Prominent Oregon Woman is Rural Club Speaker

Rickreall—A representative group of Polk county club women attended the one-day institute of the federated clubs of Rural Women Thursday at Rickreall.

Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, executive secretary of State Tuberculosis association and secretary of National Federation of Women's clubs, conducted an interesting open forum at the morning session. Mrs. Dunbar prefaced her talk by advising that the Federated clubs organize a junior department of young matrons and high school graduates who would be of invaluable aid with their pep, enthusiasm and vitality.

Mrs. Dunbar stated that there are two questions before the public, the 13th amendment and the repeal of Oregon prohibition laws. "In traveling through the state I find that the majority are in favor of the 13th amendment in the hope that a better plan will soon be brought forth," said Mrs. Dunbar.

In speaking of child welfare upon which she is an authority the speaker said:

"I find that the people are rallying to defend children's rights. In South Dakota where I spoke at a large educational meeting, I detected a note of warning in all speeches and upon inquiring discovered that their state was in danger of going 'Red,' and depriving the children of school privileges by the intimidation method. In many cases American families having to move away to a distance to school their children."

In speaking of physical care of children Mrs. Dunbar stated that appropriations have been slashed in the state health department. She told that in America there are six million undernourished children; a million with defective speech, a million with weak and damaged hearts caused principally from contagious diseases, three million with defective hearing, three hundred thousand are crippled, blindness is prevalent and three thousand eighty have tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis, stated Mrs. Dunbar, kills more than any other disease and she requested that the federation take over the Christmas seal sale this year to further help out.

In conclusion Sadie Orr-Dunbar said: "We must stop, look and listen in this day and age. One thing done well now will not count if something done before is not done properly."

Preceding her talk Mrs. Forrest Martin, club president, presided at the morning session.

Mrs. Martin stated that contributions of fruit will be collected and brought to the November meeting for the Doernbecker hospital.

A 12:30 o'clock dinner was followed by the afternoon session at which Mrs. Forrest Martin presided. As an opening number Mrs. Anna G. Dashiell sang, accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Utter. Mrs. Prentiss, head of the department of child development of Oregon State college gave some inspiring thoughts to club members on "Child Welfare." Mrs. Prentiss used blackboard illustrations and in brief, "In such times as these the subject to be discussed is meeting the needs of the child for security."

Mrs. Martin introduced Oscar Hayer of Dallas as the next speaker. To make his talk more interesting, sample ballots were distributed to each member to follow him as he gave his personal views of each measure to come up before legislature which he did lucidly at some length.

Leslie Can Do Class Has Jolly Party

The gay spirit of Halloween hovered close about the evening social party Wednesday evening when members of the Leslie Can Do class of Leslie Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot. Assisting as hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murry and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Greenwood.

The guest rooms were arranged with the weird and macabre of Halloween and the games and informality of the social hours were in keeping with the season. Mrs. Greenwood as a fortune teller won much applause as a feature of the evening.

The service table at the refreshment hour presented an attractive appearance arranged as it was with a white cloth and this centered with clever orange and black favors and black tapers in crystal holders.

Present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Gillon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Vick, Charles Gillon, Mrs. W. C. Connor, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murry, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Boyce, Mrs. B. E. Otjen, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis, Mrs. A. C. Bohrstedt, Miss Laverne Proctor, Rev. and Mrs. S. Darlow Johnson, C. W. French, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Byrnes Jr., special guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, William Linfoot and Ross Linfoot.

Mrs. James Young Is Hostess

An attractive afternoon was enjoyed at the James Young home Thursday when Mrs. Young was hostess with a luncheon and followed this with contract bridge in compliance to her club members. Halloween set the color and decorative note for the affair. Mrs. T. A. Livesley was a special guest.

Mrs. E. R. Heise is Honored Guest

A charming luncheon, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Elewert, with Mrs. Elewert and Mrs. R. R. Hewitt as hostesses, complimenting Mrs. E. R. Heise, their mother, on the occasion of her 80th birthday.

Mrs. Heise is a pioneer of Oregon and most of the guests of Thursday were friends whom she had known during the long years she has been a resident of Polk county.

