

County Club Women Meet in Woodburn; Colorful Social Events Planned

Music With Splendid Variety Will Feature Days of Next Fortnight For Capital City Devotees

Programs of Song and Instrument Make Alluring Schedule of red Letter Days for Calendar of Music Lovers of Salem

THE week opens auspiciously for music, a vital part of every program for social life during the late fall and winter season. As has been said before in these columns this year is particularly outstanding in the superior type of music which is being offered Salem. There is a splendid variety and high quality which deserves excellent support. Ambitious things are being undertaken in the musical life of Salem and represent commendable growth in the appetite of the musical public. Strong support for each program will be the least that can be done by those being offered the opportunities of this season.

The A Cappella choir of Portland, one of the finest singing organizations of the coast, will present an excellent program Monday night at the First Presbyterian church.

This choir comes to Salem requesting only transportation fee and thus only a very small charge is being made. There are 40 voices in this singing group which is directed by Clarence Faris and is sponsored by the First Presbyterian church of Portland.

The aim of the choir in coming to Salem is solely to encourage a finer ministry of music in churches. The program is outstanding and of high merit and the privilege to hear such an organization for practically nothing is a rare opportunity.

Tuesday any Salem friends of charming Miss Nancy Thielson, lyric soprano, will motor to Albany to the First Presbyterian church there, where Miss Thielson is being presented in recital by the Albany college. The hour is 8 o'clock and there is no charge.

Miss Thielson will be soloist for the first program of the symphony orchestra of the Salem Philharmonic association which will be given sometime within the next six weeks.

The symphony group under the direction of Jacques Gerszkovitch is practicing twice a week. Careful selection has given a wonderful playing foundation and the program is high for the accomplishments of the group by those who have listened in on recitals.

Mr. Gerszkovitch, who made Portland's junior symphony an important unit in musical realms of the United States is apparently leading Salem's orchestra unit into splendid positions. The first concert is being warmly anticipated.

November 1 a program which promises to be a joy to all fortunate enough to hear it will be given in the First Christian church by Michael Arenstein, first cellist of the Portland symphony orchestra and a cellist of note in the United States. Press approbation from the east as well as the west gives to this musician an enviable place in his art.

Dr. Emil Enna, writing of the musician, calls him a "cultured and brilliant musician." And continues that "his work as soloist with the orchestra of the Portland symphony," this past season and his individual recital at the Woodcraft hall have placed Arenstein as one of the world's greatest "cellists."

The cellist was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, and was educated there under the tutelage of such distinguished musicians as Professor Joseph Press and ensemble work under Auer and Felix Blumenfeld.

His father was a prominent piano merchant and was the first to introduce the famous Steinway to Russia, and his parental home was the gathering place for musical personalities of the continent.

The Revolution brought him to America eventually. All this has added much to his personality and to his musical interpretation.

The proceeds of the Arenstein program which is being sponsored by the Ladies' Madrigal club under the direction of Prof. E. W. Hobson, will be given over to the purchase of music for a "spring festival" of music which is being planned by the group as an annual event for Salem, by Prof. Hobson.

The introductory program as now planned will be superb work of Grieg, "Olaf Trygvasson." This is the story in music of the return of Trygvasson from Russia to Norway to bring Christianity to the Odin and Thor worshipping Norwegians.

A chorus of 50 or 60 voices is being planned with orchestral accompaniment. This in itself will be a splendid undertaking in musical circles and the superior benefit program upon which Mr. Arenstein appears will be a splendid one to support.

"The Bells of Beaujolais," a comic operetta in two acts by Louis Adolphe Coerne will be presented by the combined chorus classes of Salem high school Friday evening, November 4.

This is the first dramatic offering to be given by the music department for some time. There is an unusual amount of interest being taken by the student singers who always take delight in representing some character other than themselves. The performance of an operetta is especially educative in that those who participate gain confidence and poise through public appearance.

