

GRANGE SLATES BALLOT DEBATE

When Three Measures to be Argued; Regular Meet- ing is Held

STAYTON, Oct. 18.—W. A. Dellzell and G. Safied of Salem were the principal speakers at the regular grange meeting held here Saturday. Other numbers on the program were recitation by Ruth Kohl; reading of a letter from the national master by Mrs. Ethel Hart; reading by Mrs. Rena Tate, a two act pantomime by Mrs. Ethel Hart, Arthur McKenzie and Andrew Fery, with appropriate music by Mrs. G. F. Korinek and Jack Richards and an original reading by Miss Ella Williams.

At the next regular meeting election of officers will take place, as well as several other important features.

Hallowe'en Party Plan
Grangers and their friends are looking forward to Saturday night, October 22, when the local grange will give a Hallowe'en party at the hall. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hart and Mrs. Amelia VanErmen will have charge of the refreshments and cards. Those desiring to play cards may do so in the upper hall, while in the lower hall various party games will be played under the direction of a committee consisting of Mrs. Elizabeth Crabtree, Mrs. M. Nipple and Mrs. Tom Tate.

All who attend the party are urged to wear some costume in keeping with the Hallowe'en idea.

Political Rally 3rd
Stayton grange is sponsoring a political rally to be held at their hall on Thursday evening, November 3, at which time three of the important measures on the coming election ballot will be debated upon.

There will be both affirmative and negative speakers on the freight truck and bus bill, state water power and hydroelectric constitutional amendment and the bill moving university, normal and law schools, establishing junior colleges. The public is invited to attend this meeting and gain further knowledge on these important questions.

METHODIST RALLY DAY HELD, TURNER

TURNER, Oct. 18.—Rally day was observed Sunday at the Methodist Sunday school with good attendance. Mrs. Emma Gunning, chairman of the program committee, announced the program. Mrs. F. J. Gunning gave a missionary talk, which preceded a short class period. Other numbers were: "I Am Rally Day," reading by John Hawk; recitation, Joyce Kunker; song by primary class; song, Homer and Norval Hadley; recitation, Eleanora Sparks; song, Lowell Hadley; recitation, Arthur Parks; recitation, Stanford Prather, Jr.; quartet, Rachel Garner, Eloise Melis, Alvin Garner and F. J. Gunning; recitation, Marion Parks; play, "Missionary Dolls," by Kathleen Sparks, Loraine Barnett, Fern Clark and Lois Gunning; recitation, Norval Hadley; exercise, "The Bible," by the Sunshine class. Anthem by the choir and address by the pastor Rev. N. Sherman Hawk.

