 11. A conference of state directors is to be held at the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday evening and to this all county executives are urged to come.

Tickets are now on sale for the banquet which will be an event of October 11, at 8:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church. Speakers who will be heard at this banquet will include Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, C. A. Doney, C. A. Howard, superintendent of public instruction, Judge J. H. Van Winkle, Mrs. Hannah Martin, Mayor P. M. Gregory and Dr. Grover C. Britcher.

Appreciation was expressed concerning the kindly cooperation of the city in making the convention a success. Expression of appreciation was made also, for favorable newspaper publicity, and special regard was expressed for editorials in the Salem morning paper.

Dinner Party is Interesting Event

Mrs. O. C. McDowell entertained with an attractive dinner party for an interesting group of guests Tuesday night at her home.

The members of the party were District Attorney John Carson and the grand jury members, Mrs. Julius Stauffer, Mrs. Bertha Curl, Miss Genevieve Morgan, Arthur Moore, James Allison, George Pontus, and Mrs. McDowell.

The dinner was informal and was served at 6:30 o'clock. An enjoyable conversational hour followed the dinner.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
You'll want to put on your very best hat and start about town when you wear this frock... at least you'll want to do something for it is too chic for words. Its details reflect the height of smartness... the rounded neckline, the intriguing seaming topped off by stitching, perky buttons and epaulettes... give that charming silhouette, you love.

Pattern 2348 may be ordered only in sizes 13 to 20 and 30 to 40. Size 16 requires 2 1/8 yards 54 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE WANTED.

The fall and winter edition of the Anne Adams Pattern Catalog is ready! Charming, flattering models—32 pages of the newest and best fashions, styles and general frocks—cleverly designed styles for large figures—and beautiful, practical models for seniors and kiddies. Lovely lingerie patterns, and suggestions for gifts that can be easily and inexpensively made, are also included. Send for the new catalog. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Hendricks-Fery Nuptials Tuesday

Stayton.—Before a large gathering of relatives and friends the wedding of Miss Thresa Hendricks daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hendricks, to John Fery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fery, was solemnized at St. Mary's church here Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Scherbring, local pastor.

The bride, attended by her sister Miss Margaret, was lovely in a long gown of white satin, with attractive leg o' mutton sleeves, and her appearance was enhanced by a lovely bouquet and dainty full length veil. The bridesmaid wore a blue georgette gown and carried purple asters. The groom's brother, Alva, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner and reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, attended by many old-time friends and relatives. In the evening a wedding dance was given at the Forester hall, also largely attended.

The young couple have lived on neighboring farms for years and have a host of friends. They will be at home on the groom's farm, the former John Dozier place, at Kingston.

Program Announced For Card Benefit

The program which will be a part of the entertainment for the delightful card benefit party being planned for tonight at the Woman's clubhouse by the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars has been announced.

Miss Martha Floor is chairman of the committee and has arranged the program to include vocal solos by Curtis Williams accompanied by Miss Maxine Glover, a group of readings by Mrs. Clifton Mudd and a feature dance by Harold Jeepon.

Assisting with the serving will be Mrs. R. W. Remington, Mrs. Elmer Weisel, Mrs. H. M. Baker and Mrs. Byron Conley.

Officers Elected For Republican Club

The regular monthly business and social meeting of the Leslie Memorial Ladies Aid society will meet this afternoon at the church.

Mrs. John Bertelson, Mrs. Bertha Lucas, Mrs. Charles Vick and Mrs. John Carson will be hostesses at the tea hour.

A group of members from Salem Golf club motored to Eugene Sunday where play was enjoyed. About 12 motored down and of those the women who played were Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Mrs. Curtis Cross, and Mrs. Russell Bonesteel.

Salem Garden Club Makes Plans

The first meeting of the Salem Garden club was attended by an enthusiastic group of members and friends Monday night at the chamber of commerce rooms.

Newly elected president, Ernest Inzer, presided and Mrs. Myron Van Easton, newly elected secretary, officiated.

Plans were made to appoint chairmen for the various branches of floriculture and landscaping and to these chairmen all technical questions asked by club members will be referred.

Announcement was received with interest of the winning of a silver vase by a basket of fall flowers entered in the name of the Salem Garden club in the Meier and Frank fall dahlia show in Portland Monday.

The entry was made by W. Baxter and the Adams Floral shop.

A talk of more than ordinary interest was made as a concluding number on the opening fall program of Miss Irene Breithaupt and Miss Helen Breithaupt. A discussion of cut flowers, arrangements and care was given in most pleasing and effective manner.