"The Bells of Beaujolais" is tuneful, rhythmic and represents a high type of musical composition. The dramatic scenes are light and ridiculous and the characterizations afford a wide scope of portraiture.

Lena Belle Tartar is coaching the dramatics and music. Ola Clark will serve as faculty manager; Harold Jepsen is business manager; Frances Field and Shirley Engholm are in charge of the costumes.

Proceeds will pay for music scores for the department and possibly the expenses of students who will represent the school in the state and northwest orchestras this year.

NOTED 'CELLIST

MICHAEL ARENSTEIN, noted cellist, and now first cellist with the Portland Symphony orchestra, will appear in recital here November 1 at the First Christian church.

Radio Programs Of Keen Interest

Today is of special radio interest to a large number of Salem people. Tonight at 10:15 o'clock the Atwater Kent voice competition will be broadcast from Portland in the state contest.

Salem has two entrants, Miss Josephine Albert, soprano, and Wendell Robinson. If Miss Albert and Mr. Robinson are successful in this state contest then they will go to San Francisco for the western district contest and then to New York for the national contest if successful there.

The voice of the radio audience counts 40 per cent in selection of the winner.

A second broadcast of interest will be over KEX at 9 o'clock tonight when the Oregon Federation of Music clubs will present its broadcast. The Alicia McElroy ensemble will play and Ernest Crosby, tenor, will sing. Miss Helen Calbreath, president of the association, will speak on the value of a permanent municipal band to Portland.

Monmouth—Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Butler were hosts to the Wednesday night bridge club at their home, Oct. 19. A pot-luck dinner preceded the playing. Those enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Petherow, Mr. and Mrs. James Gentle, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Wolverson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. DeArmond held honors at cards.

Jack Kuhn is spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn. Young Kuhn is a member of the Tau Kappa Epsilon at Oregon State College.

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Christensen entertained at dinner at their home Thursday evening to a group of American Legion state and district officers including Carl Mosler, Portland, state adjutant; Jack Eakin, Dallas, district vice-president of the Legion's Auxiliary. Local guests were J. B. Lorence, commander of Monmouth's post, and Mrs. Lorence; and Larry Wolfe.

The dramatic club will sponsor the first of a series of dances Monday night in St. Joseph's Hall, Winter and Chemekeka streets. These dances are open to the public.

Gay Party is Hallowe'en Affair

UNIVERSITY circles this week have been socially busy despite the close of "rush" affairs. The festive spirit of Hallowe'en entertaining and the football season make delightful incentives.

Miss Beatrice Hartung entertained with a colorful evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, Saturday night. Following an informal evening with Hallowe'en the gay decorative background for the entertaining, a late coffee hour was enjoyed. At this time Miss Bertha Babcock assisted Miss Hartung.

Guests bidden by Miss Hartung included Miss Ruth Gillette, Miss Ann Erickson, Miss Irene Kaufman, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Mildred Hewitt, Miss Faith Sherburn, Miss Betty-Mae Hartung, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Elizabeth Clement, Miss Marjorie Wunder, Miss Mildred Miller, Miss Marian Bretz, Dwight Adams, Walter Erickson, Andy Peterson, Keith Jones, Miles Woodworth, Percy Sweet, Ronald Haines, Lowell Eddy, Howard Bergman, Charles Campbell, Kenneth Manning, Karl Weisner, Bernard Newby and Gus Moore.

A second party of gay informality was the fireside party at the Beta Chi sorority home Friday night at which time a group of university men were entertained following the Albany-Willamette football game.

Guests were received in the drawing rooms and in the new social room which has been arranged in the sorority home. An original decorative note was carried out with the walls covered with charcoal drawings of comic characters.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Allan and Mrs. James Young, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Miss Ethel Frazer, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. A. M. Jerman, Mrs. Ted Paulus, Miss Nan Putnam and Mrs. Paulus.

