

TURNER CLUB OPENS SEASON

Votes to Join Talent Contests; Hears Report on Scout Work

TURNER, Oct. 12. — Turner community club enjoyed its first meeting of the fall season Monday night, with a good crowd and much interest shown in the business meeting and plans proposed by the new president, Henry Ahrens.

It was voted to enter the county talent contest, with the following committee to report at the next meeting: C. A. Bear, Mrs. Carl Booth, Mrs. S. A. Riches, Miss Helen Peetz and D. B. Parks.

The club's new local committees are: General advisor, Mrs. S. A. Riches; program, D. B. Parks, with the assistance of district chairman, Turner, Mrs. Elizabeth Ball; Crawford, Mrs. Milton McKinley; Pleasant View, Mrs. Margaret Miller; Summit, Carl Booth; Clatskanie, Mrs. J. A. Coov; Battle Creek, Bert Peelies. Civic improvement, Joe McKinney, Hugh Webb, Cecil Martin, E. J. Harrison, Charles Standley; publicity, Mrs. C. L. Clark; refreshments, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., Mrs. L. Barker, Mrs. Lloyd Jarnen and George Brower.

The club voted late last spring to sponsor a Boy Scout troop. A small group of boys took up the preliminary work during the summer and now with new boys adding are ready to get to work in earnest with their scoutmaster, Waldo Riches, who announced they would meet at the school-house on Tuesday nights. Rev. N. Sherman Hawk, who is familiar with the work, will be assisting during the summer, as did J. B. Parks, chairman of the sponsoring committee.

Rev. Hawk gave a short talk on the work of the organization. D. B. Parks announced the program which opened with music by the power orchestra. "Fall Opening" was given by about 20 girls and small children, with Mrs. Mae Hadley at the piano. Arthur Bestvater gave two solo numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Hadley at the piano. Olga Garner gave a monologue, and responded with reading for her second number. A humorous reading by Mrs. Wanda Versteeg and orchestra music closed the program.

Willamette Valley Vocational Group Meets October 26

SILVERTON, Oct. 12. — The Willamette Valley Vocational Instructors will meet at Silverton on October 26 for a banquet and evening program. This group includes the Trades and Industrial instructors and the Smith-Hughes agricultural instructors, both under the Smith-Hughes act and the manual training instructors. William Gates of the Silverton high school manual training department and Warren Crabtree of the Smith-Hughes department have charge of making the arrangements. The program will be put on by the Eugene delegation. The Willamette valley group includes those from Eugene to Portland.

Mrs. A. R. Ewing Heads Community Club For New Year

BRUSH COLLEGE, Oct. 12. — The board of trustees of the Brush college community club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. John Schindler to elect officers. Mrs. A. R. Ewing was elected as president; Charles Glase, vice-president; A. E. Utley, secretary and Mrs. John Schindler as treasurer. An excellent program is being planned for the first meeting Friday night, October 21.

IN MYSTERY

Marian Elliot Jenkinson, of Milford, N. H., who was found shot to death in a New York hotel room. The fact that a revolver was clutched in the girl's hand pointed to suicide, but the finding of a note addressed to the hotel manager, telling of her being pursued by a man, started an investigation on a murder theory. Miss Jenkinson is believed to have eloped some time ago from Worcester, Mass.

200 FOLKS ATTEND EVENT ON ISLAND

Amelia Magness Honored as Only Woman Living There 51 Years old

GRAND ISLAND, Oct. 12. — The homecoming held Sunday on the school grounds was a great success in every way. The event, sponsored by the Grand Island Improvement club, was the first of its kind to be held. Due to the beautiful day the entire program was given out of doors.

The morning program included selections given by a male quartet composed of Erel Gubser, Rex Peffer, D. Lynn Gubser and Charles E. Nelson; address of welcome by Charles E. Nelson, president of the club; talk by Morton Tompkins, state representative; instrumental music by Le-cille Fisher and the main address given by Max Gehlhar of Salem. Mr. Gehlhar gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the problems confronting the agriculturists of today.

A beautiful basket dinner was served out of doors during the noon hour. The afternoon program opened with community singing directed by Rex Peffer of Dayton, talk by D. Lynn Gubser of the Unionvale district, early memories of the island were recalled by Mrs. Mercy Tompkins and J. A. Methorn of this district.

DOWNPOUR BRINGS RURAL HAPPINESS

ELDRIDGE, Oct. 12.—Tony Leise finished sowing a 20-acre field of oats and vetch this week. He, with other farmers here, is happy over the rains, and holds them a great benefit. Plowing and seeding will start in earnest after 24 hours of good soaking rains.

Grading of new county road one fourth mile north of the Eldridge school began this week. This stretch of road is about one mile in length and begins near the A. L. Collins farm on the Salem Champego highway 12 miles north of Salem, and leads onto the county road east of the school.

Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent visited Eldridge school Tuesday. Henry Haverkamp and his family are busy with fall work on the farm known as the Zaladorf place and recently rented by them. The family moved here from East Salem.
