Juror at Fault Draws $100 Fine

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The juror who talked to a defense attorney and caused a mistrial in the case of Senator James J. Davis threw himself on the mercy of the federal court Tuesday, said he "meant no harm" and was fined $100.

Henry F. Moore, the juror, was given 24 hours to pay the fine or be sent to jail for five days.

HORSES GET "FLU," TOO

MISSION BOTTOM, Oct. 5. — Fred Viesco lost a valuable horse last week. It is supposed that "flu" caused its death. A number of horses have suffered from this disease, which is thought to be caused by breathing the dust-laden air.

A motor fuel has been placed on the market in Germany containing 78 per cent synthetic gasoline and 22 per cent alcohol.

PRICES DROP WITH LIVELIEST TRADING

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Stocks today ran into blustery weather that blew prices down 1 to 5 points in the liveliest trading of the last fortnight.

Weakness was interrupted by brief intervals of dull steadiness, but prices resumed the decline after each respite and final quotations were virtually the lowest. Transactions totaled 2,951,760 shares.

A two-cent dip in wheat and smaller recessions in corn appeared to have hastened the decline, although probably the major markets reacted on each other. Farm implement issues weakened severely, Case showing a net loss of 8¼ points, but rails also were depressed and there was little to choose among leading utilities and industrials.

Although supporting levels looked rather thin, it was noted that the closing averages, 58.7, or 5.3 points not lower, was just above the September low.

Net losses of 4 to 5 points were numerous, embracing such stalwarts as U. S. Steel common and preferred, American can, Westinghouse, North American, New York Central, Southern Pacific, duPont, Norfolk & Western, Allied Chemical and International Harvester.

Santa Fe and Union Pcific bowed 7 points, while American Telephone and United Aircraft were off more than 5. Chrysler, Bethlehem, Kennecott, National Biscuit, Sears Robuck, Montgomery Ward, Consolidated Gas, Pennsylvania, Chesapeake & Ohio and Union Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward

LOCAL WHEAT PRICES ARE WEAKER

Securities Weakness Affects; Winnipeg Hits new low

CHICAGO, Oct. 5—(AP)—Big outbursts of selling plunged grain values downward today, wheat to the bottom-most level since August 3, with corn and oats reaching new low records.

Weakness of securities and of cotton before the grain markets opened had an unsettling effect, and for the most part grain traders regarded President Hoover's speech last night as not likely to have any immediate stimulating influence. Representative of these views were statements by Bartlett Frazier & Co., and the Norris Grain Co. contributing to the impetus of cereal prices, was the fact that wheat at Winnipeg fell to all-time new bottom quotations, October contracts there dropping below 49 cents a bushel.

Wheat closed unsettled, 2-2¾ cents lower than yesterday's finish, corn 1⅛-1⅝ down, oats ⅝ off. Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: Dec., .51⅞-.52; May, .57-.57⅛; July, .58¼.

Corn: Dec. .26⅝-⅞; May, .31-⅝-⅞; July, .33⅛.

Oats: Dec., .16⅛; May, .19⅝.

Templeton Case Will Reach Jury Today, Expected

SAN JOSE, Cal., Oct. 5. — (AP) — Prosecution and defense attorneys argued yesterday for the life of George Douglas Templeton, Jr. — the state demanding the death penalty for the alleged slaying of his aunt, while defense counsel sought to save him from the gallows charge.

It was indicated, when argument was interrupted by court adjournment last night, that the jury might receive the case sometime tomorrow.

Wheat, Oats, Barley Involved; Offers Down, Lettuce

Wheat markets here show considerable weakening, with prices based on the Portland market dropping two cents yesterday, and the buyers who base their offers on purely local conditions also dropping the price.

Based on Portland market, the offers here yesterday were 48 cents on western red and 50 cents on white. Buyers who supply the local trade only are offering from 45 to 50 cents, depending upon quality of wheat.

Gray oats continue to range from $16 to $19 a ton, but white oats is weaker at a top of $15.

Barley has also dropped a dollar a ton, to top of $15,000.

Offers to buyers on Labish lettuce dropped 10 cents, to 50 cents a crate, but the retail price will likely not break until the end of the week.

LARGE SUPPLIES TO AFFECT NEW WHEAT

The world wheat market is expected to be still under the influence of large stocks of wheat when wheat planted this fall is being marketed, according to the fall wheat outlook report released by the Oregon agricultural extension service.

"Improvement in the world wheat market situation seems to depend mostly upon increasing demand when economic conditions improve and as population gradually increases," the report states.

The wheat industry has been feeling the effects of a downward trend in prices since 1925. The farm price of wheat in this country has declined to 44 percent of the pre-war average. The downward price trend was accompanied by increasing world wheat production and larger carryover supplies, and was accentuated by the sharp decrease in consumer incomes and purchasing power since 1929.

Considering both production and carryover, the report says, world supplies of wheat for the 1932-33 marketing season are approximately the same as during the previous season.