MISS NANCY THIELSEN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielson, who is being presented in voice recital by Albany college Tuesday night at the First Presbyterian church in Albany. Miss Thielson, talented young soloist, will also be soloist with the first program of the symphony offering of the Salem Philharmonic association.

Luncheon is Wedding Day Compliment To Guest

MRS. WILLIAM PAULUS entertained Friday afternoon with a charming luncheon and afternoon of contract bridge for Mrs. Stanley Allan of Pendleton who has been visiting Salem for the past several days and who will leave Monday for her home.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Allan and Mrs. James Young, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Miss Ethel Frazer, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. A. M. Jerman, Mrs. Ted Paulus, Miss Nan Putnam and Mrs. Paulus.

C. Y. M. P. Will Entertain Tuesday

The Catholic Young Married People's organization of St. Joseph's church will entertain with a party Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the hall.

The committee in charge is Mrs. Lawrence Boeh, Mrs. Phillip Jaskowski, Mrs. B. J. Kropp, Mrs. M. G. Tanser, and Mrs. E. A. Hucklestein.

All young married people of the parish are invited to attend the affair.

Kingwood—A profusion of fall flowers made a picturesque setting for the opening meeting of the Book and Thimble club Thursday afternoon at the home of the retiring president, Mrs. Roy Layce. Annual election resulted as follows: Mrs. Ray Ferguson, retiring vice president, automatically became president; Mrs. Charles Schwartz, vice-president.

Mrs. A. L. Applewhite, secretary and Mrs. Applewhite will have charge of the entertainment hour at the next meeting, Thursday, November 3 at the home of Mrs. Ross Damrell.

St. Joseph's Y. M. P. club was entertained Wednesday evening by Father Buck. Entertainment was given by the club members and refreshments were served at a long table.

The next party will be given in St. Joseph's hall Tuesday evening, October 25, and Catholic Married Young People are cordially invited. The only stipulation being that notification be given to the pastor in advance.

An interesting meeting is being planned for Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kletzing, at which time members of Chi Delta chapter of Delphians will meet. Miss Alma Clair Bicknape will talk on Italian drama. Topics will be taken by Mrs. R. D. Barton, Mrs. J. Vinton Scott, and Mrs. Ralph Kletzing. Mrs. Scott has spent several years in China and she will have incidents of more than usual interest for her talk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot will entertain Wednesday night assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murray, complimenting members of the Leslie Can Do class of the Leslie Methodist church. The hour has been set for 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Lyman Lundberg has as her house guest her son, Weldon Hayes of Gilroy, Cal. He is stopping over here en route to Portland where he will enter school.

Week of Color and Gay Activities Beckons Salem Social Circles To Advance Happily

Hallowe'en With its Mysteries and Brilliant Color Schemes Will Give Inspiration to Parties; Secret Event Will be of Large Interest

AND now with October's bright blue weather turned to sober gray clouds above and wet winds that splash and push the just and unjust alike, there comes that splendid holiday of merry-making, that—yes, it is, that heathenish heirloom which old and young alike love and thrill to celebrate—Hallowe'en. With its color and spirit it makes the gray of these last days of October fitting atmosphere for its weird and ghostly doings.

So the parties that are being planned, the dances that are to be given, and the general trend of social functions, all reflect the black and orange, and the ghostly symbols of the ancient celebration of the night when spirits, restless waifs that seek for peace, walked the earth in fruitless search.

That this week holds a secret rumor has it that a wedding of large interest is to be celebrated—and Dame Rumor is correct in no few number of these speculations.

One of the largest parties of the season will be this week and will be a formal bridge tea at the Marlon hotel for which Mrs. L. D. Lambeth and Mrs. Karl Heinlein will be hostesses.

Two of the largest dances of the season are being planned. The Subscription club with its large membership of the prominent young married people of the city will dance at Masonic hall Saturday night. This will be a formal dance. Many smart dinner parties and other gay gatherings will precede the dance and there will be any number of out-of-town people here as guests of members for the dance.

