

All-Veteran College of Idaho Team Awaits Willamette

PAST CLASHES YIELD NO DOPE

Cornell may Send Exactly Same Team Onto Field As in 1931 Game

Football teams of Willamette university and College of Idaho will trot out under the lights—and into the frosty night air—against Willamette Friday night, all square in their series of annual encounters since the organization of the Northwest conference, but with the Coyotes holding a big advantage because their 1931 lineup will be practically intact except in possibly two positions where exceptional freshman material may have displaced the veterans.

In the six seasons of the present Northwest conference, College of Idaho won the first three games from Willamette and the Bears won the next three, so they have not been defeated by Almo-Cornell's men since 1928. That year the score was 53 to 0, but the next year, the one in which Willamette won the conference title, the Bears made up for that by trouncing the Coyotes 42 to 0.

Thrilling Windup Of 1930 Recalled

In case Willamette gets behind Friday night, there will be two or three Bears who may recall something encouraging—the 1930 game on the same field when, one point behind until the last few minutes of play, a couple of Scandinavians in Willamette's backfield got their Irish up, the rest of the nationalities pitched in and the Bears came away with a victory by a score of 34 to 14.

They scored 20 points in hardly any time at all. Last year Willamette won here 20 to 0 but conditions are different now. The Bearcat backfield has not yet proven conclusively that it can go places. It made considerable yardage against Washington State, but has yet to cross anybody's goal line.

On the other hand College of Idaho, always a scoring threat even against the big schools because of its tricky double wing back offense and exceptional passing attack, is all primed for this year. A year ago this team, eleven, a green outfit then, came within a few inches of scoring on a veteran Willamette crew. Now the situation is reversed; those Coyotes are now veterans and they will go up against a relatively green Willamette squad.

No Regulars Lost From Coyote Squad

Cornell may send a team exactly the same line as last year except that Barney, then a fullback, will be at left end, and Fitch, last year a reserve, probably will be at center. This line will include two all-conference men: Hudgens, tackle, and Smith, guard. Tucker at guard, Davis, tackle and Carlson at end are all veterans.

In the starting backfield may be Brown at quarter, Dietrich and Wilson at half, Maxwell at full; all veterans. Maxwell was the star passer and kicker for Cornell's eleven last year. But, it is reported, he is eclipsed by Keener, a freshman, in both of those departments. Keener may start in place of Wilson.

Although it was hoped last week that Coach Keene would have his crimples from the Oregon State game ready for the Caldwell trip, there is little likelihood that Erickson, Jones and Frantz will get into this game, and none for Dave Drager, whose ankle has mended less rapidly than the others'. The three backfield men are turning out, but are not yet "bearing down," and of course are not prepared to participate in the offense with any semblance of timing. It is probable that the Willamette starting backfield will be the same as against Washington State: Paul, Oravec, Cannady and Olson. Oravec and Olson showed up exceptionally well against the Cougars.

Loan Reduction For Counties is Explained Here

Action of the Reconstruction Finance corporation in reducing from $83,000 to $45,000 the relief loan requested by Coos and Wallowa counties, was due to a ruling of the finance corporation that no loans shall be retroactive. This information was contained in a telegram received at the executive department Tuesday.

The counties originally asked for a loan covering the months of September, October, November and December. That part of the proposed loan covering September was eliminated by the finance corporation.

Retroactive loans are contrary to the policy of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, Governor Meier was informed.

Cecil Sowa Hurt As Loose Gravel Skids, Motorcycle

WOODBURN, Oct. 11.—Cecil Sowa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sowa of Woodburn, is suffering from an accident which happened Saturday night when he and Leonard Englin were riding a motorcycle on their way to Mt. Angel. They struck loose gravel, throwing Cecil against a telephone pole, cutting several gashes in his head. He was unconscious for several hours, but seems to be improving slowly. Leonard received slight injuries to his knee.

Melvin, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elkins of Woodburn, is seriously ill with influenza.

Castro in Debut Proves to Be "Strong Man"; Cordona Gets Nickname "Cannibal"

Did you notice the hesitant, apologetic way in which the rain started? Shucks, Jude, you're as welcome right now as the weekly pay check.

Reports that the Bears came out of the Cougar game totally unscathed were a trifle exaggerated. Frank Haley, one of the most irrefragable of the Willamette backfield men though he isn't a regular, suffered a couple of caved-in ribs after taking a pass and sprinting for a 40-yard gain that was called back because somebody was offside.

The University of Oregon Emerald, which we have had occasion to mention once or twice recently, is trying to put the state college "on the spot" by clamoring for the Stater-Webfoot grid game to be transferred to Portland as a charity affair.

