

MARKET PLANS OF UNION TOLD

Mrs. Kappauf Describes at Bethel Organization Seen in Midwest

BETHEL, Oct. 5.—"There are great possibilities for fruit marketing within the Farmers' Union organization," declared Mrs. Betty M. Kappauf of Eugene, state secretary of the organization in Oregon, at the meeting of the Bethel local Monday night. Mrs. Kappauf toured Montana, North and South Dakota and Minnesota during the summer, broadcasting and speaking in the interest of Oregon fruit growers. She was deeply impressed with the fruit needs of that section of the country. The people there realize the need of fruit in their diet, and all that keeps them from buying Oregon fruit in great quantities is lack of money.

Following this survey, fruit marketing facilities have been arranged by the executive board of the state Farmers' Union, and James W. Richardson of Dayton has been sent into that area to sell Oregon dried prunes. He will contact the state officers and organized groups and officials, and it is believed that this opens a good outlet for much Oregon fruit.

Grain Elevators Plan

Mrs. Kappauf reported that 50,000 families are served by the Farmers' Union organization in that area. They have fine facilities for marketing this grain through 300 Farmers' Union elevators, and these states form the trade territory for the Farmers' Union cooperative livestock market in St. Paul.

Four hundred Union owned gas and oil stations supply these people, and in no instance has the gas investment failed to pay, and not one Farmers' Union gas station has ever closed.

Mrs. Kappauf was greeted by a large attendance Monday night, guests from neighboring districts and members of other locals. New members are to be received without payment of the initiation fee the remainder of this year.

Hunting Areas Closed

The hunting reserve is to be placarded at once, and all residents are to put up "No Trespassing" signs, as the district is to be closed to hunters again this year.

The Marion county convention is to be held at Central Howell the third Saturday of the month, October 16, beginning at 10 o'clock. A committee was appointed consisting of John Spranger, A. L. Schulz, A. C. Spranger, John Zak, and J. R. Carruthers to confer with the Macleay grange in protesting certain unfair taxation.

At the close of the meeting the women of the Union served supper.

BLAZE IN STUBBLE THREATENS TURKEYS

FERRYDALE, Oct. 5.—Careless campers caused a large forest fire at the old Martin Hill on Salt creek. Fifty men from Sheridan are assisting the men of Salt creek vicinity to fight the fire, which was set over the week end.

Stubble fire started Monday afternoon on the R. R. Massey farm a mile north of here and caused considerable "flurry" among the neighbors as the flames spread to the adjoining farm belonging to C. L. Gilson. Quick action in plowing around the Gilson buildings saved them from the flames. About 15 acres of clover was burned on the Gilson farm as well as 60 acres of stubble.

As soon as the men were nicely back to their work late in the afternoon, they were called again to assist in another stubble fire two miles south of town on the Garnet McCrow place. The fire covered an area of several miles in length, and it was late in the evening before the crew of 30 men was able to get the flames under control.

As the fire approached the G. G. Keyt hill, where C. L. Bratcher has some 1800 head of turkeys pastured, Mr. Bratcher secured a crew of 10 men to back-fire in order to save the flock. Another flock of 1200 turkeys belonging to Mr. Stevens of that vicinity were in great danger and were saved by plowing.
