

FINAL RITES HELD FOR JOSEPH OUPOR

Hixsons Visit old Friends at Scio; Woman Fractures Nose in Fall

SCIO, Oct. 15.—Funeral services for Joseph Oupor, who died at an Albany hospital Friday morning, were held at the Richardson Gap hall Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in Franklin Butte Masonic cemetery. Mr. Oupor is survived by three sons, Joe Oupor, who resides in Scio, and James and John Oupor, who live on farms close to the home of their father.

Bogart-Nuptials

Dr. Loren E. Bogart and Mrs. Besse Ford, both of Eugene, were quietly married at the home of George Sutherland Friday night, in the presence of only the required number of witnesses. The bride and groom spent a few days visiting at the Dean Morris residence in Scio.

Almond Orchard of 27 Trees Produces 500 Pounds Nuts

KEIZER, Oct. 15.—Joseph Schults living on a ranch north of Salem in the Keizer district is elated over his crop of almonds this year. He has an orchard of 27 trees 2 years old which bore 500 pounds of fine nuts, this being the first year they have borne any amount.

Cattle Home From Summer Range Held For Better Market

LYONS, Oct. 15.—Lawrence Trask made a trip to Minto bringing the last of the week to bring out his range cattle. He came home Sunday, but was unable to find all of the stock. Those he brought home were in fine condition and ready for market.

Twin Muskmelons And Cabbages Are Garden's Oddities

GRAND ISLAND, Oct. 15.—Adelbert Smith, local truck gardener, grew some unusual specimens among his various crops this past summer. During the melon season he had three pairs of twin muskmelons. The melons of each pair were of standard size but just grown together. In his cabbage patch he found another oddity when he discovered a stalk upon which were growing two nice sized heads of cabbage.

Six Acres of Squash Yield About 90 Tons

TALBOT, Oct. 15.—This part of the valley has proved to be ideal for raising squash. D. E. Turnidge planted about six acres of squash this last spring which yielded between 80 and 90 tons of beautiful squash, being nearly all of marketable size and quality. This crop does not require much cultivation and is easy to harvest.

WALNUT HARVEST STARTED

JEFFERSON, Oct. 15.—Walnut harvest has begun in the orchards around Jefferson. The rain has interfered with the picking, as one can only work between showers.

STOCKS RETAIN PART OF ADVANCE DROP IN EXCHANGE HURTS GRAINS

Selling of Tobaccos Not Quite Enough To Overcome

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Stocks refused to be smoked completely out of an early rally by late selling of the tobacco shares today, and the market closed generally higher, nearly cancelling Monday's losses.

Trading was again dull, although livelier than yesterday; it also had a highly professional appearance. In bonds, U. S. Government bonds looked best with an assortment of new 1932 highs.

Winnipeg Activity is Confined to May Deliveries

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Jolted by a big break in British Exchange to the lowest point since January, wheat and other cereals reacted sharply from advances scored today.

An unsettling influence was the fact that government-sponsored supporting operations at Winnipeg appeared confined to May wheat contracts, with the December delivery left to shift for itself.

P. T. A. Diploma is Given Mrs. Miller

MONMOUTH, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Inez Miller, who headed the department of rural education at the Oregon Normal school, prior to its elimination from the curriculum, has this week received a diploma from the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. This was tendered Mrs. Miller in recognition of completion of a course in Parent Teacher work, and authorizes her to teach such work where it may be offered as a part of school instruction. Mrs. Miller is the only person in the state given this distinctive honor.

BETTER THAN BREAD LINE

Here's one of hundreds of men who have moved into the California gold country to gain an education from schools that caught the wave of intensive mining activities in early days. He is H. Vanocle of Glendale, Cal., and although inexperienced in mining when he started, he has managed to live on his small goldfield earnings.

Spranger Awarded Silver Medal For Stock Show Exhibit

BETHEL, Oct. 17.—Arno C. Spranger will receive a silver medal for a 97.7 per cent score on grade A raw milk at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland. His dairy lacked only three-tenths of 1 per cent of winning a gold medal. His grade A raw milk graded the highest of any around Salem. This is the first time Spranger has ever competed, as his is a new dairy.

WREMS TO SILVERTON

GRAND ISLAND, Oct. 15.—T. W. Weems, who with his son Aubrey and family came from Alabama last winter and since February have been residing on the Buffey estate, left Friday for Silvertown where he will be employed for a month before returning to his Alabama home. The son and family plan to spend the winter at their present location in this community.
