

MacDowell Club to Present Juliet Glen in Concert Monday Night at Grand

Musical Events Take Stellar Position on Calendar of Social Happenings For This Week

Juliet Glenn, Young and Brilliant Musician Will Sing Monday Night At Grand and Olga Steeb, Noted Pianist, Will Play Thursday

MUSIC is attracting the attention of Salem society for this week. Two important programs loom with the first an event of Monday at the Grand theatre with Miss Juliet Glen, vivacious and charming young singer, as the guest artist of the Salem MacDowell club in the first of its four artist programs to be presented this year.

Miss Glen is charming. She has just returned from an extended study and operatic work in France. For the past five months she has been in the United States. Part of this time she has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. I. M. Glen of Dallas, and now is just completing a tour of the northwest. Her concert in Eugene October 20 will conclude this tour and she will leave again November 1 for more operatic work in Paris.

For two years Miss Glen lived with the great Madame Calve and was not only her companion but her student. Together these two, the great artist whose fame has been made, and the forthcoming youthful artist, toured Europe down into Italy, in a well-known make of car. "A grand experience, and one most amusing", was the gay comment of this young artist whose enthusiasm and vivacity must surely be brilliantly expressed in her concert work.

Monday night she will sing for Salem and there are an unusually large number of Salem people anticipating this event and planning upon being present for it. The program will include:

- Die Forelle ..... Schubert
- Der Nussbaum ..... Schumann
- Feldensnackel ..... Brahms
- Meine Liebe Ist Grün ..... Brahms
- Chanson de Printemps ..... Gounod
- Tristesse ..... Chopin
- Chanson de Fortunio ..... Offenbach
- Elno ..... Gounod
- III ..... Grieg
- Im Kahne ..... Grieg
- Zueignung ..... Strauss
- Allerseelen ..... Strauss
- Do Not Go My Love ..... Hagenman
- Lass With the Delicate Air ..... Sharp
- Japanese Death Song ..... Sharp
- Morning ..... Speaks

The concert of Miss Glen will be followed by a formal reception at the home of Mrs. George Pierce, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, past president of the club, will introduce to the line, which will include Mrs. George Pearce, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, chorus director; Mrs. W. S. Levens, president of the club; Mrs. Walter A. Denton, vice-president; Miss Mary Cupper, secretary; Mrs. S. W. Starr, treasurer, and Mrs. Harris Letz, auditor.

Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Walter Zosel and Mrs. D. J. Bowe will greet the guests and assist about the rooms.

A second program of the week will be that of Miss Olga Steeb, well-known pianist and an artist of outstanding merit. Miss Steeb has appeared in Salem before and has a large circle of warm friends who will welcome her back.

Her artistry is shown not only in the brilliancy of her technique and the depth of interpretation, but also in the invariably interesting programs which she presents with true understanding.

It has always been her joy to give music lovers new works, or those little heard. Hence her choice of the new Respighi Piano Concerto in the Nixolydian Mode, which she played last year in London and at Santa Barbara, Dr. Artur Rodzinski conducting.

On these occasions she scored triumphant successes. This summer she gave a beautiful performance of the Liszt E Flat Concerto with Sir Hamilton Harty conducting. Her infallible sense of rhythm, ease of playing and the applause won for her the reputation among conductors as one of the most satisfactory orchestra soloists of the day.

Miss Steeb is booked for numerous engagements this coming year, the first bringing her to the northwest, where she opened the season for the Vancouver Women's club with a recital October 5. This is to be followed by a solo appearance with the Vancouver Symphony orchestra October 9. Miss Steeb's appearance in Salem is being sponsored by the Beethoven society of Willamette university.

A third recital to look forward to is that which is to be sponsored by the Ladies' Madrigal club of Salem at the First Christian church November 1, at which time the well-known and popular Portland cellist, Michael Aronstein, will appear.

Mr. Aronstein has played in Salem, having appeared in concert with Miss Mary Schultz last winter in a very lovely program. His return will be met with a warm welcome, it is safe to venture.