Advance notices of the "campaign" in which the Emerald plans to conduct sound objectionably dogmatic, intimating that all parties concerned will be forced to show their hand and that the game will be placed definitely if the game isn't transferred.

The Emerald, as we have observed heretofore, is being run by Dick Neuberger, former Oregonian sport writer, who continues to have a Portland complex, and no doubt he counts upon, or has been promised, a lot of Portland support.

We are not opposed to charity, nor do we question the necessity for large charity funds this year. But the need is not appreciably greater than last year, and we did not, at that time when the university had its turn to decide where the sanitation nor any action to take the game away from Eugene and give it to charity. Instead, a post-season game was played in Portland for charity, the winner of the Stater-Webfoot game being scheduled to play it and Oregon State actually getting the call though the state classic was a scoreless tie.

So now the university, and not the college, owes Portland a charity game, and we cannot see why the college and Corvallis should be browbeaten and coerced. It looks as though young Mr. Neuberger has ambitions to be a "Little Caesar."

Golden Anniversary Of Chaney Wedding Observed, Newberg

MONMOUTH, Oct. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Huber and Mrs. R. J. Hampton of Monmouth were guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chaney at Newberg, where the Chaney were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. Chaney is a brother of Mrs. Hampton.

Mrs. Chaney, whose maiden name was Minnie Sherman, is a native of Oregon. Mr. Chaney came from Polk county, Missouri, to Polk county, Oregon, in 1876 with his parents, who settled in the Eola hills. For many years after their marriage the Chaney lived on a farm near Monmouth which they sold about 10 years ago, and have since lived at Newberg.

The Chaney have five children, Amy, who lives at Dundee, Mrs. Winifred Ball of Portland, Mrs. Bertha Harding of Salem, Harley of Condon and Horace of Newberg.

Americans are estimated as spending $4 annually per capita for medicine.

LESLIE FACING OPENER FRIDAY

Flesher to Take Squad to Oregon City With Small Hope for Victory

Coach Gurnee Flesher of Leslie junior high will take his squad to Oregon City Friday for the first game of the season, against the Oregon City junior high.

Leslie tied Oregon City in one of two games last year and won the other, but Coach Flesher is not predicting any such favorable showing for his team this season, as he has practically an entire new squad and it lacks the bulk as well as the experience of his 1931 edition.

Leslie's home season will open next Thursday when the Dallas high school team comes here. The Lebanon and Aumville second teams may be other opponents of Leslie this season.

Coach Flesher is not certain what his lineup will be in a number of positions for Friday's game. He is especially uncertain about the guards, of whom there are at least five of about equal calibre. They include McAllister, Hysler, Brady, McCone and Warren.

Lewis is expected to be his choice for center, Wallace for left tackle, Dunn or Turpening for right tackle, Foster for left end and Gurgurich on the other extremity. Staples, the lone remaining veteran, will be the quarterback with Curry or Relman at full. Browning and Osland probably will be the half-backs.

Silverton Plays Molalla Next in League Contest

SILVERTON, Oct. 11.—The first league game of the high school football season at Silverton will be played Friday when Molalla will journey here. The game has been called for 3 o'clock and the probable Silverton lineup for opening will be: E. F. Pettyjohn; lt. G. Cline; lg. C. Morley; c. E. Johnson; rg. E. Egan; rt. J. Scott; re. D. Marshall; q. A. Johnson; rf. A. Rudishauser; lb. Willig; f. N. Kollin.

Scio and Shedd To Play Friday

SCIO, Oct. 11.—On Friday of this week, Oct. 14, Scio's football team meets the Shedd team at Shedd. This will be the first county game for Scio. After the showing Scio made against Aumville last week, the home team should bring home a victory.

Washington Ties Grant, No Score

PORTLAND, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Washington and Grant high schools fought to a scoreless tie in their football game here today. It was the third year that the two teams were deadlocked. Two years ago their game ended 12 to 12. Last year they stood each other off with no score.

GAME AT WEST SALEM

WEST SALEM, Oct. 11.—There will be a football game at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, October 14, with the Liberty boys' squad on the West Salem field.

Ucla Bruins Are to Head North Today

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Coach Bill Spaulding today named 33 players who will make the trip to the northwest this week end for the University of California at Los Angeles' game with Oregon Saturday.

Although Leonard Bergdahl, all-time quarterback, was expected to make the trip, it was considered unlikely now that he will go as the Bruins, intent on making a strong showing, would be unable to use him because of the chipped bone in his arm, now healing. The team leaves tomorrow night.

