REACTIONARY WEEK ENDS STILL DOWN

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Financial markets finished a reactionary week today with trends still downward.

Stocks benefited by late covering to the extent that extreme losses of 1 to 3 points or more were reduced, but traders exhibited no great haste in protecting short side profits, and the market was quieter on the upturn than on the decline.

The share market shifted frequently during the two hours. Publication of a favorable carloadings statement, which appeared prior to the cotton figures, made for a steadier tone in the rail shares, momentarily, but failed to have much influence on the general list. Net losses of numerous leaders ranged from fractions to a point, although the averages showed a decline of just two points. Turnover totaled 1,533,280 shares.

United States Steel common, with an unfilled tonnage statement coming next Monday noon, halved a point loss and the preferred rallied nearly 2, net. Bethlehem was soggy, off 1⅝, while General Motors, American Smelting, Westinghouse, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Baltimore & Ohio, North American, Consolidtaed Gas, American Tobacco B and Case yielded 1 to 2 net. Norfolk & Western flopped 5 on a few sales.

French, Swiss and Dutch currencies were up sharply, the Paris franc reducing to about half a point the margin separating it from the theoretical level at which gold could again be shipped from this country.

Bond's Prune Drier Is Burned to Ground

SWEGLE, Oct. 8—The prune dryer owned by O. P. Bond burned to the ground Friday night at 8 o'clock. The fire made such rapid headway that all the prunes ready for delivery were a total loss. Neighbors helped to prevent the fire from spreading to the barn and house.

EGG GAIN SHOWS MART STRONG
ROBUST CORN ACTIVITY DEVELOPS

Helps Rescue Wheat; Cotton Upset has Bearish Effect

CHICAGO, Oct. 8—(AP)—Robust activity and strength sprang up in the corn market today and helped rescue wheat from bearish effects of a big upset of cotton values.

Wheat temporarily gave way under a renewal of stop loss selling, and outdid the season's latest bottom price record. A fairly large export business in corn gave rise to a widespread impression that United States corn prices were now on a world basis. Talk was heard, however, that the corn so far taken for overseas had been upon a below re-placement basis.

Corn closed unsettled 3-8 to 3-4 above yesterday's finish, wheat a shade to 3-8 down, oats 1-8 to 1-4 up.

Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: Dec. 49 5-8 to 3-4; May 54 3-4 to 7-8; Jly. 55 7-8.

Corn: Dec. 26 5-8 to 3-4; May 31 5-8 to 3-4; Jly. 33.

Oats: Dec. 16; May 18 3-4.

Outsiders Forcing in Undergrades; Mart Poultry Steady

PORTLAND, Oct. 8 — (AP) — The advance of one cent in the price of pullet eggs which became effective at the weekend by order of E. J. Dixon, general manager of the Pacific co-ops, indicates that in practically all positions the local market stands on firm ground. No changes were made in other sizes. The advance in pullets suggests not only a greater call but a lessened supply than seasonable.

There still appears a disposition on the part of outsiders to wreck the Portland market by their sales of undergrades to some of the larger consumers, the Journal said today. These are taking the place of good eggs and naturally keeps this market from showing the strength the actual situation demands.

Little change is shown outside markets for recent days.

There was no change in general butter market trading for the weekend.

Market for chickens is very much inclined to show steadiness here. Since the failure of the plan of killers to keep down the buying price on light hens to 7c, everyone has appeared fairly anxious to buy at 8c, which is only a fraction of its worth compared with San Francisco.

KEIZER FINISHES PRUNE HARVESTING

2000 Tons Green Fruit Handled; Walnut Crop Big; Picking Apples

KEIZER, Oct. 8—The prune harvest is completed in this district. There were 13 driers in operation during the season, putting out 550 tons of the dried fruit which meant 1650 tons of green fruit. Besides this there were several growers who sold their prunes green which would raise the amount of green fruit harvested to over 2000 tons or four million pounds.

Approximately 150 men were employed in the driers.

If the price received could be made to sound anywhere nearly as large as the tonnage the growers of the Keizer district would certainly think the depression was over. But with the fresh fruit at six or even ten dollars a ton and the largest dried prunes at 3⅛ cents a pound, farmers wish that the prune trees were walnut trees.

The walnut crop in this vicinity will be large this year and the quality is beyond the average. Filberts are quite extensively grown too and the crop is immense.

Several farmers are now filling their silos, a diversion from fruit. The apple harvest is on now but will be a short season, for the crop is small, probably not more than a fifth of last year's yield.

HOGS STEADY, BUT CATTLE BARELY SO

PORTLAND, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Cattle receipts 2318, calves 147 for the week.

Trade in cattle was slow, and barely steady all week with the exception of steers, which were depressed and weaker. Top steers were around $5.50, with next best stuff at $5.35 and bulk of desirable sorts $4-5, with major portion scaling $4.50 and less. Heifers were $4.35 for top with bulk around $4; cows sold $3.25 for best with a few selections around $3.50; bulk scaled $2.75 down; medium to fairly good bulls were $2-3; vealers generally $6 down, with a spread of $2.50-6.50.

Hogs—Receipts 5132 for week. Trade considered steady as a rule with some moments of strength and weakness, and practically no net price change for period. Light butchers generally scaled $4.35-4.50, with a few decks early Monday at $4.60-4.65; heavy sorts were around $3.50-4, with packing sows $3 generally, a few at $3.25; killer pigs were $2.75 generally, few at $4; feeder pigs sold $4, with a few at $4.25 Monday.

Sheep and lambs — Receipts 2886 for week. Trade in general was quotably steady. Good to choice, under 90-pound lambs sold $4.25-4.50, with medium to good, all weights, $3-4; good to choice yearlings $2-2.75; cull to choice ewes 50c-$1.

Hop Offers Reach Highest Price of Season Past Week

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 8—Especial interest is being shown in this community over the prices obtained for hops of this last season. So far 16¾ cents is the highest price.

A. M. Lawson bought the Sloper, Patton & Gooch crop of 101 bales for 16 cents per pound. This lot is for English consignment it is stated here. The Seavey hop company has paid 16¼ cents for 200 bales of Silverton hops from two growers. M. A. Winn has made delivery of his crop of 133 bales to Otto Seidenberg of New York, for 15½ cents.
