HAYESVILLE, Oct. 24-At the first meeting of the Hayesville community club held Friday night at the schoolhouse, Miss Edna Fitts was elected president for the coming year and John Ne-kuda was elected secretary. After the short business session humorous playlet "Hiring a Servant" was presented by the children of the advanced grades. The girls chorus also gave two delightful selections.

A number of political speakers were present. Victor Griggs and Hal Hoss made a few remarks. Hal Patton spoks on behalf of good clean politics. Charles Sprague of The Statesman explained the 13 measures to be voted upon at the coming election and L. L. Thomas of Coos Bay spoke on the negative side of the bill relating to consolidating the institutions of higher education.

Mr. Patton presented Mrs. Donaldson whose parents, both deaf mutes, founded the first deaf school in Salem in 1870.
