

FARMER UNION IN HOME COMING

School Census in Linn County District has Increase of 16 Names

RIVERVIEW, Nov. 2. — The Farmers' Union held a homecoming Saturday night with a large crowd present. Pot-luck supper was served at 8 o'clock, after which the following program was presented:

Selections by the River-view-Monmouth orchestra; shadow play, "Fate of Slim Lou the Sailor"; songs, Solo high school sextet; short plays, "One Horse Shay" and "The Sniggle Family."

John Shepherd took the school census last week and found 16 new pupils in Riverview district No. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hanky moved to Albany last week. Mr. Hanky was obliged to leave his firm here because of poor health. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eatlin and small daughter of California have moved into the place.

Party for Youngsters
A joint birthday party was given for Jo Ann D'Andrea, 4, Melba Kelly 5, and Maurice Kelly, 5, on Sunday at the Jean Kelly home.

Guests present were Lila D'Andrea, Donna, Shirley and Dorna Kelly, Anna Mary Prokop, Ileen Sprague, Jo Ann D'Andrea, Thelma Sprague, Maurice Kelly, Melba Kelly, Bertrice Serfling, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prokop, Mr. and Mrs. David Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Freever and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Kelley.

Norman Garrison has sold his farm here and with his family is moving to near Mehanan. The Dollariade family of Albany will move into the place here.

MRS. MURDOCK IS PRESIDENT P. T. A.

MONMOUTH, Nov. 2.—Mrs. F. E. Murdock was elected president of Monmouth's Parent-Teacher association at a special election held last night in connection with the regular November meeting. Miss Neva Dallas, vice-president, presided.

Dr. Verne C. Caldwell, a new member of the Normal school's faculty, was speaker of the evening, giving an informative address on "Mental Hygiene." A double quartet of seventh and eighth grade boys sang a booster song led by Miss Marie Mitchell, and a double quartet of seventh and eighth grade girls sang, also led by Miss Mitchell. Mrs. J. B. Lorence gave a finance committee report. After discussion it was decided to keep the individual membership dues at 50 cents.

Mrs. F. E. Chambers talked on the question of study groups among the mothers which was featured last year as part of the necessary standardization required for each parent-teacher unit. As the group meetings entail a great many attendances from mothers having several children in school, it is planned this year to work out an arrangement to eliminate so much conflict with other functions which mothers wish to attend. Study plans will be secured from Oregon State college, and from them a local working plan will be perfected.

Program Arranged To Interest Club Ages; Dance First

SALEM HEIGHTS, Nov. 2.—The Salem Heights community club is sponsoring a community dance to be given at the community hall Saturday night, November 5, dancing to begin at 8 o'clock. One room will be set aside for card playing for those who do not care to dance. This dance is strictly a community affair and is arranged that others will be held at different times during the winter.

Preparations are also under way to set aside one night a week at the hall for the young people of the community who are athletically inclined. This year's program attempt is being made to work out plans so social amusements can be supplied to various wants of the community folk with the hope that it will create greater participation in community affairs. President Bohannon states that it will be his endeavor to supply these diverse wants rather than conduct community activities along any one particular line, thereby creating more enthusiasm among the younger generation for community work.

Politics Subject For Thursday Meet. Of Women's Club

LIBERTY, Nov. 2.—The Women's club will meet Thursday at 8 o'clock at the Zosel home. Mr. Zosel and Mrs. W. Westenhaven will be hostesses.

Scheduled on the program are two papers on "Women in Politics" Mrs. C. W. Stacey will contrast the democratic and republican political platforms. Helen Louise Crosby will be a special guest and is to discuss the ballot measures.

Mrs. Amort elected President of Club

SHAW, Nov. 2.—The Women's Community club, meeting with Mrs. Ed Amort, elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Ed Amort; vice-president, Mrs. M. G. Gilbert; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Fred Gilbert.

District Attorney Candidates Chief Speakers for Club

AUMSVILLE, Nov. 2. — The regular 7 o'clock dinner was served at the community club meeting at the schoolhouse Tuesday night. Speakers were William H. Trindle, candidate for district attorney, and V. R. Griggs, independent candidate for the same office.

In addition the following program was given: Piano solo, Neva Hain; violin and accordion duet, Mr. Trindle and Fred Steiner; dialogue, "Paw Perkins Gets the Abstrac"; Mrs. Landers and Mrs. Mountain; selections by a trio, Fred Denhem, Mr. Pardee, and Morris Baker.

MASQUERADE PARTY IS HELD AT SCHOOL

PEDEE, Nov. 2. — The high school held a masquerade party in the schoolhouse Friday night with each student inviting a guest. Four prizes were given for the best costumes, won by Miss Mildred Strake, Miss Pearl Burbank, Carl Burbank and Chester McCaw.

A birthday dinner was held at the A. L. Burbank home in honor of Grandma Burbank, who was 72 years old Sunday. The children attending included Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dahrens and family of Sandy, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Willet, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Huff and son of Monmouth, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Burbank and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chest Burbank, A. L. Burbank, Mrs. Herbert Panartz and children and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burbank. Mrs. Carl Skelton and Virginia called in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burbank entertained at dinner Friday night for the following guests: Rev. C. P. Gates of Salem, Rev. E. A. Fogg of Kemp Valley and the Misses Eva Poole and Nola Warner.

The primary room had a Halloween party Friday afternoon in the school basement. Each student masked as a ghost and marched in to see the intermediate grades and the high school, after which they went to the basement where games were played.

PUBLIC INVITED TO GRANGERS PROGRAM

MACLEAY, Nov. 2.—One of the most outstanding meetings of the year for the Macleay grange will be held Friday night, November 4. This will be booster night and annual grange fair. The entire meeting will be open to the public.

Dr. David Bennett Hill will put on a moving picture show. The Barrick quartet will furnish music for the evening. There will be no prizes given but an exhibit including everything from livestock and freak eggs to articles years and years old is promised. Entries from anyone attending will be appreciated. Lunch will be served and each family attending is asked to bring a pie and sandwiches.

MORE HALLOWE'EN PARTIES ARE HELD

LIBERTY, Nov. 2.—Hallowe'en parties were held Monday afternoon in Miss Bernadi's, Miss Shogren's and Miss Hummel's rooms. Games and contests were featured in each group and costume prizes were won by Muriel Baker and Roland Cleveland; champion doughnut eaters were Floyd Murhammer and Ila Krauger; champion apple bobber Jackie Mudd, all in Miss Shogren's room. Daniel Davis in Miss Hummel's room won the costume prize and Jacqueline Judd and Margaret Browning were in charge of the games.

Katherine Gannell photographed the football team Friday and took a moving picture of part of the game, which she will exhibit to the boys at her home when it is finished.

The Burke place recently vacated by the Bill Foster family has been leased by Roy Huffman and Eryl Crum who are busy moving in.