Mrs. Heise was born in Illinois and in 1853 crossed the plains behind a team of oxen together with her parents and other Polk county pioneers. The family settled near Rickreall and there lived for many years. Recently Mrs. Heise has made her home with her daughters in Salem, Mrs. Elewert and Mrs. Heise.

One of the guests was Mrs. J. C. Allen of Polk county, and oldest sister of Mrs. Heise. Mrs. Allen is 88 years old. She was accompanied by her two daughters, Dr. Lena A. Boone and Mrs. O. A. Waite.

The luncheon table was artistically centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums and gladioli and fern. The luncheon cloth was of snowy white, embroidered linen which Mrs. Hewitt brought back with her from a trip to the Orient.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Heise, Mrs. J. C. Allen, Mrs. H. C. Fox, Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr., Mrs. Kitty Garver, Mrs. Scott Riggs, Mrs. Ruth Sayre, Mrs. S. M. Chittenden, Mrs. John Harriet, Mrs. Martha Schmuck, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. Herman Schellberg, Mrs. W. R. Kirkwood, Dr. Lenora A. Boone, Mrs. O. A. Waite and for Mrs. Elewert and Mrs. Hewitt.

Van Hoogstraten Has Returned to Portland

The Symphony orchestra season for Portland is all but here. William van Hoogstraten, who arrived this week from Europe, after conducting October 7, at the Brahms concert in Bonn, Germany where he was acclaimed as one of the foremost conductors of the world, started rehearsals immediately of Beethoven's Seventh Symphony, which will be presented at the opening Portland concert, Monday night, November 7.

Mr. van Hoogstraten brought with him new music for the Portland orchestra, which includes a Borodin symphony and a Sibelius symphony. He expressed happiness to be in Oregon again, and is most enthusiastic over prospects for the approaching music season.

Charles F. McCulloch was elected president as A. R. Watzek, former president, resigned because of business demands.

Hallow'en Masque Party Jolly One

Shades of ghosts and weird symbols of Hallow'en legend combined with guests in costume and masked made the party for the Ecclesia club Wednesday night at the home of Miss Golda Wheeler something to be remembered.

The guests were met at the door by a ghost and a witch who conducted them through Hallow'en decorated rooms and brought them to the guest rooms where fortune telling and games occupied the evening hours. At the refreshment hour the small tables were artistically arranged with tapers and Hallow'en favors.

A feature of the refreshment hour was the birthday cake, lighted with candles, and cut in honor of the birthday of Miss Winifred Senn, an October child.

Assisting Miss Wheeler as hostesses were Miss Irene de Lisle, and Miss Edna McElhaney. Prizes for the costumes included Miss Norma Sutherland, in a tramp outfit, and second to Miss Esther Erickson in a collegiate boy outfit.

Present were Esther Erickson, Flora Turnbull, Charlotte Hornung, Emma Dell Schwabauer, Velma Hominger, Elinor Dorance, Norma Sutherland, Ann Heisler, and Winifred Senn. Mrs. Sophia Wheeler was a special guest.

Miss Elgin is Complimented

Miss Kathryn Elgin, bride-elect of Clayton Foreman, was the inspiration for an attractive shower Wednesday evening with Miss Wilma Gliese as hostess.

Bridge was in play for several hours and winning scores were held by Mrs. Donald Dekebach, and Miss Bunny Miller. Miss Dorothy Bell assisted at the late supper hour before which a shower of lovely gifts was presented.

Discussion Program Proves Excellent

Mrs. J. P. Frizell was hostess to the Presbyterian Ladies Aid society at her home Wednesday afternoon and the meeting proved to be one of the most interesting ones of recent date.

A discussion program had been planned by the committee in charge and C. A. Sprague lead the discussion concerning issues to appear on the November ballot.

Musical numbers were presented by Yvonne Smith and Mrs. James Teed. Mrs. Kenneth Dalton ## and Miss Lois Plummer were accompanists.

At the tea hour Mrs. Frizell was assisted by Mrs. H. J. Bean, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. Maude Pendleton, Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. C. A. Mukey, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Mrs. Charles Weller and Miss Margaret McFadden.

The next meeting of the group will be November 30 at the church. At this time the program will be in charge of Lynn Cronmiller, state forester and motion picture of Oregon and forestry work will be presented by W. V. Fuller.