Then the Tillcum Dancing club will meet Tuesday for its first dance of the year and this will be a brilliant affair at Castilian hall. The club meets the fourth Tuesday of each month. The president is V. E. Kuhn and A. A. Gueffroy is secretary. Dinner parties and after supper parties will add to the festivity of this dance. The membership of this club includes:

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Armstrong, Judge and Mrs. Harry Belt, Mr. and Mrs. Leif Bergsvik, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Burch, Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Braun, Dr. and Mrs. Armin Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dause, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dause, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Day, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Demaris, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gard, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Glutch, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gueffroy, Dr. and Mrs. V. E. Hockett, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Herman, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Hulsey, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Heinlein, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Lebold, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Don Madison, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Molloy, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. McNamara.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Newmyer, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Page, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Playsecki, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Rossland, Judge and Mrs. Geo. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Rickotts, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Scellars, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Seely, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Vehrs, Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Windshar, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiedmer, Mr. and Mrs. Van Wiedner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Willett, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wolgamott, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wipac, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zosel, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Maj. and Mrs. E. V. Wootton.

Invitations are out for the first dance of the season for Illihee country club members at the clubhouse Saturday night. This will be a Hallowe'en affair.

And looking ahead in the fortnight there is the splendid "fortnightly" ball, a colorful event for November 4 being called "A Night in Spain" which is being given by the Salem Lions club as a beginning to its Christmas cheer work.

This is the first such affair for the club and it is planned to make this an annual event in one form or another. There will be at least 1000 invitations extended and Lions clubs from nearby valley towns will be present with stunts to be offered in contest and which will offer variation to the dancing program.

There will also be a program characteristic of Spanish life offered as an attractive supplement to the evening of dancing. Gay concessions featuring Spanish things will be a part of the decorative scene for the army which is to be the scene of the ball.

The ball will be a costume affair and thus added color will be given. Mrs. Eugene Grabenhorst has charge of the women's committee which is assisting the large committee appointment of Lion club members. General chairman is B. A. Newman.

The balcony of the army is being arranged for spectators and all in all the affair promises to be one of the smartest and gayest of the fall and winter season, and certainly it is an innovation which should be welcomed by Salem.

Bridge Tea Compliments Bride

A CHARMING AFFAIR of the week end was the bridge tea for which Miss Dorothy White was hostess at the home of her parents, General and Mrs. George A. White on Letelle street, Saturday afternoon complimenting Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., nee Marjorie Swafford of Oregon City.

A lovely tea hour followed the afternoon of bridge and at this time additional guests called. Mrs. Homer Goulet presided at the tea and Mrs. White was assisted in serving by Miss Henrietta White, Miss Margaret Drager and Miss Zora Farnsworth.

Calling at the tea hour were Mrs. Homer Smith, Sr., Mrs. Louis D. Farnsworth and Miss Rowena Eyre.

Guests for the afternoon included Miss Mildred Swafford and Miss Marjorie Swafford of Oregon City, sisters of the honor guest; Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Irma Swafford, Miss Kate Corey, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Ruthia Hoffnell, Miss Virginia Newland, Miss Peggy Goodfellow, Miss Kay Goulet, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Caroly Braden, Miss Phyllis Day, Miss Henrietta White, Mrs. Deryl Myers, Mrs. Marvin Headrick and Mrs. Frank Shafer.

Salem Chemekeka Players are finding much interest displayed in active cooperation on the part of local merchants for the series of dramatic productions which the group will present to Salem audiences this season. Mr. B. A. Newman, manager of the local stores, is giving his services to arrange the stage for the productions and also to aid with supplying needed articles for the sets. This is true of other companies and the success of getting the first of the series of plays, "Back Seat Drivers" under way is practically done.

Another play "The Ghost Bird" is already under casting with Frederick Lehman, graduate of Linfield college where he had two years of dramatic work, selected for a part and Miss Maxine Pettijohn, who has been writing and directing original skits at Roberts, has also been cast for a part.