Student Teachers Will Give Musical Program Tomorrow

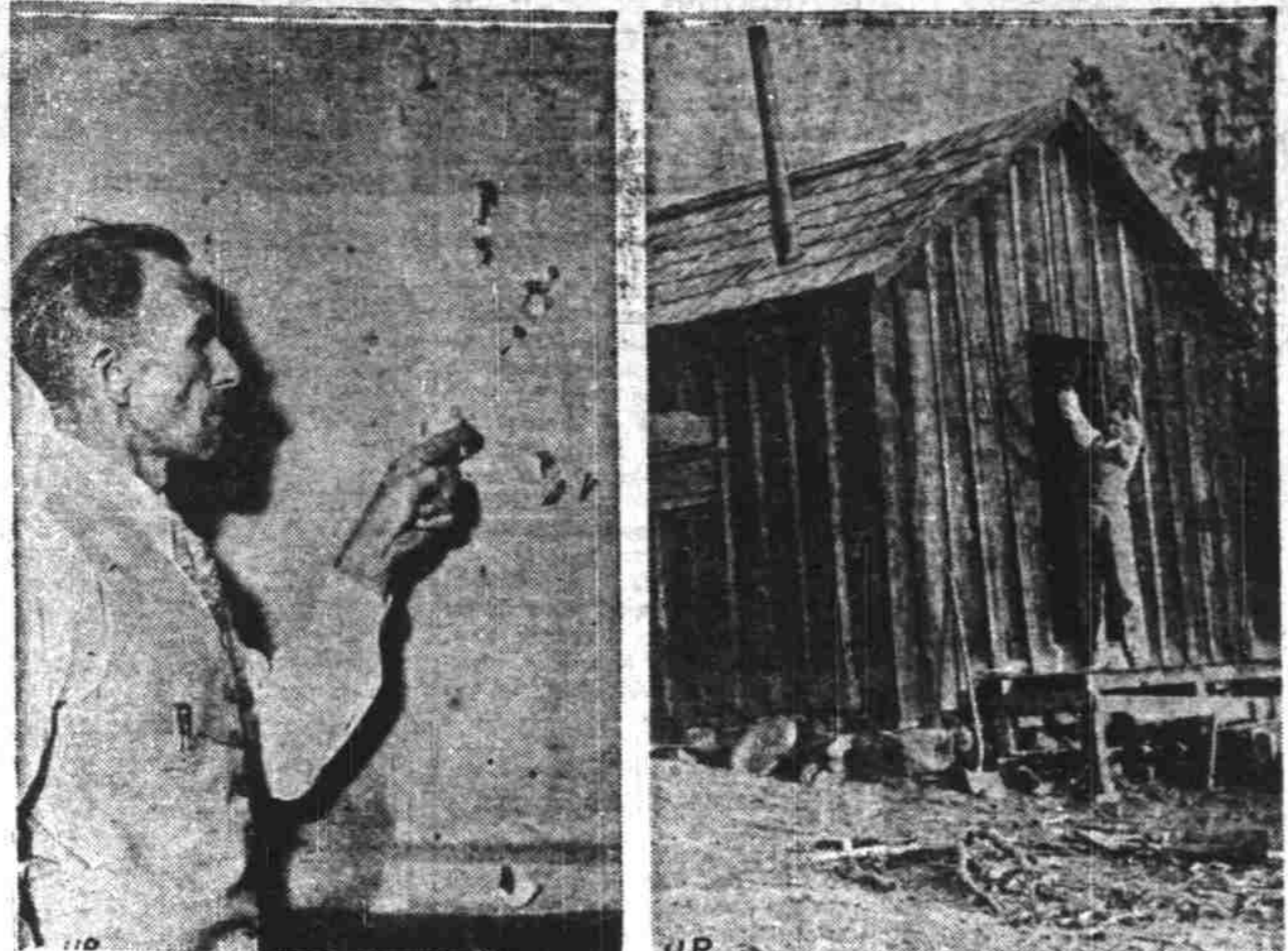

SALEM HEIGHTS, Oct. 18.—Music teachers from Willamette university who are doing practice teaching at the Salem Heights school will furnish the musical program for the teachers' reception sponsored by the Women's club at the Community hall Thursday, October 30, at 8 o'clock. The teachers are Miss Marjory O'Dell and Elizabeth Clement. Dean Erickson, chairman of the board, will give the address to the teachers and Roy Bohanon, president of the Community club, and Gladys Washburn, president of the Women's club, will give talks.

INSULL OUT

Modestly shielding his face from the camera, Martin Insull, of the utilities family, is shown as he left the Simcoe County jail, Ontario, Can., where he had spent three days while his friends were trying to raise the $50,000 to pay his bail. All Insull would say about his incarceration was "It was terrible."

VETERAN, MISTAKEN FOR BANDIT, SHOT BY POSSE

William O. Allen, 43, was a veteran of the World War, but he saw no active combat until a posse surrounded his cabin in the foothills near Bangor, Cal., and sent a fusillade of shots into the structure to drive him out. The posse thought he was a bandit when he ducked out of sight as the officers approached. Allen, at the left, is pointing to holes made in his cabin by buckshot from saved-off shotguns. Despite the fact he was wounded in the thigh, he posed for the picture to the right.

