SALEM HEIGHTS, Oct. 21-The reception for the new teachers, Hylda Foster, Wands Phillips and Dorothy Dutton, given by the Woman's club of Salem Heights was well attended Thursday night at the community hall. F. M. Erickson, chairman of the school board gave the address of welcome. Roy Bohannon, president of the community club welcomed the teachers in behalf of the community. This was followed by a short talk by Cecile Wiegand, principal.

Mrs. Emma Whealdon then entertained the guests with reminiscences of her early teaching days. Two solos, were sung by Miss Elisabeth Clement, accompanied by Marjory O'Dell on the piano and Wanda Phillips on the violin. A piano solo, "Br'er Rabbit" was then played by Miss O'Dell. Mrs. Gladys Washburn, president of the Woman's club was hostess. Mrs. Belle Douglas was in charge of refreshments.
