Yo' Ho' . . . where are you?

You know its funny, how things work out sometimes. We sit down the other day, not that there's anything so strange about our sittin down. But we go to thinkin and if you've ever done that or have ever read onea our ads, you know how distressing that is (we mean thinkin is distressin not readin our ads). Well we figured as we were thinking anyway we just as well think about everybody at the same time—that of course is the way we do things, big dontja know (in a big way we mean). Now that weve got the preliminaries over we've forgotten what the heck-it was we were thinkin about— Oh yeah we were just thinkin that as nearly every body trades at one or the other of Busick's Stores just why is it we cant make it unanimous. That is funny isnt it? Every body knows the prices at these Stores are as low or even lower in most instances than elsewhere. Cant be the quality, heavens no. Every one admits the quality of foods sold at these stores is away above the average. Couldn be the service, great guns no, thers about fifty of us around these Stores constantly planning better ways to be of service to you. Now what do you think of that? Yeah what do ye? That may be the answer. Anyway we like to be of service to you and it sure pleases us when we have an opportunity to do so. And now with the above casual remarks we extend you an inventation to come and see us sometime.