RETURNING HUNTERS BRING QUOTA DEER

ZENA, Oct. 18.—A hunting party including W. Frank Crawford of Zena, V. Lee Gibson and son Paul Gibson of Brush College and Duane Gibson of Salem returned Friday from Lakeview, a few miles from the Nevada line. They bagged three deer, the largest weighing 250 pounds. They reported that the deer were plentiful and hunting was good. Hunters from this district who have been successful while on deer hunting trips this season report that the deer are plentiful in good flesh. One party reported seeing a herd of 15 does at one time while hunting recently. Wayne D. Henry, Zena; Elmer Cook and Charles Adams of West Salem, who left here a week ago enroute to their hunting lodge in the Blue mountains 10 miles from Paisley, came home Sunday with three deer. They traveled through a snow storm for 30 miles over the McKenzie pass and saw several snow plows at work near Sisters.

Student Paper is Innovation; Bates Is Editor-in-Chief

HUBBARD, Oct. 18.—For the first time the high school will have a mimeograph school paper this year. It is Hubbard Hi-ways and it will be published bi-weekly. The editorial staff will be: chief of staff, Eugene Sikke; editor-in-chief, Crawford Bates; assistant editor, Anna Kasper; manager, Marion Carl; sports editor, Garfield Voget; society editor, Helen Paulson; literary editor, Betty Brown; cartoonist, Dorothy McKee; assistant cartoonist, Marjorie Wolfer; humorist, Jack Moomaw; and proof reader, Mrs. Florida.

Hazel Green Girl In Eastern Oregon For Hunting Trip

HAZEL GREEN, Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. M. Kusach and children, Hazel and Joyce, of Dec. Oregon, were visitors at the James Yada home. Mrs. Kusach, a sister of Mrs. Yada, attended school here when her parents were engaged in raising celery on Labish Meadows.

Avert Vanderpool Dies at Age of 72

WELLS, Oct. 18.—Avert Vanderpool, aged 72 years, a pioneer resident of Benton county, died of a heart attack at his home near here Sunday, Oct. 16, at 3 o'clock. He is survived by his wife, Effie Vanderpool, two sons, Delmar and Walter and one brother, Dave.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Oct. 18.—On Friday afternoon the first Silver tea of this social season will be sponsored by the Ladies' Aid society of the West Salem church, at the home of Mrs. Guy C. Newgent, at 2 o'clock. These pleasant social afternoons are given monthly, are open to all ladies interested and this year promise to be "different" and very interesting. Assistant hostesses will be, Mesdames Robert E. Pattison, Breckenridge, Gilliland and Leonard Burkyne. The Hallowe'en motif will predominate.

TOMPKINS BACKED FOR LEGISLATURE

GRAND ISLAND, Oct. 18.—The Grand Island Improvement club at its regular meeting at the schoolhouse Saturday night unanimously voted to draw up resolutions supporting the candidacy of Morton Tompkins, local farmer, for re-election for state representative from Yamhill county. The president, Charles E. Nelson was authorized to draw up the resolutions.

ATTEND CHURCH MEET

HUBBARD, Oct. 18.—The Sunday school teachers of Hubbard are motoring to Salem for the leadership training school at the First Methodist church. Those attending Monday night were Mrs. George Lettler of the Young People's class; Mrs. Marie Claypool,

Backache Bother You?
It May Warn of Kidney or Bladder Irregularities
A persistent backache, with bladder irregularities and a tired, nervous, depressed feeling may warn of some disordered kidney or bladder condition. Users everywhere rely on Doan's Pills. Praised for more than 50 years by grateful users the country over. Sold by all druggists.

ENDEAVOR ENJOYS SOCIAL GATHERING

Missionary Society Will Meet Wednesday; Club To Start Sessions

MIDDLE GROVE, Oct. 8.—The Evangelical league of Christian Endeavor met at the home of Mildred Wacken Friday night. Mildred Wacken, vice president, presided. Esther Hammer and David Bartruff prepared entertainment in the form of a puzzle party. Those present were Esther and Earl Hammer, Cecil, Roberta and David Bartruff, Genevieve Scharf, Juanita, Norman and Alfred McAllister, Katherine and Harry Scharf, Charles Bangert, Fred Fisher, Clyde Randall, Rev. H. R. Scheuerman and daughter, Opal. Mrs. W. H. Scharf, Miss Hulda Stripling, Mr. and Mrs. Herzman Wacken and Mildred.

