Event is Fourth one; Judges Will Announce Winners At 7:30 o'clock

DALLAS, Oct. 29 .- Plans have been completed for the fourth annual Hallowe'en parade for grade school children and the event will take place Monday night starting at 7:15. The parade will form at the Dallas junior high school building promptly at 7:15 in order that the judges may select the winners in the various groups by 7:30. Following this the group will march down Main street to Court and then to the bandstand where they will disband.

Mayor Leif Finseth and the city council granted permission to prevent parking on Main street between Mill and Court or on Court street between Main and Jefferson between the hours of 7 and 8 p.m. Chief of Police Neufeldt will be assisted in the work of keeping these streets clear by a detail of Boy Scouts. Burton Bell was named as grand marshal of the parade at a meeting of the committee held Tuesday afternoon. Judges are Listed

The following judges will select the winners in the various groups taking part: Mrs. A. B. Starbuck, Mrs. W. C. Retzer, Mrs. C. N. Bilyeu, Mrs. H. D. Arstill, Mrs C. L. Crider, Mrs. Ralph Howe, Johiah Wills, John Voth and Ivan Warner. The prize list this year includes three room prizes, the first of which is a 3x5 American flag and the second and third, vases. Two grand prizes for boys and girls are included and will be given for the best costumes in the parade regardless of the group they represent. Prizes will be given in each room for the most original costume, the ugliest mask, best clown, best witch, best jack-o-lantern and best ghost costumes.

Eakin in Charge State Commander Jack Eakin of the American Legion will officiate as, master of ceremonies at the bandstand and has arranged for a public speaking unit with which to introduce the winners to the spectators. He will be assisted by Bob Kreason, Earle Richardson, and J. R. Beck in distributing prizes.

The day will be climaxed by the annual Hallowe'en dance held by the American Legion auxiliary. This will be held at the armory with music by the Mills orchestra. There will be solo dances by Beverly Bales and Joan Stinnette in addition to the other entertainment.