Salem Credit Women Form Breakfast Club

An interesting breakfast club has been formed by the Salem Credit Women and the first regular meeting will take place Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at the Marion hotel.

Chairman for general arrangements is Juanita Hald and of the investigating committee is Edna Townsend. Election of officers will be a part of the meeting Tuesday. Committee meetings for the past few days have developed some excellent ideas for making the meetings of much interest and value to the members, who will not only include credit women but also other business women of the city who are being asked to join.

This is the fifth of such clubs to be organized in the United States. The other four are in Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and Spokane. A club bulletin is being arranged and a "first issue" will reach destinations Monday. A large number of women have already signified interest in this organization.

Mrs. William Zosel, recently arrived from Coquille to make her home in Salem, was the inspiration for an attractive afternoon Saturday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert Gragg, at which time Mrs. Gragg entertained with a desert luncheon and following this was contract bridge.

State Meet is This Week's Event

WOMEN from over the state of Oregon will start arriving in Salem Monday to be present for the state Women's Christian Temperance Union convention which will convene here Tuesday morning at the First Presbyterian church.

This is the 49th annual state convention and will be presided over by Mrs. Ada Jolly popular president of the organization for the past seven years.

First Methodist Church Welcomes will be extended by various organizations and friends of the city. Special music arranged by committee and pep singing led by Miss Byrnes will be important part of the program. Mrs. Lucille McDonald, county president of Polk county will respond to the welcome addresses and Levi Pennington of the Friends College at Newberg will be the speaker of the evening.

Wednesday Morning, October 12 8:00—County presidents and directors of departments will hold conference 9:00—Formal opening of convention, announcements of committees. Reports of state officers and friends of the service. Wednesday Afternoon 1:30—State president's annual address. County president's afternoon on "The things I'd like my county to do." Thank offering service. The convention will be important part of the program. Mrs. Lucille McDonald, county president of Polk county will respond to the welcome addresses and Levi Pennington of the Friends College at Newberg will be the speaker of the evening.

Wednesday Night This will be "Youth Night" and young people are expected to attend in large numbers. A demonstration, "The Dry Parade" will be directed by Miss Margaret Stevenson, Miss Byrnes assisting. Addresses will be given by Miss Aldrich and Miss Byrnes on "The Big-Let Home" and "The Big-Abroad." Thursday Morning, October 13 There will be reports and election of officers. Reports of "Importance of my department in building the big program of the W. C. T. U. by directors. More county president's and talk on Our Farm Home by the superintendent, I. M. Gilbert. Thursday Evening There will be a playlet, "Who Elects Maloney," re-written and directed by Mrs. W. Sherman Thompson. An address by Miss Mabel L. Keech on "Sium work in Salem Days" and another by Rev. E. W. Nelson on "Oregon at the Crossroads."

Friday Morning, October 14 Unfinished business and directors of departments. Reports of committees. Friday Afternoon Most important time of all when the field service work to keep Oregon dry will be discussed by those who know the best. Mrs. Necla Buck, Miss Maud Aldrich, Miss Helen Byrnes and R. E. Close.

Chi Delta Delphians Will Meet Tuesday

Mrs. Lee Canfield will be hostess to members of the Chi Delta Delphians at her home, 1105 South High street, Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Carl Nelson will give the preliminary survey. Topics will be taken by Mrs. R. M. Waltz, Mrs. Fred Anunson, Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. C. M. Spencer, Mrs. L. D. Lambeth and Mrs. A. S. Hayes.

Mrs. W. W. Chadwick will entertain members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Jason Lee church at her home on North Winter street Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Edna Lively will lead the devotions and Miss Eunice Packard will give the lesson. Women of the community are invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. R. N. Olson, nee Mabel Ackerman, left for California this weekend to join Mr. Olson at San Francisco where he has been transferred. Numerous affairs were given complementing the Olsons immediately before their departure. Mrs. Carr Heinlein and Mrs. William Gossler entertained for them and several informal no-host parties were given.

TO APPEAR HERE

Miss Olga Steeb, known and loved by many Salem friends, and a prominent artist of the United States, who will appear in concert here at Waller hall Thursday night.