KEYNOTES OUT OF HARMONY

Although these two gentlemen strike similar speaking poses, their sentiments and views are widely divergent. At left is Senator Robert Wagner, pictured as he made the keynote speech at the New York State Democratic Convention in Albany, N. Y. His address consisted mainly of a denunciation of "Hoover Republicanism." At right is Hamilton Fish, Jr., who is shown as he keynoted for the State G. O. P. Convention at Buffalo. Fish lauded the Hoover Administration and acingly assailed the policies of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

PROGRAM FOR P-T MEET VARIED ONE

SCIO, Oct. 17.—The October meeting of the P. T. A. will be held Thursday night of this week, at the high school auditorium. Mrs. Jerry Holeczek, president, will preside over the short business meeting.

Kerosene Lamps at Valsetz Discarded As Water Returns

VALSETZ, Oct. 18.—Once more the few remaining families of Valsetz have been given light by Clarence Davis. One 15-horse power direct current generator, has been fixed with a water wheel to produce light and one horse power for Mud Alley.

Thomas Nominated For Mayor; Phelps Is Recorder Choice

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 18.—Local politics are increasing in interest, following a meeting of citizens, when the following were nominated for city offices:

Senator Robert Wagner, pictured as he made the keynote speech at the New York State Democratic Convention in Albany, N. Y. His address consisted mainly of a denunciation of "Hoover Republicanism." At right is Hamilton Fish, Jr., who is shown as he keynoted for the State G. O. P. Convention at Buffalo.

LEASE PORTLAND STATION

JEFFERSON, Oct. 18.—Elmer Henderson and Harold Goin, two Jefferson boys, have gone to Portland, where they have leased a service station on 82nd street.

TOWNSENDS MOVE AGAIN

TURNER, Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Townsend have moved to Auburn. They lived in that vicinity some years ago, and after an absence of a few years, moved to the Lloyd Hillary farm last spring. They were active members of the Surprise grange.

NO MORE GAS IN STOMACH AND BOWELS

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in stomach and bowels take Bealman's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach gas and all the bad effects resulting from gas pressure.

FAREWELL IS HELD FOR O. N. TRUEAX

FEDEK, Oct. 18.—A farewell party was held at the Joe Trueax home Friday night honoring Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Trueax and family who moved to Portland Saturday. Mr. Trueax will attend the Bible school there.

Union Hill Grange's Fair Set for Friday

UNION HILL, Oct. 18.—Union Hill grange will hold its community fair and celebration of national boosters' night at the regular meeting Friday, October 21. A good program is being prepared and the meeting will be open to the public after 8:45 o'clock. All grangers and other interested are urged to attend.

ROTHMOOR COATS

They're what you mean when you say "Stunning!"
Girls love their rich fabrics - their luxurious furs - their style. Women of fine taste take pride in their marvelous quality and workmanship. Men know they're just simply stunning coats.
New Fall styles, new colors, new fabrics
$29.50
and up to $115
SOLD EXCLUSIVELY IN SALEM BY Johnson's
The Store for Ladies
464-466 State

The Oregon Statesman
Bargain Offer!
By Mail $3.00 Per Year.
IN OREGON ONLY
DON'T DELAY - REMIT TODAY - TODAY'S PAPER TODAY
ORDER NOW - RENEW NOW
Cut This Out and Mail With Your Check
The Oregon Statesman, Salem, Oregon
{ } New Subscriber
{ } Old Subscriber
Find enclosed $3.00 to cover my subscription for one year to The Oregon Statesman.
Name _____
Address _____ Rt. _____ Box _____
Please find $_____ for Accident Policy.
() Renewal Policy () New Policy

Moving - Storing - Carting
Larmer Transfer & Storage
PHONE 3131
We Also Handle Fuel Oil and Coal