Thomas H. Gentle To Address Club

The annual teachers' guest day program for which the Salem Woman's club will be hostess Saturday at the clubhouse will present an attractive program for the teachers in the form of an address by Thomas H. Gentle, long-time favorite with the teachers of Oregon.

The talk of this popular educator will deal with the history of the one-room school and his own reminiscences of early teaching. Anyone who has heard Professor Gentle on these subjects will not have to be urged to hear him talk.

There will be an executive session of the board at 1:30 o'clock and the program will follow at 2 o'clock.

Unitarian Alliance Will Meet Friday

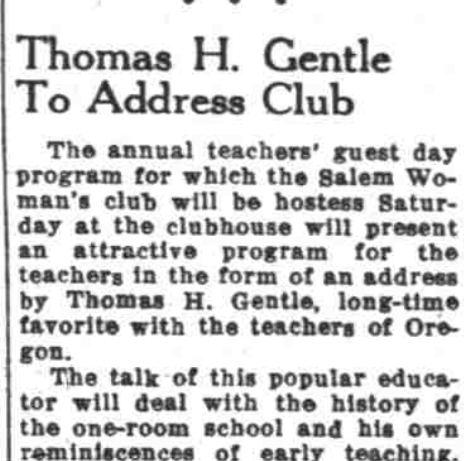

Members of the Unitarian Alliance will meet in the social rooms of the Young Women's Christian association on Liberty street Friday afternoon for the regular program and social meeting.

Miss Gertrude Savage will be hostess to the group. The business meeting has been set at 2:30 o'clock and the program will be given at 3 o'clock.

St. Agnes Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. Florence Irwin for an attractive informal evening Monday night and thus started activities for this group for the fall and winter. Sewing was enjoyed by about 14 members present.

SPIDER, NEW FASHION DESIGNER

It was hard enough for mere man to keep his eyes straight ahead before, but now it is almost impossible. Fashion has decided that the spider's web furnishes a fine design for the newest printed stockings, and promptly took it over. Now it means a spider's web instead of a spider's web and is the Spider's eye red!

Silverton—Trinity Young People's society held its first autumn meeting Sunday at the social rooms of the church with Mrs. M. G. Gunderson, Mrs. Elmer Olsen and Mrs. Otto Legard as hostesses at the noon luncheon. Autumn flowers were used on the long tables at which the guests were seated.

The principal number on the program was a descriptive talk by Miss Lillian Block of her trip through Massachusetts last summer. Other numbers included a piano solo by Harold Haaland, a reading by Mrs. E. Holden and a vocal duet by Ethel and Ruth Peterson.

At the business meeting it was voted to give $50 to the local congregation budget and another motion carried to the effect that the society would not give to anything outside of the local congregation until it has its piano paid for.

Plans for the leap year basket social to be given Friday night for the purpose of raising money to pay for the piano were announced by Mrs. Holden who is chairman of the affair.

Mrs. Holden announced the following committees: auctioneer, L. H. Meyer; judges of the baskets, M. G. Gunderson, Mrs. M. O. Hattberg, Amos Corhouse, Mrs. Baltimore and William Hattberg; decorating committee, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torvend, Lillie Madsen; coffee making, L. M. Larson, John Anderson, Roy Brady; entertainment, A. Gottenburg, Lillian Block, Althea Meyer, and L. G. McDonald; supper committee, Attee Jensen, Viola Larson, Nettie Hattberg; dishwashing committee, E. O. Nelson, Louis Hall, Ed Holden, Adolph Haugen and Alfred Jensen; assistants to all committees, Harold Larson, Dr.

Apple Harvest and Silo Jobs Occupy Queener Residents

QUEENER, Oct. 4. — Elmer Archambeau finished filling his silos Saturday. Charles Leffler, Martin Schlies and Clem Crane helped him with the work. Ben Schlies left the later part of last week for Hood River, where he expects to stay for the next several weeks, picking apples.

Clem Crane left Sunday evening for Sheridan, where he will pack apples during the season.

Those who attended the state fair from this community were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccleson, Lloyd Schaeffer, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Archambeau and family and Mary Schlies. Tom Fleming is hauling the straw stack on the Laura Leffler farm.

Mrs. A. T. Woolpert will open her home to members of Chapter Thursday afternoon. Mrs. F. D. Voight and Mrs. D. X. Beechie will be assistant hostesses. Rev. Fred Alben Weil of the Unitarian church will speak on the Russian primer.

A brilliant affair in Chadwick chapter, order of the Eastern Star circles, will be the reception to be an event of October 15, complimenting Mrs. Monnie Hauser, past worthy matron.
