Marriage Revealed At Banquet of Sorority

The final formal banquet, last of the rush affairs to be given by Beta Chi sorority and an event of Thursday night at the sorority house, was one of unusual excitement and surprise.

Miss Ethel Adam, in general charge of the banquet and a senior in the university this year, announced her marriage to Dan Schreiber, a graduate of Willamette university with the class of 1927. The marriage took place July 1 in Dallas and had been kept a complete secret until Thursday night.

Mrs. Schreiber is registrar of Willamette university and a popular member of her sorority and university life. Mr. Schreiber is a member of the staff of the J. C. Penney store in Salem.

The announcement was made by Mrs. F. A. Elliott who read the news following the dinner hour. The dinner table, at which covers for 60 rush guests, alumnae members and resident members were placed, was beautifully arranged to carry out in orchid and white and all was effectively arranged into an ancient motif. Favors were tiny silhouettes in ivory done on a black background which fitted cleverly into the old-fashioned idea.

TRAVELIN' ON
Some like the city—it's bustle and thrill,
But I'll take the path that leads over the hill,
Me for the beauty of mountain
and vale,
Mine be the freedom to follow
the trail;
Onward and onward through sunshine and rain,
Let me but journey o'er valley
and plain,
No ties to bind me but thither
and yon,
Travelin' on — travelin' on!

Nothing to daunt me of struggle and strife,
Me for the joy of a vagabond
life,
Mine be the music of wind in the trees,
Mine the sweet perfume of flowers on the breeze, Daytime the sun and the sky overhead, Night time the bright moon to light me to bed,
I'll camp with the sunset, up with the dawn,
Travelin' on — travelin' on!

Active work of creative theatre of the Salem Arts league, began Wednesday night in the auditorium of the Salem library, when players were assigned to the two one-act plays selected for the first program of the season. The opening was especially gratifying on account of the exceptional talent that was interested in the work.

Lee Scheutman, formerly of the play producing department of Northwestern university; Miss Yvonne Smith, who has studied drama in Seattle; and Miss Veta Lenon, who has been studying dramatics in Portland and who was asked to become a member of the Portland Civic Theatre group, are among those who will take parts in the plays.

Those who will appear in "The Answer to a Maiden's Prayer," light comedy by Julia Lytle, are Yvonne Smith, Willis Percy, Helen Lytle and Everett Lisle.

In "The Alibi," drama by Edna Daly, will be Yvonne Smith, Veta Lenon, Consuelo Elismann, Everett Lisle, Lee Scheutman and Ervin Potter.

When these plays are ready for presentation, they will be given as a program of the Salem Arts league for the benefit of the general public.

STOCK JUDGING FOR S-H BOYS IS HELD

SILVERTON, Oct. 7 — The Smith-Hughes students of Willamette valley held a tour for stock judging practice in the Silverton community on Saturday. Beginning at 9:15 in the morning.

The boys gathered at the Mount Angel college dairy barn for two classes of Holsteins. From there the group went to the M. G. Gunderson Jersey and Poland China farm in the Bethany district. From the Gunderson farm the classes judged at the Frank Riches Hereford cattle farm in the Waldo Hills and then to the A. N. Doerfler farm also in the Waldo Hills and finally to the C. Nichols farm where Chester Whites were judged.

Invitations were sent to 14 schools by the Silverton Smith-Hughes department: Gresham, Forest Grove, Newberg, Amity, Dayton, Canby, Molalla, Cloverdale, Independence, McMinnville, Corvallis, Cottage Grove, Lebanon and Albany.

Hat, Lost in Ride In Car, Discovered Five Miles Ahead

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Oct. 7 — Mark Schneller had a recent unique experience which he considers eligible for the "Believe it or not?" column. While riding on the rear of a truck on the Coast highway, a frolicsome zeppher blew his hat away and he was unable to make the driver hear his hail for help until several more miles had been traversed.

After discussion of the matter, Schneller decided the hat was not worth going back for, so they proceeded on their way.

Five miles farther on they found the lost headgear in the middle of the road. Schneller is undecided whether a sea gull or a good fairy restored his property or whether the occupants of a car which passed them after it was lost picked it up and later discarded it.
