PRICES ON STREET

MOVE LISTLESSLY
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—(AP)—With speculative interest continuing at low ebb, prices moved listlessly on the stock exchange today, the main body of stocks closing a fraction higher.
Total transfers reached 739,103 shares. After a dull opening, stocks moved forward 1 to 2 points around mid-day when firm or wheat prices appeared to buoy up security speculation. Later, however, the list turned downward and early gains were replaced with small losses.
Gains around a point were made by American Can, Corn Products, Pullman, Pacific Gas and American Waterworks. Public Service of New Jersey, gained nearly 2. But several leaders, including U. S. Steel, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, General Electric, International Harvester, Pennsylvania, N. W. York Central and Woolworth were unchanged to a fraction higher. General Motors closed a shade lower.
Additional earnings reports covering the third quarter showed deficits in a large number of cases. The National Steel Co. reported 7 cents a share earned on the capital stock against 24 cents in the corresponding period of 1931.
