Large Reception is Planned for Tonight

A semi-formal reception has been arranged for tonight commencing at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. C. Birtchett and family in the lovely reception rooms of the First Presbyterian church. Members of the session, assisted by the ladies aid of the church are acting as hosts for this affair.

Guests will be received by a line in which will stand Dr. and Mrs. Birtchett, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. E. A. Kenney, Prof. Frank Churchill, Dr. and Mrs. Altman and Mrs. L. C. Clement.

Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. F. E. Churchill, Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. Frank Powers, Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. John Harbison and Mrs. T. S. MacKenzie.

Mrs. C. E. Moody, Mrs. Charles Selgund and Mrs. James Teed have had charge of planning the social hours.

A program has been arranged to be given following the greeting of the guests. A talk will be made by J. J. Fitzsimmons; Miss Helen Banner will be incidental soloist with the choir in two numbers; vocal solos will be given by Miss Josephine Albert, Miss Elizabeth Clement, and Wendell Robinson.

Mrs. Mary Talmage Headrick and Miss Jeanette Scott will play violin solos and there will be a mixed quartet in which will sing Mr. and Mrs. James Teed and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scott.

Salem Women to Greet Guests

Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, president of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women, and her fellow members will today greet women from all over Oregon who are arriving for the ninth annual state convention of the A. A. U. W.

A president's conference is one of the important events of the opening day of the convention. This will open at 4 o'clock in the Masonic temple where all the convention sessions will be held.

The evening will be given over to a banquet, beginning at 6:30 o'clock, the highlight of which is the talk to be made by Dr. Edward O. Sisson of Reed college who will speak on the subject of "The Crisis in Ownership." Dr. Sisson is an educator of international prominence and his remarks will be of outstanding merit.

Mrs. G. A. Johnson, state president, will preside at this banquet.

Guests Entertained at LaRout Home

Mrs. N. LaRout entertained jointly with Mrs. Effie W. Dunlap Wednesday at the LaRout home in compliment to members of the west central circle of the First Methodist church.

Special compliment was paid to those guests whose birthdays are October events. The hostesses were among those celebrating October birthdays. Two large birthday cakes made an usually attractive centerpiece for the tea tables at the refreshment hour. Mrs. Ronald Glover assisted the hostesses in serving.

The guest rooms were artistically arranged with late fall flowers from the LaRout gardens. About 20 guests were present for the afternoon.

WHY I SHOP AT MILLER'S—

Don't you enjoy shopping at a store where salespeople permit you to indulge your own taste . . . where they are not constantly urging something upon you that you know is not your type at all? This is one of the reasons why you'll like shopping here. You will always find intelligent service — service that knows when to give an opinion and when to refrain. But should you need advice, you'll receive competent assistance, too.
