Community Group At Salem Heights Will Meet Tonight

SALEM HEIGHTS, Oct. 13.—Friday, October 14, at 8 o'clock the Salem Heights community club will hold its first meeting of the season. Tuesday night the executive board with Roy Bohannon president met at the community hall with other committees and formulated plans for the meeting Friday night and took up other matters of interest pertaining to community club activities for the coming year. It was decided that the first meeting for the year would be a get-together and get-acquainted affair and a special invitation is extended to all new people in the district. Arrangements have been made for a short business session, a social hour in which all new people will be introduced and following this will be the evening's program. JAMES DENNIS HURT MILL, ORE., Oct. 13.—James Dennis, who was injured Monday when he was pinned against the railing of the bridge in the Hammond mill by a tractor and bruised about the hips, is reported as not being injured as seriously as first believed. He is confined to his home, however, recovering from shock and minor lacerations.

Annual Reception For Scio Freshman Is Slated Tonight

SCIO, Oct. 13.—The freshman class will be guests at the annual freshman reception Friday night, October 14, at the high school gymnasium. The sophomore class is in charge of all arrangements. Games and stunts will be part of the evening's entertainment. All high school students and their parents are invited to attend. Heyon Myers, sophomore president, has named the following committees: Program, Edris Taylor, chairman; Irene Falon and Melvin Holt; refreshments, Thelma Karnosh, chairman, Grace Slodge and Lucille Jackson.

TOO DRY FOR KILLING ROBERTS, Oct. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Higgins just returned from a trip over the McKeanie Pass to Camp Shurman, where they visited their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Gray, and also at Suttle Lake and Blue Lake. The men spent their time deer hunting, but reported no luck on account of the awful dry weather.

MISS ELIZABETH REGER use K C Baking Powder in the THE STATESMAN

Cooking School. She explained its high quality and the economy in using K C in your baking.

Owing to its great leavening strength a smaller amount of K C is used per recipe than of high priced brands.

It's Double Acting
In using K C one action takes place in the mix, the second in the oven, insuring perfect baking results.