Portland Symphony Season at Hand

Rehearsal time is drawing near for the Portland Symphony orchestra whose 1932-33 season will open the night of November 7.

Rehearsal time ushering in as it does the late fall and winter months, is emphasized by a calendar received this week from William van Hoogstraten, conductor of the Portland Symphony orchestra, in which he says he will be sailing from Europe October 11, reaching Portland October 27 to start work immediately on the opening concert. The calendar comes from Bonn, Germany, where the distinguished conductor, following a highly successful engagement as guest conductor for the Beethoven festival this summer, later received an invitation to conduct a Brahms concert October 11. He accepted the honor, adding thereby another worldwide recognition to his leadership in the realm of music.

Although the coming symphony concert season is slightly shorter than last year, Portland's orchestra of 70 musicians will give to its audiences 14 weeks of Beethoven, Brahms, Wagner, Liszt, Strauss and other great masters. Nothing will be lost in the excellency of the programs offered, and the shorter season gives the advantage of lower-priced season tickets—indeed the lowest in years.

Two separate concert series are announced. There will be eight Monday night and six Sunday matinee programs, the latter so surprisingly inexpensive, parents are urged to give their children full advantage of the musical opportunity provided.

Arts League Will Begin Season

The Salem Arts League will begin its season with a business and program meeting Tuesday night in the auditorium room of the city library.

The business meeting will take place at 7:15 o'clock and at this time committees will be announced for the coming year and plans will be completed for the season's activities. President for this year is Lynn Grossmiller of the state forestry service.

A program will follow at 8 o'clock and this will have to do with fire hazards and with the natural beauties of Oregon as shown on illustrated pictures by W. V. Fuller.

Unusual Benefits Planned For Year

The American Association of University Women is planning a series of benefits this winter in order to swell the coffers of the fellowship fund.

These benefits will consist of interesting displays of old and unusual things which the public rarely has a chance to see on display. There will be a textile display and wedding gown display, in addition to the first of the series, which will be a display of old china, made up of Staffordshire, all of it rare antiques.

Mrs. Scott Jones, who lives two miles south of Gervais, is the owner, and has given permission for the display to be made in her home. Mrs. J. A. Jelderks is arranging labels and thus making the display of more value to those who admire but know not so much about the rareness of such objects of beauty.

The fellowship committee, headed by Miss Beryl Holt, is in charge of the plans. Signs will be arranged to lead to the Jones home and a tea hour will be part of the display.

Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. R. C. Reilly will preside at the tea urns during the tea hours.
The public is invited to enjoy this rare display.

Weekend Social Events Draw Large Attention From Among Salem's Busy Maids and Matrons

Marriage of Miss Simpkins and Mr. Deckebach Leads Attention; Monday Night Dancing Club Will Furnish Gay Social Flurry

THE weekend is one of interest in that it marked the marriage of two popular young people of Salem, Miss Velma Simpkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Simpkins and Donald Deckebach, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deckebach, Sr.

The affair was a lovely chapel wedding in St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. George Swift reading the service before intimate friends and relatives of the two families. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Kenneth Dalton played the wedding marches and played softly during the service. Miss Kathryn Elgin was the bride's only attendant and Clayton Foreman was best man for Mr. Deckebach.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Miss Joyce Anderson and Miss Frances Sande presided at the serving table.

Mr. and Mrs. Deckebach left by motor following the reception and will spend some time in Los Angeles. They will be at home to their friends at the Olympic apartments after November 1.

Coming close on the heels of the weekend will be the opening formal dance of the Monday Night Dancing club at Castilian hall. This club enjoys delightful social occasions during the winter season and the beginning dance will be an auspicious opening for the season.

Club membership this year includes:

NO MORE ANNOYANCE FROM BIFOCALS

Ever since it was discovered that bifocals are an immense relief and help to eyes, there has been a certain amount of discomfort in getting "used to them". But now optical science has developed a new bifocal that is much easier to wear, better for distant and close vision—the new Ful-vue bifocals. We'll be glad to show you the difference.