Approximately a third of the squad and Coach Spaulding went through today's last hard practice suffering from colds, but they hope to be in shape by Saturday. Those making the trip include: Captain Homer Oliver, Lee Coates, William Merrill and Clarence Baldwin, centers; John Wood, Clayton Yearick, Edward Austin, Verdi Beyer and Fred Haslam, guards; Tom Rafferty, Houghton Norfleet, Kerns Hampton, Raney and Reel, tackles; Walter Muller, Walter Stickle, Bill Maxwell, Art Elver, Del McGue, Bob McChesney and Sinclair Lott, ends; Mike Frankovich, Joe Berry, Edgar Hassler, quarter-backs; Bob Decker, Cliff Lightner, Ransom Livesey, Walter Clark, halves, and Joe Keeble and Bob Hendry, fullbacks.

Monmouth Student Body Names Price As 1932 President

MONMOUTH, Oct. 11.—Monmouth high school elected student body officers yesterday as follows: President, obert Price; vice-president, Roger Beckley; secretary, Annetta Schweizer; treasurer, Thelma Allor; editor of High Times, Barbara Jane Powers; athletic manager, Manley Hawk.

Total registration in the high school has reached 97, the largest enrollment in many years. The new seats have been installed in the assembly room to accommodate the extra entrants due largely to elimination of the ninth grade in the training school, giving the high school a large freshman class.

SPAUDLING HEADS ASK VOTING TRUST

Stockholders to at least the extent of 51 per cent of the certificates outstanding, are being asked to form a five-year trust of their voting rights in the Spaulding Pulp company at Newberg, a circular received by local stockholders this week shows. Thirteen trustees are to be designated to vote the trust which will run until 1937.

Formation of the voting trust, it is understood, will permit the Newberg company to fund its outstanding indebtedness and to avoid receivership. One hundred thousand dollars of first mortgage bonds bearing six per cent interest are to be issued and sold and from these, taxes and other pressing claims are to be met. An additional issue of $250,000 in "income bonds" will be put out, these going to present creditors. These bonds will pay six per cent, when and if earned. Equity of the stockholders, the circular says, will be preserved.

Meanwhile the mill is closed down due to prevailing low prices for pulp. The Spaulding lumber mill adjacent to the pulp mill has also been closed down for a considerable period. Charles Spaulding is president of the pulp mill and J. C. Camp-ton, McMinnville, is vice president. The plant was constructed in 1927 and 1928.

Mrs. Ida Bates is Laid to Rest From Home at Rosedale

ROSEDALE, Oct. 11.—The funeral services for Mrs. Ida Bates, held from the church here Saturday afternoon, were attended by many relatives and friends from different points in the valley. The services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Haworth of the South Salem Friends church assisted by Rev. and Mrs. Haldy.

Emmer Newby of Washougal, Wash., sang several selections. Mrs. Bates has lived in the community for many years and was loved by all.

The junior girls class of the Sunday school met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Cammack Saturday afternoon to celebrate several birthdays of the class. After playing several games all enjoyed the birthday cake which was brought by Margaret Campbell. Guests present were Josephine Haldy, Lavinia Brown, Ena Pearson, Thelma and Dixie Rose, Vel-jeda Trick, Margaret Campbell. Rally day program is Sunday at the Sunday school hour. Laura Cammack will speak at 11:00 o'clock.

California Sadly In Need of Rains, Kings Find There

BETHEL, Oct. 11.—Mrs. P. A. King and her son, Edgar King, arrived home Monday night from a month's motor trip to her old home in Nebraska. Utah was having a little rain but they found the middle west very dry, though there had been enough rain during the season to produce a good crop of corn, and the watermelons were very large and fine.

They were especially impressed by the wide, smooth roads. On the return trip they came through California, but they found it so hot and dry that they made no sightseeing trips. The portions of California which they passed through have had no rain for six months.

RICHARDSON WILL UPHOLD BY COURT

The state supreme court, in an opinion written by Justice Kelly, Tuesday affirmed the decree of Judge Taswell of the Multnomah county circuit court in a suit filed by Ethel M. Richardson, to revoke an order probating the will of John C. Miter, deceased, and appoint a new administrator.

The will, which was executed in Salem in 1928, bequeathed to each of Miter's four nieces $4000. The plaintiff charged that Miter was incompetent at the time the will was executed.

Both the circuit court for Multnomah county and the state supreme court held the probate proceedings valid, and refused to disturb the will or direct the appointment of a new administrator to handle the estate.

The supreme court also affirmed a decree of Judge H. K. Zimmerman of the Columbia county circuit court in a suit brought by Harry and Nora Sibley against W. H. Pitta. This action involved a contract of sale and foreclosure proceeding.
